ARTICLE 2: RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all its office, clerical and technical employees and Educational Assistants, save and except supervisors, persons above the rank of supervisor, students employed during the school vacation period, employees covered by a subsisting collective agreement with C.U.P.E., Local 1310, executive secretaries, all persons employed in a confidential capacity in the human resources department, academic consultants, special education co-ordinator, and all persons covered by the School Boards and Teachers Collective Negotiations Act.

ARTICLE 3: RELATIONSHIP

- 3.01 The parties hereto agree that any employee of the Employer covered by this Agreement may become a member of the Union if he/she wishes to do so, and may refrain from becoming a member of the Union if he/she so desires.
- 3.02 The Employer agrees that no employee shall in any manner be discriminated against or coerced, restrained or influenced on account of membership or non-membership in the Union.
- 3.03 The Union agrees it will not discriminate against, coerce or restrain any employee because of his/her membership or non-membership, his/her activity or his/her lack of activity in the Union, and recognizes that membership in the Union is a voluntary act on the part of the employee concerned.
- 3.04 It is agreed that the Union and the employees will not engage in Union activities during working hours or hold meetings at any time on the Employer's premises without obtaining the prior permission of the Employer. Provided the normal procedure is followed, the Employer will grant a permit to the Union for the use of its premises and facilities for the purpose of membership and Executive Board Meetings without payment thereof unless extra custodial services are required.
- 3.05 During the lifetime of this Agreement and as a condition of employment the Employer shall deduct from the pay of all employees covered by this Agreement on the first pay day of each

The said sum shall be accepted by the Union as the regular monthly dues of those employees who have or who become members of the Union and the sum so deducted from non-members of the Union shall be treated as their contributions to the expenses of maintaining the Union.

ARTICLE 4: DEFINITIONS

- 4.01 "Full-time employee" means an employee employed on a permanent basis who works the regular hours of work per week and includes those so employed on a school year basis.
- 4.02 M/K "Part-time employee" means an employee employed on a permanent basis who works less than the regular hours of work per week and includes those so employed on a school-year basis.

- (a) special projects or during periods of heavy workload, or
 - (b) in cases of emergency, or
 - (c) for replacement for employees absent due to illness or accident, or for other similar purposes, or
 - (d) for replacement for employees on leave of absence, or

Notwithstanding Article 12.01, temporary employees shall not acquire seniority and shall not have any seniority for the purposes of this Agreement. They shall be entitled to the wage rates and overtime provisions set forth in this Agreement, but are not entitled to any of the benefits set forth in Articles 18 and 21.

In the event that a temporary employee becomes employed on a permanent basis, he/she will, upon completion of the probationary period, be credited with seniority dating back to the start date of his/her most recent period of employment. The aforementioned probationary period will commence as of the date of permanent transfer/assignment.

ARTICLE 5: NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

- 5.01 In view of the orderly procedures established by this Agreement for the settling of disputes, and the handling of grievances, the Union agrees that during the lifetime of this Agreement there will be no strike, picketing, slow down, or stoppage of work, either complete or partial, and the Employer agrees that there will be no lockout.
- 5.02 The Employer shall have the right to discharge or otherwise discipline employees who take part in, or instigate any illegal strike, picketing, stoppage or slow down, but a claim of unjust discharge or discipline may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as provided in Article 8.
- 5.03 Should the Union claim that a cessation of work constitutes a lockout, it may take the matter up with the Employer as provided in Step No. 3 of Article 8.
- 5.04 The Union further agrees that it will not involve any employee of the Employer, NOR the Employer itself, in any dispute which may arise between any other employer and the employees of such other employer.

ARTICLE 6: RESERVATION OF MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS

- 6.01 The Union acknowledges it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:
- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
 - (b) hire, classify, transfer, promote, demote and lay off employees and also to suspend, discipline or discharge employees for just cause, provided that a claim by an employee who has acquired seniority that he/she has been discharged, suspended, or disciplined without just cause may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided.

The right to decide on the number of employees needed by the Employer at any time, the right to use modern methods, machinery and equipment, and jurisdiction over all operations, buildings and equipment are solely and exclusively the responsibility of the Employer. The Employer also has the right to make and alter from time to time rules and regulations to be observed by the employees, but before altering any such rules the Employer will discuss same with the Union Grievance Committee and give them an opportunity of making representations with regard to such proposed alterations. The Employer agrees that any such rules shall not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement.

- 6.03 None of the rights set forth in this Article will be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

- 7.01 (a) The Employer agrees to recognize six (6) stewards to be selected by the Union and to recognize a Grievance Committee which shall consist of the Local President and any two (2) stewards. - 7.03 The Union undertakes to secure from its officers, stewards and members their cooperation with the Employer and with all persons representing the Employer in any supervisory capacity.
- 7.04 The privilege of stewards and members of the Grievance Committee to leave their work without loss of basic pay to attend to Union business is granted on the following conditions:
- (a) The Union agrees that committee members and executive members have regular duties to perform in connection with their employment, and only such time as is reasonably necessary will be taken to service the grievance.

 - (b) No grievance shall be considered where the circumstances giving rise to it occurred or originated more than ten (10) full working days before the filing of the grievance,

The employee shall have the assistance of his/her steward at this meeting if the employee so desires. The immediate supervisor shall give his/her answer in writing within a period of five (5) days of the said meeting. If the answer is not satisfactory to the employee or if no answer is given then the next step in the grievance procedure may be taken at any time within five (5) days after receipt of the said answer.

Step No. 2:

The aggrieved employee may submit his/her grievance to the Superintendent of Human Resources or his/her nominee, who shall then arrange a meeting to discuss the grievance within a period of five (5) days. This meeting may be attended by the grievor and grievance committee, the appropriate supervisor, the Superintendent of Human Resources, or nominee, and the Human Resources Manager. - 8.02 When an employee covered by this Agreement is called to the office to be interviewed concerning any matter which might reasonably be anticipated to result in the discipline or discharge of the employee, he/she may be accompanied by a member of the Union Executive if he/she so desires.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

- 9.01 (a) Both parties to this Agreement agree that any dispute or grievance concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, which has been properly carried through all the steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Article 8, and which has not been settled, will be referred to a single Arbitrator at the request in writing of the party which initiated the grievance.
- (b) Notwithstanding 9.01(a) the parties may mutually agree to refer the grievance(s) to a Board of Arbitration.
- (c) Notwithstanding 9.01(a) and 9.01(b) above a grievance involving discharge may be referred to a Board of Arbitration at the request of either party.
- 9.02 Should the parties fail to agree on a person to be the Single Arbitrator referred to in Article 9.01 (a) within thirty (30) calendar days of the notification mentioned in 9.01 (a), the Ministry of Labour will be asked to nominate a person to act as the Single Arbitrator.

- 9.03 (a) Should the parties agree to refer the grievance to a Board of Arbitration, the following will apply:

- 9.04 The decision of the Single Arbitrator or the Board of Arbitration constituted in the above manner shall be final and binding on both parties. If the Board of Arbitration is unable to determine a unanimous award, the award of the Chairperson shall govern unless the nominees are agreed on a different result.
- 9.05 The Single Arbitrator, or the Board of Arbitration, shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement nor to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- 9.06 Each of the parties to this Agreement will bear the expenses of the Arbitrator appointed by it, and of its own witnesses, and the parties will jointly bear the expenses, if any, of the Chairperson or of the Single Arbitrator.

- (b) Notwithstanding 10.01 (a), an employee who has not attained seniority may be discharged and a lesser standard of just cause will apply.

- 10.02 All such cases shall be taken up within five (5) days and disposed of within seven (7) days (or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon) of the date the employee is notified of the discharge, except where a case is taken to arbitration. A claim by an employee that he/she has been unjustly discharged shall be treated as a grievance as defined by Article 10.01 if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Human Resources Manager within five (5) days after the employee ceases to work for the Employer, whichever is the earlier. All steps of the Grievance Procedure prior to Step No. 3 may be omitted in such cases.
- 10.03 such special grievances may be settled by confirming the Employer's action in dismissing the employee, or by reinstating the employee with full compensation for time lost, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties or the Board of Arbitration, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 11: MANAGEMENT GRIEVANCES

- 11.01 It is understood that the Employer may file with the steward and a Union Representative any complaint with respect to the conduct of the Union, its officers or stewards, or any complaint that a contractual obligation undertaken by the Union has been violated, and that if such complaint by the Employer is not settled to the mutual satisfaction of the conferring parties, it may be treated as a grievance and referred to arbitration in the same way as the grievance of an employee.

A Union grievance may be filed directly at Step No. 2 by the Union alleging a general violation of the Agreement by the employer and such grievance shall be processed as specified in this Article, substituting the appropriate management personnel where Union personnel are named.
