Article IV

Hours of Work

- (a) For employees assigned to three (3) shift continuous operations the normal number of daily hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day for five (5) days in the week in accordance with the schedule established from time to time for such employees.
- (b) For all other employees the normal number of daily hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day for five (5) days in the week in accordance with the schedule established from time to time, for an average of forty (40) hours in the week.
- (c) The normal number of daily hours of work is stated solely for the purpose of calculating overtime and shall not be construed as a guarantee of any minimum nor as a restriction of any maximum number of hours to be worked.
- (d) An employee assigned to continuous shift work shall not leave his work place until relieved by the employee assigned to the same operations on the succeeding shift unless by special permission of his foreman or supervisor.
- (e) The Company shall schedule for employees assigned to noncontinuous shift work two (2) rest periods of ten (10) minutes each during their normal daily hours of work.

Article V

Overtime and Other Allowances

- (a) An employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for work performed in excess of his normal number of daily hours of work provided, however, that he shall be paid at the rate of double time instead of at the rate of time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) consecutive hours.
- (b) An employee shall be paid at the rate of double time for work required to be performed on his regularly assigned day of rest. The regularly assigned day of rest for shift workers on a continuous shift basis shall be the second day off where two (2) or three (3) days off are indicated by the shift schedule. The regularly assigned day of rest, for day workers on a day shift basis, shall be the second day off where two (2) days off are indicated by the schedule.
- (c) Except as otherwise stipulated in this clause (c), an employee shall be paid an amount equivalent to eight (8) hours' pay at his straight time hourly rate for the following holidays whether or not he works on such holidays:

Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Remembrance Day
Second Monday in June	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day
Civic Holiday	New Year's Eve
Labour Day	New Year's Day

However, an employee shall not be entitled to be paid for such a holiday:

- (i) if he does not work on the holiday when he has been required or scheduled to do so; or
 - (ii) if he is absent without good cause on his scheduled working day immediately preceding or succeeding the holiday; or
 - (iii) if he is absent for any reason except on vacation, on both the scheduled working days immediately preceding and succeeding the holiday; or
 - (iv) if such holiday occurs while he is on leave of absence; or
 - (v) if he has been in the employ of the Company for less than sixty (60) consecutive days.
- (d) An employee who works on any of the holidays listed in clause (c) shall, if entitled to the payment in clause (c), be paid in addition thereto at the rate of time and one-half for all hours so worked. Where the provisions of clause (f) of this Article V would apply to the work if the day was not a holiday, the minimum payment and travelling allowance shall also apply. If not entitled to the payment in clause (c) an employee shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for all hours worked on the holidays listed in clause (c).

- (e) If another day is substituted by statute or decree or by mutual agreement between the parties for the observance of any of the holidays listed in clause (C), the day of observance so substituted shall be deemed to be the holiday for the purpose of this Article V.
- (f) If an employee is summoned by the Company on less than sixteen (16) hours' notice to the said Works for the performance of any work at other than his regularly scheduled working hours, he shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for such unscheduled work or at his straight time rate for a minimum of four (4) hours, whichever is the greater, except when such work continues into the employees' regularly scheduled working hours, in which case no minimum shall apply. If an employee is advised after he has left the said Works to report for such unscheduled work, he shall, in addition, be paid a travelling allowance equivalent to pay for one (1) hour at his straight time rate.
- (g) Whenever an employee's regularly scheduled working hours are changed by the Company, that is both starting and finishing times changed, he shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for work performed during his first working day following such change, unless a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior notice of such change has been given to him by the Company.

- (h) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article V an employee shall be paid at the straight time rate for overtime work performed, with the permission of the foreman, at the employee's own request in substitution for his regularly scheduled working hours or in an exchange of working hours with another employee.
- (i) If as a result of a change in schedule any employee is required to work in excess of seven (7) consecutive days without having been paid at the rate of time and one-half or double time for an entire shift under the provisions of clause (a), (b), (d), or (g) for one or more of such seven (7) consecutive days, he will be paid at the rate of time and one-half for the eighth day worked.
- (j) An employee shall not be entitled to be paid under more than one clause of this Article V unless otherwise specifically provided and, in any event, the rate of payment, excluding the minimum payment and travelling time provided for in clause (f), shall not exceed twice the straight time hourly rate except in respect of work performed on a recognized holiday specified in clause (c) in which case such rate, excluding the minimum payment and travelling time provided for in clause (f) but including the holiday allowance provided for in clause (c), shall not exceed two and one-half times the straight time hourly rate.

- (k) An employee summoned to report for jury duty on a day on which he is regularly scheduled to work and would have worked had he not been so summoned shall be paid the amount, if any, by which the payment received by him for jury duty on any such day is less than the amount he would have been paid for the time he is required to be absent from his normal regularly scheduled hours of work on such day calculated at his applicable straight time hourly rate. To be eligible for such payment the employee must notify his immediate supervision as soon as possible following receipt of the notice to report for jury duty and must furnish to the Company satisfactory proof from the court, showing the dates, the time served and the amount paid for such service. It is understood that an employee shall report for his regular duties with the Company at such times as his services are not required by the Court for jury duty.
- (l) (a) An employee who has been in the employ of the Company for thirty (30) consecutive calendar days shall be eligible for the following bereavement leave:
 - (i) in the case of an absence from work for the purpose of arranging and/or attending the funeral or service of a wife, husband, daughter, son, mother, father, sister, brother, mother-in-law, father-in-law, up to a maximum of three (3) consecutive days within the period commencing on the date of death and extending up to and including the date of the funeral or service.

- (ii) in the case of an absence from work for the purpose of arranging and/or attending the funeral or service of a grandmother, or grandfather, up to a maximum of one day within the period commencing on the date of death and extending up to and including the date of the funeral or service.
- (b) Where any such bereavement leave falls on a day on which the employee is regularly scheduled to work and would have worked had he not been granted bereavement leave, he shall be paid a bereavement allowance for each such day equivalent to his applicable straight time hourly rate for his normal scheduled number of daily hours.
- (c) It is understood that if any employee is absent from work because of vacation, a recognized holiday described in Article V (c), illness, an absence not authorized by the Company or a leave of absence with or without pay for any other reason, he shall not be entitled to any bereavement allowance during such absence. To qualify for bereavement leave and allowance, the employee must notify his immediate supervision as soon as possible following the bereavement.

- (m) An employee who is subpoenaed to testify in a judicial court of law regarding a case in which he is a witness to, or a victim of, an alleged offence will be granted a leave of absence for the period he is required to attend and testify at the court proceedings. During such leave, the employee will be paid at his applicable straight time hourly rate for the regularly scheduled working hours he would have worked had he not been required to attend the hearing, less any remuneration received as a result of having testified.

Article VI

Wages — Classification

- (a) The classification of existing occupations and the wage rates applying thereto shall be as shown in Schedule "A" which is made part of this agreement and is signed for identification by the parties hereto. In the event that the job content of any occupation is substantially changed during the term of this agreement or a new occupation is established, the occupation may be reclassified or classified, as the case may be, by the Company and the Company agrees to review such changed or new classification with the Union.
- (b) The classification of the employee shall be done by the Company. While an employee may at any time discuss his classification with his foreman, no request for a change in the classification of such employee need be entertained by the Company, unless presented to the Company within thirty (30) days following the date of the classification or change in classification to which such employee objects.

- (c) If an employee is assigned to work in a higher rated classification he shall be paid at such higher rate during the time he is so employed if qualified, provided that, if the higher rated classification carries a training period wage range, he shall be paid the starting rate for such classification or such higher rate within the range for which he may be qualified. If an employee is temporarily assigned to work in a lower rated classification for the convenience of the Company, he shall be paid at the rate at which he is being paid in the classification under which he is listed on the payroll.

Article VII

Seniority

- (a) An employee who, immediately before the coming into force of this agreement, was in the employ of the Company within the bargaining Unit at the said Works and who had acquired seniority status shall for the purpose of this agreement retain the seniority he possessed at such time.

- (b) An employee shall acquire seniority status after he has been in the employ of the Company for a probationary period of ninety (90) consecutive days.
- (c) Except as above and hereinafter provided, in calculating seniority for the purpose of this agreement, all periods of a person's employment at the said Works or its predecessors, within the bargaining unit, which employment was not interrupted otherwise than by a layoff of less than twelve (12) months, shall be included.
- (d) Seniority shall govern in the case of a layoff, or of a transfer or promotion or demotion to a classification in Schedule "A" provided the senior employee is qualified to perform the job as well as other employees.

The provisions of the first paragraph of this clause (d) shall not apply in the case of the following temporary adjustments:

- (i) A layoff which the Company expects to remain in effect for one week or less;
OR
- (ii) A transfer or promotion or demotion to a classification in Schedule "A" for the purpose of temporarily replacing a person who is expected to be absent on vacation or because of illness for a period of thirty (30) days or less;
OR
- (iii) A transfer or promotion or demotion to a classification in Schedule "A" for reasons other than those specified in Section (ii) above which is expected to remain in effect for two (2) weeks or less.

If any such temporary adjustment should subsequently become permanent or exceed the stipulated time limits, the provisions of the first paragraph of this clause (d) shall apply immediately but such application shall be without retroactive effects.

- (e) Seniority shall be lost upon termination of employment for any reason, or upon a transfer to a position outside the bargaining unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, seniority lost upon a layoff lasting less than twelve (12) months shall be restored upon re-employment; seniority lost upon a transfer to a position outside the bargaining unit shall be restored upon re-entering the bargaining unit together with full seniority credit for the time spent in the Company's employ outside the bargaining unit provided, however, that such seniority credit shall not exceed one (1) year where the time spent outside the bargaining unit on any occasion was for a period in excess of one (1) year and provided that the period of such employment outside the bargaining unit was not interrupted otherwise than by a layoff of less than twelve (12) months.
- (f) The Company agrees to post seniority lists showing the seniority status of each employee and to furnish a copy of such lists to the Union.

Article VIII

Occupational Health and Safety

- (a) The Company and the Union recognize their mutual interest in safe working conditions and a high level of safety awareness among all employees. To this end the Company agrees to continue to make reasonable provisions for the occupational health and safety of employees during the hours of their employment, and both the Company and the Union agree to participate in the co-operative and advisory activities specified in this Article VIII.
- (b) Such protective devices as the Company requires to be worn and other equipment which in the opinion of the Company is necessary to protect the employee from injury shall be provided by the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company will contribute up to one hundred dollars ($100) in each contract year of this Agreement towards the cost of safety shoes or boots which the Company requires all employees to wear while at work. Where the cost of an employee's safety shoes or boots purchased by an employee in the first year of the agreement is less than the one hundred dollars ($100) allowance, the difference may be carried over into the second year of the agreement and added to the employee's allowance for the purchase of safety boots or shoes,

- (c) Whenever the Company recommends to the employees for their better protection the use of additional personal safety equipment which it does not supply free of charge, it will make such equipment available to employees at cost.
- (d) It is understood that an employee shall have the right and obligation to report and explain to his immediate supervisor working conditions which he believes to be unsafe.
- (e) The Company agrees to recognize a Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety which shall meet at least once a month to discuss occupational health and safety matters and to make recommendations to the Company on such matters.
- (f) The Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety shall be composed of three (3) employee representatives selected by the Union and an equal number of management representatives.
- (g) The Company agrees to provide the Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety with a monthly summary of disabling injuries at the Works, reports of investigations carried out by the Company on disabling injuries, potentially disabling injuries and unusual occurrences and minutes of meetings held with the Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety. It is agreed that such minutes will be posted on appropriate plant bulletin boards.

- (h) The Company agrees to communicate to and discuss with the Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety, changes planned by the Company in its safety requirements which affect a majority of employees at the Works before such changes become effective.
- (i) An employee representative of the Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety shall be permitted to accompany a government safety inspector, if requested by the inspector to do so, during an official inspection of the Works.
- (j) Where an investigation team is established by the Company to investigate the cause of a disabling injury, an employee representative of the Joint Committee on Occupational Health and Safety will be assigned by the Company to the investigation team.
- (k) An employee representative who happens to be on duty shall be paid at his applicable straight time hourly rate for that part of his regularly scheduled working hours devoted to participation in any of the occupational health and safety functions specified in this Article VIII.

An employee representative who happens to be off duty and who participates in any of the occupational health and safety functions specified in this Article VIII shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the agreement for the period of time devoted to such activities.

Article IX

Grievance Procedure

(a) Any dispute, grievance or misunderstanding (hereinafter called "grievance") involving occupational classification, wages, seniority, hours of work or other working conditions which any employee or group of employees may desire to discuss and adjust with the Company shall be handled as follows:

Step 1: The employee shall take up his grievance directly with his section head or foreman, except where the employee believes that he cannot properly express or explain his difficulties to his section head or foreman, in which case the employee may report this matter to the steward representing his group, who, together with the employee, may take the matter up with the section head or foreman. With the permission of the employee's foreman another steward may be consulted on a grievance by the employee in the absence of the regular steward representing his group.

Step 2: If the grievance is not adjusted by the section head or foreman within forty-eight (48) hours after the grievance has been submitted to him under the provisions of Step 1, the employee may report the matter to the steward representing his group, who, together with the employee, may take up the matter with the section head or foreman and shall at the same time present a written summary of the grievance, signed by the employee.

Step 3: If the section head or foreman does not settle the matter to the satisfaction of the employee within forty-eight (48) hours after the grievance has been submitted to him under the provisions of Step 2 hereof, the employee and the steward, or Chief Steward may take up the matter directly with the supervisor.

Step 4: If a satisfactory settlement is not obtained within forty-eight (48) hours after the matter has been discussed with the supervisor, the steward may submit the grievance in writing to the Union Bargaining Committee with a copy to the Company. The Union Bargaining Committee may then discuss it with the Company at a time to be agreed upon.

(b) All decisions arrived at by agreement between the Company and the Union Bargaining Committee with respect to any grievance shall be made in writing and shall be final and binding upon the Company and the Union.

- (c) Nothing in this agreement shall be deemed to take away the right of the individual employee to present any personal grievance to the Company.
- (d) The time limits specified in this Article IX shall be deemed to be exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays and those holidays described in Article V of this agreement.
- (e) While an employee may discuss a grievance with his section head or foreman at any time, a request for retroactive adjustment need not be entertained by the Company unless the grievance is presented in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of the incident which gave rise to the grievance or if more than two (2) weeks have elapsed from the time the employee receives a decision in writing at any step in the grievance procedure to the time the grievance is carried to the next higher step.

Article X

Arbitration

- (a) Within a period of thirty (30) days following the date of the communication of the Company's decision to the Bargaining Committee any grievance or other matter in dispute between the Company and Union, involving the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of any article of this agreement may, in the event of failure to reach agreement thereon, be referred by either party to arbitration by an arbitration board in accordance with the procedure contained in Schedule "B" of this agreement.

- (b) The decision of the majority of the arbitration board on the matter at issue shall be final and binding on both parties but in no event shall the arbitration board have the power to add to, subtract from, alter or amend this agreement in any respect.
- (c) Each party shall pay its own costs and the fees and expenses of witnesses called by it and of its representative. The fees and expenses of the Chairman shall be shared equally between the parties.

Article XI

Termination

- (a) This agreement shall become effective on the 13th day of February, 1991 and shall remain in full force and effect up to and including the first day of February, 1993.
- (b) Either party may on ten (10) clear days' notice in writing, require the other party to enter into negotiations for the renewal of the agreement within the period of ninety (90) days prior to the expiry date and both parties shall thereupon enter into such negotiations in good faith and make every reasonable effort to secure such renewal.

- (c) The party giving notice in accordance with clause (b) hereof shall at the same time as such notice is issued, and the party receiving the notice shall within ten (10) days of its receipt of such notice, respectively present to the other party in writing any proposed modifications or revisions of this agreement.

SCHEDULE "D"

Twelve (12) Hour Shifts

GENERAL

Employees who work regularly scheduled twelve (12) hour shifts shall be governed by the terms and conditions of this agreement except where additions and revisions to such terms and conditions are specifically noted in this Schedule "D" in which case such additions and revisions shall apply.

1. APPLICATION

Twelve (12) hour shifts shall apply only to employees assigned to continuous operations.

2. REPLACEMENT SYSTEM

An employee scheduled to work a twelve (12) hour shift who is unable to report to such shift due to sickness or for other reasons shall make every effort to inform his immediate supervisor, or his delegate, of his absence and the expected length of such absence as soon as possible and in no event later than one (1) hour after the scheduled commencement of his shift. As soon as his immediate supervisor, or his delegate, is informed of the absence of such employee, the said supervisor or delegate will assign an available qualified employee to perform the work required from among available qualified employees at work in the Department. In the event such an assignment is not practicable, the immediate supervisor or his delegate will first offer such work to those employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts in the same classification who are on scheduled days off. If the immediate supervisor or his delegate is unable to obtain a replacement from among such employees, he will offer such work to qualified employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts who are on scheduled days off.

If the immediate supervisor or his delegate is still unable to obtain a replacement, he will again contact an employee assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts in the same classification who is on a scheduled day off. In such event the employee so contacted shall report with all due haste to take up the duties of the absent employee for such period of time as may be required.

3. REVISIONS TO CLAUSES IN THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

ARTICLE II — CO-OPERATION

- II (h) Replace the present clause with the following clause:

“It is agreed that the application of the Employee Benefit Plans, that is the Pension Plan, the Life Insurance Plan, the Disability Wages for Payroll Employees Plan, the Long Term Disability Insurance Plan, the Service Awards Plan, and the Company Contributions for Health Insurance, shall continue in respect of employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts in conformity with their general application throughout the Company. It is understood that the benefits provided in any one of such plans to an employee assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts shall not exceed those which he would have received had he been assigned to an eight (8) hour continuous shift schedule."

ARTICLE IV — HOURS OF WORK

IV (a) Add the following to clause IV (a):

"For employees assigned to work on the twelve (12) hour shift schedule the normal number of daily hours of work shall be twelve (12) for an average of forty (40) hours per week in accordance with the schedules established from time to time for such employees. Notwithstanding the foregoing it is agreed that the schedule for employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts may be so arranged as to provide an average work week of forty-two (42) hours."

ARTICLE V — OVERTIME AND OTHER ALLOWANCES

V (a) Add the following to clause V (a):

(I) "Where, pursuant to clause IV (a), the schedule for employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts is so arranged as to provide an average work week of forty-two (42) hours, the hours which are in excess of an employee's normal number of daily hours of work and for which time and one-half will be paid shall be deemed to be the last four (4) hours of the fourth 7:30 p.m. to 7:30 a.m. night shift which he has worked and the last four (4) hours of the fourth 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. day shift which he has worked in the two forty-eight (48) hour work weeks in each four (4) week cycle."

- (II) Notwithstanding the foregoing an employee who is absent from scheduled work for any reason during a week in which he is scheduled to work forty-eight (48) hours shall be paid at the rate of straight time instead of time and one-half for the last four (4) hours of the fourth 7:30 p.m. to 7:30 a.m. night shift or the last four (4) hours of the 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. day shift, referred to in V(a) (I), as the case may be, except when such absence occurs on the first or second or third scheduled working day in a week in which four (4) working days are scheduled and is due to an illness of one day or less, an approved bereavement leave of one day or less, an approved absence on an employee's first scheduled working day following his vacation which may be granted under the provisions of the addition to Clause V (d) noted below, or any absence of three (3) scheduled working hours or less. It is understood that the foregoing exceptions relating to absences due to illness and bereavement shall only apply when an employee has advised the Company of such absence on the date the absence occurs or in the case of an approved absence on the first scheduled working day following an employee's vacation when an employee has received approval for such absence from the Company prior to the date that the absence occurs.

V (d) Add the following to Clause V (d):

"An employee regularly assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts whose work schedule requires that he work on one or more of the recognized holidays stipulated in Article V (c) may request one scheduled work day off without pay in each calendar year for each such recognized holiday so worked up to a maximum of three. Subject to production requirements the Company agrees to make every reasonable effort to grant such time off from scheduled work. It is understood that when such time off from scheduled work is not requested within the calendar year it shall not be carried over to the next calendar year.”

- V (j) Amend to read as follows:
- “An employee shall not be entitled to be paid under more than one clause of this Article V or Schedule “D” unless otherwise specifically provided and in any event the rate of payment, excluding the minimum payment and travelling allowance provided for in Article V (f) shall not exceed twice the straight time hourly rate except in respect of work performed on the recognized holidays specified in Article V (c), in which case such rate, excluding the travelling allowance and minimum payment provided for in Article V (f) but including the holiday allowance specified in Article V(c) shall not exceed two and one-half (2¹/₂) times the straight time hourly rate.”

SCHEDULE “A” SHIFT PREMIUM

Replace the paragraph concerning shift premiums with the following:

"A premium of sixty-seven ($.67) cents per hour will be paid for regularly scheduled shift work performed on the twelve (12) hours night shifts."

4. CRITERIA FOR TERMINATION OF TWELVE (12) HOUR SHIFTS

Twelve (12) hour shifts may be terminated by the Company or the Union on thirty (30) days' notice for any of the following reasons:

- (a) the costs to the Company of the twelve (12) hour shift arrangement exceed the costs of the previous eight (8) hour shift schedule;
- (b) withdrawal by the Ministry of Labour of permission to work such shifts;
- (c) fifty-one (51) percent of employees assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts vote in favour of the termination of such shifts;
- (d) passage of government legislation which requires premium payments in excess of those currently applicable;
- (e) unfavourable rulings or penalties imposed by the Workers' Compensation Board attributable to the working of twelve (12) hour shifts;

- (f) failure of the Replacement System to effectively provide replacements for employees absent due to sickness or for other reasons;
- (g) deterioration of safety, health or absenteeism experience attributable to the working of twelve (12) hour shifts;
- (h) adverse sociological effects or deterioration of productivity attributable to the working of twelve (12) hour shifts.

5. REVERSION COSTS

It is understood and agreed that in the event twelve (12) hour shifts are terminated in accordance with the provisions of item 4 of this Schedule "D", premium payments provided under Article V (g) which arise as a direct result of such termination shall not be applicable. An employee who because of the termination of twelve (12) hour shifts is unable to work his normal average weekly hours shall, provided it is practicable to do so, be given an opportunity to make up such loss of normal working hours at his straight time hourly rate.

SCHEDULE "E"

Vacations

"It is understood that Vacations and Vacation Allowances provided under this Schedule "E" to an employee assigned to twelve (12) hour shifts shall not exceed those which he would have received had he been assigned to an eight (8) hour continuous shift Schedule.”

- (1) The vacation year shall be the twelve (12) month period from May 1 of one calendar year to April 30, inclusive, of the following calendar year.
- (2) (a) Vacations in respect of service rendered during the preceding vacation year shall be granted to regular employees who have completed periods of service as follows:
 - (i) Service completed before May 1 of current year
 - Less than 1 year –
One-twelfth of 2 weeks vacation for each month of service since employment
 - 1 year but less than 3 years –
2 weeks vacation
 - (ii) Service completed at any time during current calendar year
 - 3 years but less than 10 years –
3 weeks vacation
 - 10 years but less than 20 years –
4 weeks vacation
 - 20 years but less than 25 years –
5 weeks vacation
 - 25 years or more –
6 weeks vacation

- (b) Any fraction of a day to which an employee with less than one year of service would be entitled shall be rounded to the nearest whole day; such fraction without rounding shall, however, be used for the purpose of calculating the vacation allowance to be paid to such employee.
- (3) Each employee granted a vacation shall be paid a vacation allowance equivalent to the product of the employee's hourly rate and the regularly scheduled working hours which would have been applicable to the period of the vacation. Hourly rate for the purposes of this clause shall mean the hourly rate for the employee's classification according to the schedule of rates in effect at the time vacation commences except that effect shall be given to any adjustment in rates occurring during the vacation period. Overtime work and wages paid therefor and shift, Sunday and other similar premiums shall be excluded from the foregoing calculations.
- (4) The vacation allowance may be drawn by the employee on the working day preceding the vacation.
- (5) On termination of employment for any reason other than discharge a terminating employee shall be paid an amount equal to the vacation allowance for which he has qualified but not yet taken in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 above. Where the termination of employment is a result of discharge the terminating employee shall be paid the amount required by law.

- (6) Vacations will be scheduled by the Company for each vacation year and as far as is practicable will be arranged in advance for such time as may be found suitable after consideration has been given to the wishes of the employee, and to the efficient operation of the said Works. In the case of an employee eligible for a vacation of more than two (2) weeks the Company may require the employee to take the vacation in two (2) or more periods.
- (7) The length of an employee's vacation may be reduced because of absence from work during the preceding vacation year.
- (8) The amount of the vacation allowance shall be reduced by the amount of any statutory allowance or other vacation allowance paid to the employee upon termination of employment during the preceding vacation year in respect of such year and the length of the vacation shall be correspondingly reduced.

- (9) Once every two (2) vacation years an employee eligible for three- (3) or more weeks of vacation may postpone one week of his vacation in order to take that week in the following year.
- (10) Provided he notifies the Company not later than May 1st each year, an employee eligible for four (4) or more weeks of vacation may elect to waive one week of his vacation but nevertheless to draw the vacation allowance for that week. The allowance for such week shall be equal to and drawn at the same time as the allowance for one of the weeks of vacation actually taken.
- (11) Except as provided in paragraphs 9 and 10 of this Schedule "E", a vacation may not be postponed from one vacation year to another and made cumulative, nor may a vacation be waived by an employee and vacation allowance be drawn instead.
- (12) For purposes of determining eligibility and length of vacation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule "E", service shall be as defined in the Company's Service Rules.
