12.02 An employee who has a complaint shall first present it verbally to the employee's Supervisor accompanied by a representative Shop Steward. The Supervisor shall answer verbally within one (1) working day. Should the verbal answer not be acceptable, the complaint shall be considered as a formal grievance and submitted at Step 1 of the Grievance Procedure.

* 12.03 When a dispute involving discharge, layoff, recall, or a question of general application or interpretation occurs, the Union and the Employer shall have the right to originate a grievance and Step 1 of this Article may be bypassed by mutual agreement.

12.04 The employee concerned may be present, if requested by the meeting, at any meeting held in connection with grievances.

* 12.05 Grievances shall be resolved with the following procedures:

Step 1: The employee shall discuss the complaint with the Shop Steward. If the Shop Steward considers the grievance to be justified, the employee concerned, together with the Shop Steward, may within fourteen (14) working days after the occurrence of the grievance or the employee becoming aware of the occurrence of the grievance submit the grievance in writing to the employee's Department Head and an earnest effort shall be made by all parties to settle the grievance at Step 1. Either party may, after a dispute has been referred to arbitration, advise the other party of its desire to have the dispute mediated. Mediation shall only be utilized upon mutual agreement of the parties. Discussions at mediation shall be without prejudice and cannot be referenced at arbitration.

12.06 The time limits set forth in this Article may be varied by mutual consent of the parties to this Agreement.

* 12.08 Responses to grievances at all levels shall be forwarded to the Shop Steward filing the grievance, the grievor(s) and the Correspondence Secretary of the Union.

* 12.09 A Shop Steward or other employee who is a member of the Grievance Committee referred to under Step 1 or Step 2 of Article 12, or the grievor, or an employee who is subpoenaed by either party as a witness in an arbitration hearing, shall not suffer any loss of pay or any time lost in processing complaints or attending grievance meetings, mediation or arbitration hearings. However, such an employee shall not leave the employee's regular duties to discuss any business in respect of a grievance without first obtaining permission from the employee's Department Head. The employee shall notify the employee's immediate supervisor when returning to duty.

13.01 Any such reference to an Arbitration Board by either party may include any grievance arising out of the interpretation or application or alleged violation of this Agreement. The Board of Arbitration shall have the authority to rule only on those matters referred to it in the dispute and shall have jurisdiction to settle all issues referred including the question of arbitrability. The Board of Arbitration shall have the power to modify disciplinary measures imposed by the Employer, but in no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to alter, modify, or amend this Agreement in any respect.

13.02 The party requesting arbitration must set forth in writing the issue or issues to be heard by the Arbitration Board and in what respect the Agreement has been violated or misinterpreted.

13.03 Within seven (7) days of receipt of the said notice of arbitration, each party shall notify the other in writing of the appointment of its representative to the Arbitration Board. In the event that either party fails to appoint a representative to the Arbitration Board within the time provided, the other party may request the Minister of Environment and Labour Relations of the Government of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador to appoint a representative on behalf of the defaulting party.

13.04 The two (2) arbitrators so appointed shall within ten (10) days of the appointment of the latter appoint a third arbitrator who shall be Chairperson. The three (3) parties thus appointed shall constitute the Arbitration Board. In the event that the two (2) representatives of the parties to the Agreement fail to agree on the appointment of a Chairperson within the aforementioned ten (10) days, the Minister of Environment and Labour Relations of the Government of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador may be requested by the representative of either party to appoint a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board; and such appointment shall be binding on both parties.

13.05 Within a reasonable time, not to exceed forty (40) days following its appointment, the Board shall meet for the purpose of hearing the evidence of both parties and shall render a decision following the completion of taking evidence, to which shall be attached all exhibits filed by the parties with their briefs at the hearing or hearings. A copy of the Board's decision shall be immediately given to both parties to the dispute and this decision shall be binding on both parties as provided for in Section 23 of The Labour Relations Act, SN, 1977, C. 64.

13.06 If a party fails to attend or be represented without good cause at an arbitration hearing, the Arbitration Board may proceed as if the party had been present or represented.

13.07 The fees and expenses of the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board shall be equally divided between the Employer and the Union. Each party shall bear the expense of its nominee on the Arbitration Board.

13.08 The time limits set forth in this Article may be varied by mutual consent of the parties to this Agreement.

13.09 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, the parties may mutually agree to the substitution of a single arbitrator for an Arbitration Board, in which event, the foregoing provisions of the Article shall apply equally to a single arbitrator when reference is made to an Arbitration Board.

ARTICLE 14 - DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION, AND DISCHARGE

14.01 The Employer shall have the right to discipline, suspend, or discharge an employee for just and sufficient cause. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer recognizes the principle of progressive discipline. In the event the Employer initiates a disciplinary action against an employee, the following procedures shall be followed:

(b) Where an employee claims to have been unjustly dealt with, the employee shall have the right to be heard in accordance with the procedure for adjustment of grievances as set out in Article 12.

In situations where the Employer is unable to investigate the matter to its satisfaction, but feels the employee should be removed from the employee's place of employment, it shall be with pay.

* (d) Where the decision is for discharge, the matter may be taken up at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

* 14.02 A probationary employee shall have recourse to the grievance procedure with the exception that the termination of a probationary employee is not subject to the grievance procedure other than on the grounds of discrimination or bad faith. The probationary employee shall be given at least two (2) weeks' notice of termination or payment in lieu of such notice.

* 14.03 The University shall defend, negotiate or settle civil and/or criminal claims, suits or prosecutions arising out of acts performed by an employee in the course of the employee's duties provided that the University is satisfied that: the employee performed duties required by the University; the employee acted within the scope of the employee's employment; and, that the employee did not engage in willful misconduct.

The employee shall acknowledge receiving such documents by signing the file copy. Employees shall have the right to respond in writing to any documents placed in their file and their response shall also form part of their personal file.

15.02 Any reprimand or warnings given in writing and becoming part of an employee's file shall be destroyed after eighteen (18) months have elapsed, providing another warning or reprimand relating to a similar offence has not been given within that period.

16.01 In view of the orderly procedure for settling grievances the Employer agrees that it will not cause or direct, during the term of this Agreement, any lockout of its employees and the Union agrees that during the term of this Agreement there will be no strike or other collective action which will stop, curtail, or interfere with the Employer's operations.

ARTICLE 17 - ACCESS AND SHOP STEWARDS

17.01 The Employer agrees that access to its premises shall be allowed to persons employed full-time by the Union and Shop Stewards for the purpose of interviewing an employee, and such interviews shall not interfere with the operation of the department concerned.

b) Eligibility

All employees are eligible to apply to attend this type of training.

c) Approval

Approval to attend any training program must be obtained prior to payment of registration fees and attendance at the training program. The University has no obligation to pay for programs which have not received prior approval.

Courses paid through external sources will be evaluated on an individual basis.

d) Funding

The course registration/tuition fees will be disbursed through a central University account administered by the Department of Human Resources to a maximum of an amount equivalent to the tuition fee for one undergraduate course. Any additional registration/tuition fees will be the responsibility of the employee and/or the respective department.

Deferred Salary Leave Plan

1. PURPOSE

The Deferred Salary Leave Plan (the Plan) is provided within the conditions of the Income Tax Act to enable an employee to defer a portion of salary for up to six (6) years to be received thereafter during a leave of absence period for educational or other personal purposes. The leave of absence shall normally be for a minimum period of six (6) months up to a maximum of one (1) year but may be for a three (3) month period or more for full-time attendance at a designated educational institution.

2. ELIGIBILITY

A permanent employee who has completed the prescribed probationary period shall be eligible to participate in the Plan.

3. APPLICATION BY EMPLOYEE

An employee who wishes to participate in the Plan must make written application to the Director of Human Resources through the employee's Department Head by January 31 in any year. If approved for participation, the employee will complete a contract of participation and deductions will commence the first payroll following April 1 of that year.

4. DEDUCTION AND LEAVE OF ABSENCE PAYMENT

(a) A participant in the Plan shall have deducted a minimum of ten percent (10%) up to a maximum of thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the employee's annual salary before taxes. The percentage deducted may be altered only on April 1 of each year.

(b) During each year of enrolment in the Plan, the employee shall receive the employee's annual salary less the percentage elected for annual deferral. The amount elected for deferral shall be deducted from salary and transferred on a bi-weekly basis to the Comptroller of the University for deposit. The fund shall receive the same interest rate as other trust funds of Memorial.

(c) During the period of the leave of absence the employee shall receive on a bi-weekly basis an amount from the fund up to but not greater than the salary that the employee would have received if they were working. Within this limitation, the funds shall be equally disbursed during the period of the leave until the employee's contribution to the fund and accumulated interest is depleted.

(d) While an employee is enrolled in the Plan and not on leave, any benefits tied to salary level shall be structured accordingly to the salary the employee would have received had the employee not been enrolled in the Plan.

(e) While on leave, any benefits tied to salary level shall be structured according to the salary the employee would have received in the year prior to taking the leave had the employee not been enrolled in the Plan.

(f) All statutory, group insurance, and pension plan contributions will continue on the regular cost-shared basis between the employee and the employer.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, all statutory deductions shall be in accordance with Revenue Canada rulings and all pension plan contributions shall be in accordance with the Memorial University Pensions Act.

(h) Each year a Deferred Salary Leave Committee, consisting of an equal number of Memorial and CUPE representatives, shall meet and review the amount of deferred salary together with accumulated interest. Each participant in the Plan shall receive an annual statement of the funds deposited and accumulated interest.

5. OTHER CONDITIONS

(a) Upon return from leave, the employee shall be given the same position or a comparable position unless it is mutually agreed between the employee and the employee's employing Department that the employee return to a particular position.

(b) Leave under this Plan shall be credited as service for purposes of:

- i. Seniority
- ii. Step Progression
- iii. Pension
- iv. Severance Pay

Vacation shall not accrue during the period of the deferred salary leave.

(c) In the event that a suitable replacement cannot be found for an employee due to receive a leave, Memorial may defer the leave for up to one (1) year. In this instance, the employee may choose to remain in the Plan or the employee may withdraw and receive any monies and interest accumulated to the date of withdrawal.

(d) Pension contributions shall be paid on the salary the employee would have received had the employee not entered the Plan or gone on leave. These payments will be made during each year of enrolment including the period of leave and will be the normal contribution rate as required under the Memorial University Pensions Act.

(e) In accordance with Revenue Canada requirements, all employees who receive a leave of absence in accordance with this Plan guarantee that they will return to employment with Memorial for a period of time that is not less than the period of the leave of absence.

(f) All employees wishing to participate in the Plan shall be required to sign a Contract of Participation as attached before final approval for participation will be granted.

(g) Employees will continue their normal payment of Union dues during each year of enrolment including the period of leave.

6. WITHDRAWAL

(a) An employee may withdraw from the Plan, at any time for any reason, and receive all monies deferred to the fund plus accumulated interest. An employee must withdraw upon resignation of employment.

(b) An employee whose employment is terminated in accordance with Article 14 or 22, or who is laid off in accordance with Article 19, will be paid out all monies deferred plus accumulated interest.
