It is understood and agreed, between the parties, that the following are the terms of reference, for harassment investigations that take place under Article 39. The Association and the employer have agreed that the following process will guide the investigation of harassment grievances filed under this Letter of Understanding.

- (a) In the event that the alleged harassment involves two or more members of the YTA, the concerned individuals may wish to refer the matter to Professional Relations. If the complaint is not resolved through the Association’s Professional Relations Policy, the complainant may, within ten (10) instructional days of the conclusion of the attempted resolution, file a complaint with the Harassment Investigator.
- (b) The complaint must otherwise be filed with the Harassment Investigator, not later than ten (10) instructional days after the date on which the employee first becomes aware of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance. Staff Relations is to be given a copy of the grievance.
- (c) The Investigator notifies the respondent that the complaint has been filed, and explains the investigation process.
