ARTICLE 1

PURPOSE

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain harmonious and mutually beneficial relationships between the Employer, the Union and the employees and to set forth herein certain terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.
- 1.02 The provisions of this Agreement apply to the Union, employees and the Employer.

ARTICLE 2

RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Employer described in the certificates issued by the Canada Labour Relations Board dated July 30, 1997, for the Firefighters Bargaining Unit - Board File No. 590-36:
- 2.02 For greater clarity, "employee" shall mean:
- All firefighters employed by the Winnipeg Airports Authority Inc., excluding the Fire Chief
- 2.03 In the event that the Employer creates a new position (which did not exist in the CLRB certificates noted in 2.01), it undertakes to inform the Union of the creation of this new position together with the Employer's position as to whether such position is to be recognized as being part of either bargaining unit. Upon a written request from the Union within forty-five (45) days of notification to this effect, the Employer shall meet with the Union in order to discuss the Employer's position on the inclusion or exclusion of this position in either bargaining unit.
- 2.04 In the event that the parties fail to agree on whether the position shall be included or excluded, either party may refer the case to the Canada Labor Relations Board for decision.

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.01 Except to the extent provided herein, this Agreement in no way restricts the authority of the Employer.
- 3.02 The rights set forth in this Article and those otherwise retained by management shall be exercised in conformity with the provisions of this Agreement reasonably, fairly, in good faith and without discrimination.

UNION SECURITY

- 4.01 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the monthly membership dues from the pay of all employees in the bargaining unit. Where an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any monthly period to permit deductions made under this Article, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deduction from subsequent salary. All employees must become and remain members in good standing of the Union. For new employees, membership shall commence on the initial date of employment.
- 4.02 For the purpose of applying this Article, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each calendar month will start with the first full calendar month to the extent that earnings are available.
- 4.03 The Union shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized monthly deduction to be checked off for each employee.
- 4.04 The amounts deducted in accordance with Clause 4.01 shall be remitted to the Controller of the Union by cheque no later than the 25th of the month following that in which the deductions were made and shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each employee and the deductions made on the employee's behalf.
- 4.05 No employee organization, other than the Union, shall be permitted to have membership dues and, or other monies deducted by the Employer from the pay of employees in the bargaining unit.
- 4.06 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article, except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.

WORK IN THE BARGAINING UNIT

- 5.01 a) Persons not covered by the terms of this Agreement shall not perform duties normally assigned to employees covered by this Agreement, except;

In cases of emergency;

or

When no qualified employees covered by this Agreement are readily available to perform the duties;

or

When there are insufficient qualified employees readily available to perform the work required.

- b) For the life of this agreement there shall be no contracting out of bargaining unit work and employees shall not be subject to layoff or have their hours of work reduced, or for seasonal employees have their recall rights affected. The Employer shall be permitted to contract out work that is currently or historically provided through contracted services.

- 5.02 Subject to the willingness and capacity of individual employees to accept reassignment and retraining, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that any reduction in the work force will be accomplished through attrition.

- 5.03 Notwithstanding 5.01 and 5.02, in the event of unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, which prevents the Employer from meeting its financial obligations, and will have an impact on the Employer's ability to pay the Employees, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to negotiate a resolution. Such resolutions will include but not be limited to the following measures:

- a) retraining
- b) cross training
- c) apprenticeship plan
- d) dual certification
- e) any other temporary measures as mutually agreed between the parties.
- f) voluntary early retirement or a separation incentive ("lump sum" buy out for voluntary layoff) as provided for in Article 33.

STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

- 6.01 There shall be no strikes or lockouts (as defined in the Canada Labour Code and accompanying regulations) during the life of this Agreement.
- 6.02 Where an employee expresses a concern for their safety in attempting to cross a picket-line on the Employer's premises, the Employer will ensure a safe access to the workplace.
- 6.03 If employees are prevented from performing their duties because of a strike or lock-out on the premises of another Employer, the employees shall report the matter to the Employer, and the Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that such employees are employed elsewhere, so that they shall receive their regular pay and benefits to which they would normally be entitled.

JOINT CONSULTATION

- 7.01 The parties acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from joint consultation and are prepared to enter into discussions aimed at the development and introduction of appropriate processes for the purpose of providing joint consultation on matters of common interest.
- 7.02 Upon request of either party, the parties to this agreement shall consult meaningfully and constructively at the appropriate level about contemplated changes in conditions of employment or working conditions not covered by this agreement.
- 7.03 The Employer agrees to give the Union reasonable opportunity to consider and to consult meaningfully and constructively prior to introducing new or changing policies affecting conditions of employment or working conditions not governed by the Agreement.
- 7.04 The Employer agrees that joint consultation meetings shall occur on a regular basis with representatives of the fire-hall to address specific issues related to Firefighters. Issues which continue to be unresolved will be included on the corporate Union Management Consultation Agenda.

- 9.02 A reasonable number of electronic bulletins will be published on the Employers "LAN News" for the publication of official Union notices. Electronic publications of notices or other materials, other than notices of Union meetings, appointment of Union officers and Union social functions, shall require the prior approval of the Employer.
- 9.03 The Employer agrees to permit Union representatives to use the Employer's Electronic Communication Systems (E-mail) for Union business.
- 9.04 The Employer will make available specific locations on its premises for the placement of reasonable quantities of literature of the Union.
- 9.05 A duly accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted access to the Employer's premises to assist in the resolution of a complaint or grievance and to attend meetings called by management.
- 9.06 Where practical, the Employer will provide a meeting room to the Local so that it may carry out Union business.

EMPLOYEE REPRESENTATIVES

- 10.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or otherwise select employees as representatives.
- 10.02 The Union shall determine the jurisdiction of each representative.
- 10.03 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing the name and jurisdiction of its representatives.
- 10.04 A representative shall obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor before leaving work to investigate employee complaints, or process a grievance, or undertake any other Union business, during working hours. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. Where practicable, the representative shall report back to their supervisor before resuming their normal duties.
- 10.05 The Employer shall ensure that new employees are introduced to a representative of the Union on their first day of work.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 11.01 The Employer and the Union agree that discussions should occur between employees, Union representatives and Employer representatives when problems or differences arise in an attempt to resolve problems or differences. This grievance procedure is not intended to preclude any discussion between employees, Union representatives and Employer representatives where discussions, relating to problems or differences occur, the time limits in the Complaint Step will be extended by the appropriate number of days.
- 11.02 If any difference concerning the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement arises between the Employer and or the Union, or between the Employee(s) and the Employer, it shall be processed according to the following grievance procedure. Nothing in this provision deprives employee(s) of any rights or remedies to which they are entitled in any legislation including the transfer legislation. Grievances involving the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of the agreement must have the approval and support of the bargaining agent.
- 11.03 The time limits set out in the grievance procedure are mandatory and not directory. In calculating time limits, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays shall be excluded. In the case of employees working in operations where the days of rest are other than Saturdays and Sundays, then their days of rest shall be excluded. If the time limits set out in Complaint Step, Step Two (2), or Step Three (3) of the grievance procedure are not complied with, then the grievance will be considered as being abandoned, unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.
- 11.04 If the Employer fails to meet a time limit, the Union, at its option, may either advance the grievance to the next step or await the Employer's response, in which case no time limit shall apply against the Union until it has received the Employer's response.
- 11.05 Employee(s) shall have the right to be represented at any step of the grievance procedure. The employee(s) and the Union representative shall be given leave with pay to attend such meetings. At either Complaint Step or Step Two (2), the Employer representative may be assisted by a Human Resource representative. The Union shall be given full opportunity to present evidence and make representations throughout the grievance procedure.
- 11.06 The employee(s) shall be advised of their right to have a Union representative present at any disciplinary meeting or at any meeting held with bargaining unit employee(s) to investigate alleged misconduct of the employee(s).

STEPS OF THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Complaint:

Within twenty-five (25) days of the employee(s) becoming aware of the matter giving rise to the complaint, the employee(s) and or the Union may submit a written complaint to the Employer representative.

Within ten (10) days of the receipt of the complaint the Employer representative shall meet and provide a written response to the employee(s) and the Union representative.

In calculating the twenty-five (25) day period referred to above only days during which the employee(s) is actively at work shall be counted. Where an employee(s) commences a leave period during the then twenty-five (25) day period, calculation of the time in which the employee(s) has submitted the complaint will be suspended. Upon return to work the employee shall have the balance of the twenty-five (25) day period as calculated above in which to submit the complaint.

STEP 2:

If a satisfactory settlement has not been obtained under the complaint, employee(s) and or the Union representative may within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the Employer's decision under the Complaint Step render a grievance in writing, including the redress requested, to the Employer representative designated as Step Two (2) with a copy to Human Resources. This designated Employer representative shall call a meeting and render a decision within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the grievance.

STEP 3:

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled under Step Two (2), then the grievance may be referred to arbitration, within twenty-five (25) days of the expiry of the time limits set out in Step Two (2).

The parties agree that a single arbitrator shall be used as provided for under the Canada Labour Code. The Employer and the Union shall make every effort to agree on the selection of the Arbitrator within ten (10) days after the party requesting arbitration has delivered written notice of submission of the dispute to arbitration.

In the event that the parties fail to agree on the choice of arbitrator, they shall forthwith request the Minister of Labour to appoint an arbitrator.

The arbitrator shall have all the powers vested in it by the Canada Labour Code, including, in the case of discharge or discipline, the power to substitute for the discharge or discipline such other penalties that the arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances, including compensation for lost income and benefits. The arbitrator shall render a decision within a reasonable period, as agreed to by the parties.

The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on both parties.

Each party shall bear one-half (1/2) the cost of the arbitrator.

The arbitrator shall not change modify or alter any of the terms of this agreement.

Expedited Arbitration

The Parties agree that, by mutual consent only, any grievance may be referred to the following expedited arbitration procedure. The Arbitrator shall be chosen by mutual agreement between the Parties.

Procedure:

- a) Grievances referred to expedited arbitration must be scheduled to be heard within ninety (90) days from the date of referral, unless the hearing is delayed by mutual agreement between the Parties or by the Arbitrator;
- b) The Parties shall make every reasonable attempt to proceed by admission and minimize the use of witnesses;
- c) Whenever possible, the Arbitrator shall deliver the decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing, giving a brief resume of the reasons for the decision and then confirm these conclusions in writing within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- d) When it is not possible to give an oral decision at the conclusion of the hearing, the Arbitrator shall render it in writing with a brief resume of the reasons. The Arbitrator must render the written decision as soon as possible but at all times within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- e) The decision of the Arbitrator shall not constitute a precedent;
- f) Such decisions may not be used to alter, modify or amend any part of the Collective Agreement, nor should any decision be incompatible with the provisions of the Collective Agreement; and
- g) Such decisions from the expedited format shall be final and binding upon the Parties.

SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

12.01 Where it appears during any meeting with an employee that the nature of such a meeting must change to an investigation which could result in the disciplining of that employee, that meeting must be immediately terminated.

12.02 When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is to conduct an investigation, or to render a disciplinary decision, concerning that employee, the employee is entitled to have, at their request, a representative of the Union attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of two (2) day's notice of such a meeting, and the written reasons for such a meeting.

12.03 No employee will be disciplined without just and sufficient cause. When an employee is suspended from duty or discharged, the Employer undertakes to notify the employee, in writing of the reason for such suspension or discharge. The Employer will give such notification at the time of the suspension or discharge.

If the employee does not receive the written reason for such suspension or discharge, the employee shall be deemed to be suspended with pay until the written notice is received.

12.04 Discipline, when imposed, shall be imposed in a timely manner. An employee shall be made aware of all disciplinary reports that have been placed on the employee's file. Where the employee has not been made aware of such a report within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the investigation, then no such report shall be introduced as evidence in a hearing relating to disciplinary action. An employee shall receive a copy of any disciplinary report or written reprimand placed on the employee's file.

12.05 If an employee files a grievance against a written reprimand, suspension, or discharge in accordance with Article 11, the Employer will postpone that disciplinary action until the grievance is resolved except when the President & CEO has determined that there has been a theft, breach of trust or serious misconduct.

12.06 In order of severity, the types of disciplinary action shall be:

Counselling;
Oral reprimand;
Written reprimand;
Suspension;
Dismissal.

12.07 In cases of written reprimand, suspension or dismissal the Employer shall provide the Local President with a written record of any disciplinary action taken against the employee including the reason(s) for the disciplinary action. At the employee's request a copy of the related written report shall be forwarded under confidential cover to the Local President.

12.08 Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action, which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee shall be destroyed after eighteen (18) months has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken provided that no further disciplinary action regarding the matter referred to in this document or written statement has been recorded during this period.

12.09 Grievances relating to suspension or discharge shall be filed at Step Two (2) of the grievance procedure. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step Two (2) then the grievance may be referred to Expedited Arbitration in accordance with Article 11.

12.10 No employee shall be disciplined or face threat of discipline for exercising, in good faith, any rights under Part II of the Canada Labour Code. For the purposes of this article, a ministerial declaration alone does not constitute proof of bad faith. For the purposes of clarity, the parties acknowledge that this provision provides no greater protection to employees than that provided by section 147 of the Canada Labour Code.

ARTICLE 13

NO HARASSMENT AND NO OTHER FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE

13.01 The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from sexual and personal harassment and the Employer undertakes to ensure that sexual and personal harassment will not be tolerated in the workplace.

13.02 There shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, coercion, harassment, intimidation, or any disciplinary action exercised or practiced with respect to any employee by reason of age, race, creed, colour, national origin, religious affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, family status, mental or physical disability, language, political affiliation, marital status and criminal record for which a pardon has been granted, or membership or activity in the Union.

- 13.03 a) Sexual harassment is any incident or series of incidents which may cause offense or humiliation to any employee and includes, but is not limited to, unnecessary physical contact, gestures, or comments of a sexual nature, the displaying of pornographic material, or any conduct that might reasonably be perceived as placing a condition of a sexual nature on any aspect of employment.
- b) Personal harassment is any unwarranted behaviour by any person that is directed at and is offensive to an individual or endangers an individual's job, undermines the performance of that job, or threatens the economic livelihood of the individual. Such behaviour may take the form of the application of force, threats, verbal abuse, or harassment of a personal nature or racial nature, which demeans, belittles or causes personal humiliation or embarrassment to the recipient(s).
- 13.04 a) To prevent harassment and other forms of discrimination in the workplace, the Employer shall ensure that policies are in place which address:
- the prevention of abuse of staff;
 - appropriate interventions to deal effectively with situations where abuse is either threatened or has occurred;
 - prompt, thorough follow-up to ensure that the needs of the abused employee are met (e.g. the provision of support and counseling);
 - the incident is investigated and plans developed to lessen the likelihood of further abusive behaviour;
 - the rights of both the complainant and the person(s) against whom the complaint has been lodged; and
 - confidentiality of information.
- b) The Health and Safety Committee may make recommendations to the Employer on the monitoring and developing of prevention strategies or procedures to reduce the risk of abuse of staff.
- 13.05 Enforcement of Clauses 13.02 and 13.03 shall be via the complaint process set out in Clause 13.06. Grievances concerning application of interpretation of this article shall go directly to the final level of the grievance procedure.

13.06 Processing and Mediation of Harassment and Discrimination complaints

a) Step 1 Informal

Informal problem solving should be undertaken if appropriate and not already attempted.

b) Step 2 Complaints

If the employee(s) feels that the informal procedure is unsuccessful or inappropriate, the employee may file a complaint with the Director, Human Resources, within twenty-five (25) working days from the end of the informal procedure.

c) Step 3 Independent Investigation

i) Within one week of the filing of a complaint under this article, the Employer will appoint an independent fact-finder who will be required to report within four weeks of appointment unless an extension is granted by mutual consent between the Employer and the complainant and their Union representative.

ii) The investigator will act under guidelines for investigation developed jointly by the Employer and the Union. These guidelines will provide for due process and full disclosure of results to all principals. The investigator will have powers under the Inquiries Act. All costs of the independent investigation will be paid by the Employer.

iii) Complainants and respondents have the right to be accompanied by a Union representative during the investigation process.

iv) Full copies of the completed investigation report will be provided to the Union and the Employer. The parties will preserve confidentiality, but the Union may provide copies or parts thereof to employees it is representing in the complaint.

d) Step 4 Mediation

Mediation upon mutual consent of the parties is available at any stage of the process and is strongly encouraged. Mediators may be independent of the investigation process. Mediators are not to be compellable witnesses in any related proceeding and are not to keep records except for statistical purposes and for recording of settlements. All cost of mediation will be paid by the Employer.

e) Step 5 Binding Complaint Conciliation

After completion of the independent investigation and failing successful resolution via mediation, the matter will be referred to binding complaint conciliation before a conciliator mutually acceptable to the Employer and the Union. The conciliator so appointed, after meeting with the parties, will recommend appropriate remedies based on the investigation report.

Appropriate remedies will have to be fair to all parties involved, i.e. complainants, respondents and the Employer and shall aim at making the complainant whole. Should the conciliator find the investigation report incomplete or unsatisfactory, the conciliator will have the power to order a new or revised investigation. Should the conclusions not be accepted which were drawn by the investigation report, altered conclusions may be drawn. The Employer and the Union agree to accept and implement the findings of the binding complaint conciliator. All costs of the binding complaint conciliation will be paid by the Employer unless the complainant is represented by the Union wherein such case all costs will be equally shared by the Employer and the Union.

EMPLOYEE STATUS

14.01 Full Time Employees

Full-time employee is an employee whose hours are those established in Article 16 - Hours of Work.

14.02 Part Time Employees

Part-time employees will not be utilized within the Firefighters bargaining unit.

14.03 Term Employees

The Union shall be informed within a reasonable period of time that term employees will be hired.

Term employees are employees hired for the purpose of:

- a) Replacement of permanent employees who are on leave with or without pay; or,
- b) Non-recurring work.

Term employees will be advised in writing of their termination date when hired. If the term of employment extends beyond one (1) year, excluding term employees hired to replace employees on Maternity or Parental leave, in the same position, the individual will be granted non-probationary, full-time employment status.

Terms are covered by all provisions of this collective agreement, except Article 33 - Layoff/Recall and Severance. Term employees will not accrue vacation credits as per Article 24 - Vacation Leave, but will be provided with six percent (6%) vacation pay on a bi-weekly basis. If the term of employment extends beyond six (6) months of continuous service the employee is eligible for coverage under the sick leave provisions outlined in Article 37 and may participate in the benefit plans.

Full-time employees who are appointed to term positions will continue to be covered by all provisions of the collective agreement and will be returned to their former position upon completion of the term assignment.

ARTICLE 15

PROBATION

- 15.01 Newly hired employees shall complete a probationary period of six (6) months or to the completion of their certification process whichever is greater. During the certification process the employee will be considered a recruit under the Rates of Pay.
- 15.02 During the probation period an employee will have his/her performance discussed and reviewed with them on a regular basis.

ARTICLE 16

HOURS OF WORK

- 16.01 For the purpose of this Article:
- a) "Day" means a twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at 00:01 hour,
 - b) "Week" means a period of seven (7) consecutive days beginning at 00:01 hour Monday morning and ending at 24:00 hours the following Sunday night.

16.02 Schedules of Work:

- a) When hours of work are scheduled for employees they shall be scheduled so that employees work an average of forty-two (42) hours per week over the life of their schedule. The parties acknowledge that the average work week is 42 hours. In full satisfaction of any claims for overtime pay, or any other additional pay or benefits, which may be available to employees, the parties agree that the Employer will grant each employee four (4) shifts (totaling 48 hours) per calendar year, off with pay. These shifts may only be taken with the approval of the Employer based on operational requirements, may not be carried over, and if not used will not be paid out.
- b) An employee's scheduled hours of work shall not be construed as guaranteeing the employee minimum or maximum hours of work.
- c) The Employer will operate the fire-hall on a four (4) platoon system. The Employer recognizes the employees' preference to maintain the current shift schedule. The current shift schedule which includes ten (10) and fourteen (14) hour shifts will not be changed unless the operating status of the Airport changes and the level of service required at the Winnipeg International Airport is less than twenty-four hour coverage. If a shift schedule change is required consultation between the parties will be conducted under the process outlined in Clause 16.03 of this Article. An eighteen (18) or sixteen (16) hour shift pattern will be implemented.
- d) A shift schedule shall be posted in the Fire-hall at the beginning of each fiscal year.
- e) The Employer agrees that no shift schedule shall provide for split shifts.
- f)
 - i) The Employer shall post a duty roster in each Fire Hall eight (8) days in advance. If, as a result of a change in a duty roster, an employee is transferred to another platoon on less than ninety-six (96) hours' notice in advance of the starting time of the first shift of the employee's new platoon, the employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) for the first shift worked in the schedule of the employee's new platoon. Subsequent shifts worked on the schedule of the employee's new platoon shall be paid for at the employee's hourly rate of pay.
 - ii) Sub-clause i) shall not apply to an employee when the employee is returned to the employee's regular platoon following a temporary assignment to a new platoon.

- g) Platoon transfers will be voluntary and where there are no volunteers then the transfer will be assigned to the employee with the least seniority that has not participated in a previous transfer.

16.03 Changes to Schedules of Work:

- a) The Employer agrees that there will be meaningful and constructive consultation between the parties to this agreement and the employees concerned before any schedule of work is changed. This clause does not apply to circumstances when the Employer changes an individual's shift or scheduled hours of work within the posted schedule of work.

Changes in any schedule of work will only be made to meet operational requirements.

- b) Upon request from the Local Union representative(s), the parties will meet to review the existing schedule of work. The Employer will review with the Local Union representative(s) any change in the schedule of work which the Employer proposes to institute. In all cases following such reviews, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to accommodate the concerns and recommendations made by the Local Union representatives. By mutual agreement, in writing, the Employer and the Local Union representative(s) may waive the application of Clause 16.02 d).
- c) Within five (5) days notification of consultation served by either party, the Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the representative authorized to act on behalf of the Union for consultation purposes.
- d) An employee whose scheduled hours of work are changed without seven (7) days prior notice in advance of the starting time of the change:
 - i) shall be compensated at the rate of time and one-half (1/2) for the first full shift worked on the new schedule. Subsequent shifts worked in the new schedule shall be paid for at straight time; subject to the overtime provisions of this Agreement.
 - ii) shall retain their previously scheduled days of rest next following the change, or, if worked, such days of rest shall be compensated in accordance with Article 17 Overtime.

16.04 Shift Exchanges

Provided sufficient advance notice is given and with the approval of the Employer, employees may exchange shifts if there is no increase in cost to the Employer. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

OVERTIME/REPORTING PAY

17.01 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to avoid excessive overtime and to allocate overtime on an equitable basis among readily available qualified employees.

- 17.02 a) i) Consistent with the nature of the work overtime assignments will be offered to employees in a manner intended to result in an equalized distribution of overtime opportunities.
- ii) Overtime assignments shall be offered in accordance with i) above to employees who normally and regularly do the work in question who are readily available.
- iii) Where an insufficient number of employees referred to in ii) are readily available for overtime work, overtime shall be assigned to the least senior of those employees who are available on a rotational basis.
- iv) In the application of iii) above, an employee has the right to decline an overtime assignment where the employee has recently worked a significant amount of overtime provided suitable alternatives can be found.
- v) When overtime is worked as a result of an employee being on standby status the above outlined process is not applicable. However, any overtime opportunities which result from being on standby status will count in the overtime equalization process.
- b) Except in cases of emergency, call-back or mutual agreement with the employee, the Employer shall give at least four (4) hours notice of any requirement for overtime work.

17.03 Overtime shall be compensated on the following basis:

- a) Time and one-half (1 1/2) for each of the first four (4) hours worked in excess of the employee's normal scheduled daily hours and double time (2) for each additional consecutive hour.
- b) Time and one-half (1 1/2) for each hour worked on the first day of rest and double (2) time for each hour worked in excess of the employee's normal daily hours worked on that day of rest.
