- No individual member or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Local Union at meetings with Management without proper authorization from the Local Union.

There shall be an earnest and honest effort to settle all grievances and disputes immediately. The procedure which shall govern the handling of such grievances and disputes between the Company and its employees shall be as follows and not otherwise:

Step No. 1

Any employee subject to this Agreement believing he has been unjustly dealt with or that any of the provisions of this Agreement have not been complied with, shall take up the grievance with his Store Manager in an effort to effect a settlement. This matter shall be taken up with the Store Manager within five (5) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have occurred. If the employee does not receive a satisfactory settlement within forty-eight (48) hours, he shall place the grievance in writing with the Grievance Committee, to be taken up by them with the employee's Store Manager. It will be submitted on a Grievance Form supplied by the Union and shall include the nature of the grievance and the section or sections of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated.

Step No. 2

If the grievance is not then settled within the period of two (2) working days, it shall be taken up with the Regional Manager.

Step No. 3

If the grievance is not then settled within the period of seven (7) working days, it shall be taken up between the Committee, the Personnel Department or their designate, and an International Representative or Business Agent of the Union, who may be called in at the request of either party. At this time, the Union shall indicate in writing the section or sections of the collective agreement, which are alleged to have been violated and the remedy which the grievance requests. In replying to the grievance at this step, the Company shall state its reasons in writing.

Step No. 4

If the grievance is not then settled within a period of seven (7) working days, following Step 3, then at the request of either party to this Agreement, the grievance may be referred to Arbitration. If no written request for arbitration is received within twenty (20) days after the decision that the grievance is not settled at Step No. 3, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been settled.

(b) The application of 6.03(a) above shall be subject to the principle that if a grieving party who has missed a time limit can show that there were reasonable grounds for missing the time limit, then the other party shall waive the time limit. which has been missed.

- (c) In any event, any time limit may be waived by mutual consent in writing.

6.04

Those employees away from work in the bargaining unit, for any other reason, shall lose their seniority as above after 12 months absence.

APPENDIX A
COSMETIC COMMISSION
POLICY AND PROCEDURES

Objective

To define how cosmetic commissions are calculated, who receives them and how and when they are paid.

Scope

Applies to all personnel classified as Cosmetician, after completion of probationary period, employed by Pharma Plus Drugmarts Ltd., whether full-time or part-time, in the stores covered by the collective agreement with the Retail, Wholesale & Department Stores Union, Local 414.

Applies to all cosmetic products having the cosmetic coloured ticket, whether delivered from the warehouse or purchased directly from the supplier.

The starting date for this policy is June 18, 1978

How Calculated

The primary basis for the calculation of cosmetic commissions payable is the net cosmetic sales figure for your store. This figure is obtained from data on the SPR.

Commission amounts due will be calculated by and paid through the Payroll Department. Any questions regarding the payment of commission should be directed to the Payroll Department.

Commission will be paid to eligible Cosmeticians within 30 days of the end of the relevant quarter. Commission payments will be included on the payroll cheque, and details of the entitlement will be provided.

Commission quarters are outlined as follows:

1st quarter - Periods 1, 2 and 3

2nd quarter - Periods 4, 5, 6 and 7

3rd quarter - Periods 8, 9 and 10

4th quarter - Periods 11, 12 and 13

The amount of commission for which the cosmetician(s) in a store are eligible currently remains at 2% of net cosmetic sales.

Where relevant for purposes of paying commission, hours worked will include all vacation hours, and exclude sick leave and leaves of absence.

Commission Payment

One Cosmetician/store

The total scheduled hours for the accounting period are totalled. If the cosmetician worked 100% of the scheduled hours he/she will receive 100% of the commission. If he/she worked less than 100% of the scheduled hours, the percentage must be calculated.

Example: commission is.....$2,360.52
scheduled hours480.00
hours worked464.00
464 divided by 480.....97%

$2360.52 X 97% $2,289.70 (commission paid)

Two or more Cosmeticians/store

Where more than one cosmetician is employed in a store during the accounting period, payment is divided according to hours worked plus a quarterly hourly bonus of two years for every year of service as a cosmetician, up to a maximum of 10 years.

Example:

Start date as Comm.	Hours Worked	Yrs of Service	Bonus	Hrs + Total Bonus Comm	Total Hrs.	Comm. paid
A) 09/05/81	320	+ (8 X 2) =		336 X $2500	- 508 =	$1653.54
B) 01/02/80	152	+ (10 X 2) =		172 X $2500	- 508 =	$846.46 $2500.00

There shall be a probationary period for each new employee of thirty-five (35) worked days after which the employee shall be placed on the seniority list dating back to date of hire. A probationary employee may be discharged for any reason satisfactory to the Company.

- (b) The Company will endeavour to offer the most senior employee in the store the most scheduled hours and any hours of work beyond those normally scheduled hours of work which arise because of absence due to sick leave or holidays, provided the senior employee has the immediate ability and willingness to perform the work as required, and is available to perform the work immediately.
- (c) As of the date of ratification of this Agreement, the Company agrees that two or more part-time employees will not be regularly scheduled in such a manner so as to cause the displacement of full-time employees.

7.05 As per Article 7.05(a) and 7.05(b) of the full-time Agreement.

7.06 For the purposes of vacation entitlement and placement on the wage rate schedule for a regular part-time employee who has been transferred to a full-time position, his/her "length of service" with the Company at the time of transfer shall be one-half the total of his part-time seniority. "Start date" in full-time Article 10.02 shall mean the newly calculated full-time date under these circumstances. Introduction

Employees have the right to work in an environment free from harassment by:

- employer
- agents of the Company
- other employees

Definition

Harassment is defined as:

vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome

Note: Vexatious means irritating, annoying or disturbing.

Harassment is also related to the issues, such as race, colour, age, and sex that are prohibited under discrimination rules.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is conduct toward an employee by a supervisor or co-workers that involves:

- unwelcome sexual advances
- requests for sexual favors
- display of derogatory posters, cartoons and drawings
- conduct of a sexual nature, either verbal or physical

However, the above conduct is considered sexual harassment only when:

submission is a condition of the individual's employment submission or rejection is used in decisions affecting the individual's employment its purpose or effect is to:

interfere with the individual's work performance

create an unfriendly or offensive work environment

Outside the Workplace

Harassment that takes place outside the workplace is also unacceptable if it adversely affects employee relationships in the workplace.

Not to Inhibit Social Interactions

The policy is not intended to inhibit normal free speech discussions and social involvement between employees and management.

Supervisor Action

Supervisors who become aware that harassment is taking place are to stop the harassment by either:

warning the persons involved

taking disciplinary action

They document the situation and their actions,

Victim Recourse

Employees who feel that they are victims of harassment first inform the offending person that the conduct is unwelcome or offensive.

Note: The message should be clear and unambiguous.

If the harassment continues, the victim reports the incidents in writing to their Regional Manager, or the Vice President of the victim's department.

Investigate Incidents

Reported incidents of employee harassment are promptly and thoroughly investigated by the department Vice President with assistance and resources from the Vice President Human Resources.

Investigations include interviews with both the alleged victim and harasser.

During the investigation, the confidences and sensitivities of everyone involved are respected.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality during and after an investigation is kept by:

- keeping as much of the information as possible in strict confidence

- removing information from all files concerning allegations found not to be supported

Victim Involvement

The involved employee:

- participates in and cooperates with the investigation

- is protected from retaliation

- is informed promptly of results

Disciplinary Action

If the charges are substantiated, disciplinary action ranging from counseling to termination is taken.

It is imposed:

in the same manner as other disciplinary matters
in accordance with established policies and procedures

The investigators also ensure that there is not further harassment.

Human Rights Commission

Complaints about harassment received from the Human Rights Commission are processed the same way as Commission discrimination inquiries.

Reprisal Protection

Every person who receives a complaint or who is involved in an investigation is responsible for ensuring that no reprisal or threat of reprisal is made or taken against a person who has made a harassment complaint.
