Schedules and runs shall be posted at all

Upon resumption of regular transit service, operators will revert back to the work signed for at the last major sign-up, if applicable. This reversion will take effect in conjunction with the two (2) week sign-up. Transfers and other supplies may be obtained at Transit Windsor, its terminals and at such other places and in such other manner as the Company may from time to time determine. The Employer shall post a complete list of all operators and runs that they have signed for in the Operator's room in the Transit Centre and at all locations where operators take relief.

At any time when the Employer is recruiting operators that result in additional choices being available for sign-up, the Employer agrees to make those additional choices available prior to the completion of the training period. The Union will be allowed to determine the sequence with which the two week Spare Board crews will be assigned. If the Union does not provide Transit Windsor

All misses are deemed to be violations of attendance. Management retains the right to evaluate overall work records as it pertains to the number and frequency of misses. Both the Employer and the union will ensure confidentiality of employee records.

The value of progressive discipline with the aim of being corrective in application is recognized by both parties. Therefore, except in the most extreme cases, discipline or discharge for cause will be preceded by a documented record of counselling, warnings (written or verbal), and/or suspensions. It is further recognized that to achieve this purpose the union president or his designate must be present at all disciplinary meetings and to be copied on all disciplinary notations.

These records will be reviewed from time to time. Employees whose records indicate, in the opinion of the Employer, an unusual number of lates, absences from work, reporting sick, or violations, may be interviewed, in which case a Union representative will be present. If the employee is unable, in the opinion of the Employer, to justify his record, the employee may be warned that if his practices continue, he may be suspended and/or discharged. If after such warning is given, such practices continue, the Company may, in its sole discretion, dismiss such employee. Discipline shall be justly applied in all cases.

13.05 Operators shall be entitled (upon request) to 10 hours of sleep time between two (2) days of work. Any operator working a p.m. run and called back for an a.m. run, shall not be subject to a penalty (written or monetary) in case he should miss. Sleep time is not applicable in cases of voluntary overtime unless mutually agreed. Any operator invoking this clause will be allowed to exercise his right to:

LETTER OF INTENT

The parties agree to the following with respect to Overtime Book Out Procedures:

Standard procedures as per the collective agreement will prevail for scheduling of overtime work for the daily worksheet from the Scheduler's desk. The Scheduler will endeavour to schedule the senior operator requesting O/T to at least 8 hours before giving work to the next available person.

The following rules will apply from the Control Room:

Operators on their OFF-days will be offered work ahead of those on regular workdays who desire OT.

- Begin by approaching Operators who only have partial shifts (less than 8 hours) in order of seniority so as to build up their daily overtime allotment to at least 8 hours.
- If an Operator does not have 8 hours work and additional work becomes available that will bring him to 8 hour shift, but is in conflict with his existing schedule, he will be asked if he would like to be rescheduled on new work if the conflict is 2 hours or greater. If he refuses he will stay in his seniority slot until a piece(s) of work that does not conflict with his existing schedule is offered to him. If the conflict were less than 2 hours the next Operator would be eligible under the above conditions. If an operator refuses a piece(s) of work that would bring him to 8 hours or better, he will go to the bottom of the all day seniority list for any additional work that day.

- In the event of a last minute call in (less than one hour) the Employer can fill the new work with the next person in line for overtime and not offer a reschedule to a person already working.
- This process continues each time new work is filled; you continue to ask Operators who are on their OFF-days first and not yet at 8 hours. When an employee reaches 8 hours overtime in any combination of work his name will be moved to the bottom of the regular workday list. When the day off list has been exhausted via rescheduling, or no one accepts work offered; then you can proceed to ask those Operators who are on regular work day list and desire overtime hours.

The eight (8) hour flag is to be used as follows:

If an employee reaches 8 hours or better (due to a combination of pieces of work e.g. 6 hour piece and a 4hr. piece) he can complete both pieces if willing but would then go to the bottom of the all day list because he has reached 8 hours OT.

- The number of hours you build up before going to someone else (eg am&pm extra or full run is 8 hrs.)
- If an employee has reached 8 hours in OT on their day off they cannot be asked for additional OT until all other employees have been asked (days off first then regular day to work)
- Overtime will booked out by seniority on days off as well as regular day to work.

Any changes must be mutually agreed to by both parties.
