GRIEVANCE

11.01 Definition of Employee Grievance

For the purpose of this Agreement, a grievance of employees is defined as a dispute or controversy between the Company and one or more of its employees which:

- a) Affects such employees in their work, pay, or relations with the Company and arises under and by virtue of the application or interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement as to salaries, hours, working conditions, or the terms of their employment; or
- b) Arises from alleged abuse of discretion by Company supervisors in their treatment of employees with respect to matters provided in this agreement (including performance ratings): or
- c) Alleges that the Company has discriminated in respect of promotion, demotion, transfer, lay-off, compulsory retirement before the official retirement age, discharge or disciplinary action without just cause excepting an employee who is not on the seniority list.

11.02 The Company agrees that in the case of demotion, suspension, lay-off, or discharge it will notify in writing the employee and the Union of the action taken and the reason for it.

11.03 General Grievance Regulations

- a) The word "days" as used in this article shall mean working days.
- b) The discussion on each grievance shall be limited to the subject specified in the written grievance.

- 11.03
- c) Grievance forms shall be provided by the Company and triplicate copies shall be made of each grievance. After final disposition of a grievance is effected, the Company and the Union shall each have a copy, and where applicable the employee concerned.
 - d) Any grievance not filed in writing with the Supervisor within ten days after the employee knew or ought to have known of the occurrence which is the basis of the grievance shall be deemed to have been waived and shall not be considered. (Grievances relating to discharge or disciplinary suspension must be filed within five days - see Article 11.05 d.)
 - e)
 - i) Failure to take any successive steps herein provided for, within the specified number of days from the day the grievance is presented to the Union, shall be deemed as acceptance of such decision as final.
 - ii) If the Company representative fails to reply to a grievance within the specific time limit, at any step, the grievance may proceed to the next step.
 - f) Classification adjustments granted as a result of a presentation of a grievance shall be made retroactive to the date on which the grievor assumed the duties which gave rise to the grievance but not to a date earlier than three months prior to the filing of the grievance.
 - g) Any or all of the time limits applicable to grievance procedures may be extended by mutual agreement of the Union and the Company.

11.04 Normal Employee Grievance Procedure

The normal employee grievance procedure shall be as follows:

11.04 Complaint

An employee who has a complaint must attempt to discuss it orally with his immediate supervisor, either alone or, at the request of the employee, in the presence of the Union representative. If the employee does not request the presence of his Union representative at this time, the representative shall have the opportunity of discussing the matter with the supervisor and the employee before proceeding to Step 1. In the event that the complaint is not settled in this manner, it then becomes a grievance.

Step 1

- a) The grievance shall be reduced to writing on a standard grievance form in triplicate (being specific as to the persons involved, the date the grievance occurred, the remedial action requested and all facts pertaining to the grievance), over the signature of the employee and his Union representative. The written grievance shall be presented to the employee's immediate supervisor who will sign and date the grievance. The Union representative will endeavour to supply a more specific statement of the grievance if it is not sufficiently clear or fully stated to enable the Company to properly act thereon. Within two days of the receipt of a properly stated grievance a hearing shall be had thereon if requested by either party. The appropriate Management representative shall write his decision thereon, sign, date and return the grievance forms to the Union representative within two further days.
- b) The discussion and decision made on each grievance shall be limited to the matters raised by the written grievance.
- c) Within one day after the Union has received an answer from the Company, the grievance forms shall be returned to the Management representative by the Union representative appropriately marked as satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

Step 2

- a) Where a Step 1 grievance answered by the appropriate Management representative is marked unsatisfactory by the Union, a Step 2 meeting with the next higher level of Management, as designated by the Company, may be arranged for by the Company or at the request of the Union as soon as possible, but not later than three days after return of the grievance. Up to two Union representatives may attend and the aggrieved employee may be required to attend. The Management representative will answer in writing, date, sign, and return the grievance forms to the Union representative within three days of the meeting.
- b) Within two days after the Union has received an answer from this level of supervision, the grievance forms shall be returned to him by the Union representative appropriately marked as satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

Step 3

- a) Should the reply at Step 2 be unsatisfactory then the Union will consider the matter and shall decide whether to process the grievance further. If the Union decides to process further, then the Union shall, within fifteen days of the date of the Step 2 answer, request a Company-Union meeting to be held within ten days.
- b) At the time a request for such a meeting is made, the Union may submit in writing the reason it (the Union) considers the answers given at the previous steps unsatisfactory. All the data submitted shall be confined to the matters raised in the grievance as originally written and processed through the preceding steps of the grievance procedure.
- c) The Union will be represented by the Union officers (up to three). The aggrieved employee may be required to attend. The Company shall write its decision thereon, sign, date the grievance forms, and transmit them to the Union President within ten days after the meeting. If no response is made by the Union to this decision within ten days, the grievance shall be considered as settled.

11.05 Grievance Procedure for Discharge or Suspension

In any case of discharge or suspension, the employee and the Union shall be advised in writing of the reason for such discharge or suspension. The grievance procedure in all cases of claimed wrongful discharge or suspension shall be as follows:

- a) The alleged grievance shall be reduced to writing signed by the employee, and submitted to the Vice President, Human Resources & Administration or other designated Company representative, who, if requested by the Union, shall arrange a meeting within three days following presentation of the matter. This meeting will be attended by the Union representatives (up to three), the Public Service Alliance of Canada representative, and the aggrieved employee may be required to attend. The Vice President, Human Resources & Administration or other designated Company representative will submit a decision in writing to the Union within three days.
- b) The sole question to be determined by such procedure shall be whether or not such employee was discharged or suspended for just cause. If it is decided that the employee was wrongfully discharged or suspended, there shall be an award of reinstatement to the former job without loss of seniority and with full compensation for time lost at the regular wage rate less any earnings received from other sources during the period of discharge or suspension. The grievance may also be settled by deciding that the discharge or suspension given was for just cause. It is also understood that such a grievance may be settled by deciding that the penalty given to the employee was excessive and that the employee should be reinstated with partial compensation for time lost.
- c) It is understood that discharge shall not embrace a lay-off due to lack of work, or suspension of operations.
- d) Cases of discharge or suspension shall be final and not entitled to consideration or made the basis of a grievance unless tiled within five days after the employee and an officer of the local Union have received notification (or all reasonable steps have been taken to notify the employee) of discharge or suspension.

11.06 Company Grievance

It is understood that the Company may request a meeting with the Union for the purpose of presenting any complaints with respect to the conduct of the Union. If such a complaint by the Company is not settled, it may be submitted in writing as a grievance at Step 3 and may be referred to arbitration.

11.07 Union Grievance

Any difference arising directly between the Union and the Company involving the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement which cannot otherwise be dealt with under Articles 11.04 or 11.05 because of the inability or refusal of an employee to submit a grievance, or that affects a group of employees, may be submitted by the Union in writing at Step 2, dealt with as a proper grievance under the grievance procedure, and may be referred to arbitration.

Notice of arbitration in the case against the company shall be served by mailing a copy to the General Manager, Human Resources & Administration, and in a case against the Union, by mailing a copy to the President of the Union.

The three will constitute the arbitration board. The decision of any two arbitrators shall be final and binding on all parties concerned. - 12.03 Upon failure of the two arbitrators to agree on the selection of a chairman, or of the parties to agree on the selection of a single arbitrator, the matters shall be referred to the Minister of Labour for the Government of Canada, with the request that he appoint an impartial Chairman or arbitrator.

Dear Mr. McNally:

This will record the agreement of Theratronics International Limited and the Public Service Alliance of Canada, on the following items in addition to, or in clarification of, matters covered in the current Collective Agreement.

The Company and Union accept that the items in the Supplementary Letter are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures of the Agreement.

I. JOB DESCRIPTIONS

- 1) The parties agree that management has the sole discretion in deciding the duties, responsibilities, and qualifications for all jobs within the bargaining unit.
- 2) In order to achieve understanding and agreement on the accurate description of jobs, subject to 1) above, the parties agree to continue the following procedure within the term of this Collective Agreement.
 - i) All new or revised job descriptions will be written on the standard job description form.
 - ii) A Joint Job Description Review Committee will continue, made up of three Company and three Union representatives (one of whom may be a Public Service Alliance representative) which will review all new or revised job descriptions within the bargaining unit. The Supervisor of the job concerned and the incumbent may attend the meetings of the Committee if requested. Should the Committee fail to agree on the accurate description of a job it will be referred to a Company and a Union representative for resolution. At the conclusion of these deliberations a copy of the job description will be provided to the Union.
 - iii) Where new or additional duties are added to an employee's job description, the Company will determine and provide the training which may be necessary for the employee to perform the assigned duties.

2. Classification Grievance

4. Crossing a Picket Line

In the circumstances of a lawful strike by another union, the Company will not expect an employee to cross a picket line to do work normally performed by those persons on the picket line or it' to do so would place the employee's life, limb or personal property in jeopardy.

5. Contracting Out

It is the intent of Company that contracting out will not adversely affect employees in the bargaining unit. If any dispute arises with respect to this policy, the matter will be discussed forthwith by representatives of the Company and the Union, and may then, at the option of the Union, be dealt with under the grievance procedure as outlined in Article I I commencing at Step 2.

6. Posting of Competitions

It is the intent of the Company to continue its present practice regarding the posting of competitions for non-bargaining unit positions.

7. Existing Practices or Privileges

The Company will not change without prior discussion with the Union where this is practicable, existing practices or privileges falling within Company policy which are not specifically dealt with in this Agreement (other than in the Management Rights Article). It is recognized, however, that what is covered by the foregoing is open to interpretation, and the Company will discuss with the Union any specific case in which the Union feels that such a change has been made without prior discussion and that it adversely affects employees in the bargaining unit.

8. Employee Files

An employee will be able to review his/her Personnel file once per year in the presence of a Human Resources Department representative. Any employee wishing to review his/her Personnel file must make the request in writing to the Human Resources Department and an appointment will be arranged.

The committee will recommend to their respective principals, a pension plan suitable for effect in the event the Company is purchased by employees. This committee may also consider the Group Insurance Plans in Article 15 in the course of their discussion and may, if appropriate, recommend changes for the consideration of their principals.

11. Notwithstanding Article 29.03 of the collective agreement, the Company and the Union may, by mutual consent, amend provisions of the agreement during its term.
