The Employer shall provide the Union with three copies of the up-to-date seniority list in January of each year.

7.03 Newly hired employees shall be considered to be on a probationary basis for a period of six (6) months from the date of hiring. During the probationary period employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The employment of such employees may be terminated at any time during this period of six (6) months without recourse to the grievance procedure. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment.

During the probation period the Employer will conduct a performance review after two months, four months and five and a half months of employment. The employee will receive a copy of each review and a copy will be sent to the Secretary of the Union.

7.04 If an employee is absent from work because of sickness, accident, lay-off or leave of absence approved by the Employer, he/she shall not lose seniority rights. An employee shall only lose seniority in the event of:

- (a) Discharge for just cause and is not reinstated

- (c) Lay-off for a period of longer than one (1) year.

7.05 (a) The Employer shall post all vacant and newly created positions on an appropriate bulletin board for a minimum of five (5) working days in order that all members will know of the position and be able to make written application thereto. Such notice shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, ability and skills, shift, hours of work, wage or salary range or rate. The applicants for vacant or newly created positions shall be advised in writing when the position has been filled and in the case of unsuccessful applicants, the Employer shall give reasons for its decision. All job postings shall state this position is open to male and female applicants.

(b) Where an Ontario Department of Labour certificate of qualification is available, this shall be a requirement for all future employees.

(c) Consideration for employment will be given to an applicant who does not possess the required qualifications, but is preparing for qualification prior to employment. Such employee will be given a reasonable length of time to qualify for the position.

7.06 The successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of two (2) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion shall become permanent after the period of two (2) months. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, or if the employee finds he/she is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, he/she shall be returned to her/his former position without loss of seniority or previous salary, and any other employee promoted or transferred because of such staff changes or promotion, shall be returned to her/his former position without loss of seniority or previous salary.

Employer for a period of six (6) months shall not be required to serve a probationary period.

7.08 An employee covered by this Agreement who, through advancing years or temporary disablement, is unable to perform her/his regular duties, shall be given a preference subject to qualification for any light work available at the salary payable at the time for the position to which he/she is assigned.

7.09 In cases of promotion requiring higher qualification or certification, the Employer will, if conditions permit, give consideration to employees who do not possess the required qualifications but who are preparing for qualification prior to the posting of a vacancy. Such employees will be given an opportunity to qualify within a reasonable length of time and to revert to their former position if the required qualifications are not met within such time.

7.10 In the case of newly created job classifications in the bargaining unit, not covered in Appendix "A", established during the term of this Agreement, the rate shall be subject to negotiations between the Employer and the Union. The agreed rate shall be retroactive to date of employment.

7.11 The Employer reserves the right to hire an employee for a period of time not to exceed two years to replace an employee on leave of absence. An extension may be granted by mutual agreement of the parties. In the case of a job that is anticipated to last less than three months, the Employer may post the job. In the case of a job that is anticipated to last more than three months, the Employer shall post the job, In the case of a job which is posted, the Employer will consider applications from internal candidates before those of external candidates. The employee will perform the duties of the job description of the employee on leave.

New employees hired for such jobs shall become a member of the bargaining unit as of the date of hire. A new employee hired under this provision shall not have the right to Article 22, Long Term Disability Insurance under Article 24, Welfare Benefits and the lay-off provisions of Article 7. Both parties must agree that the temporary employee is necessary, then discuss and agree on the terms and conditions of employment. The temporary employee shall be paid according to the job classification and salary rates of Schedule A or as agreed under 7.10.

ARTICLE 8

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or otherwise select a Grievance Committee of three (3) members who shall be employees of the Employer, within a bargaining unit, except that one (1) of these may be a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees. The personnel of such committee shall be communicated to the Employer.

8.02 Should a dispute arise between the Employer and employee(s) within the bargaining unit, regarding the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, an earnest effort shall be made to settle the dispute in the following manner.

Step 1 The aggrieved employee(s) shall submit the grievance in writing to their steward or member of the Grievance Committee within fourteen (14) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance.

Step 2 If the steward or the member of the grievance committee considers the grievance to be justified, the employee(s) concerned, together with the steward or member of the Grievance Committee, shall first seek to settle the dispute within three (3) working days of the origination of the allegation, with the employee's supervisor.

Step 3 Failing agreement being reached in Step 2, application shall be made within a further three (3) working days to the Manager, Maintenance Services in writing, stating the grievance concerned and a hearing shall be held with the steward or a member of the grievance committee within three (3) working days after receipt of such notice.

Step 4 Failing agreement being reached within three (3) working days of the matter being discussed in Step 3, the matter within a further three (3) working days shall be discussed at a hearing between the grievance committee and the Director, Human Resources, who shall render a decision within three (3) working days after such hearing.

Step 5 Failing a satisfactory settlement in Step 4, the Union may within ten (10) working days, on giving five (5) working days notice in writing to the Employer of its decision, refer the dispute to arbitration.

8.03 Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees have a grievance, Steps 1 and 2 of this clause may be bypassed. Replies to grievances shall be in writing at all stages. Any award made as a result of a settlement of a grievance shall be made effective as of the date the dispute arose or allegation was made.

8.04 The Union acknowledges that Union officers and stewards have regular duties to perform on behalf of the Employer, and that such persons will not leave their duties without obtaining the permission of their foremen or immediate supervisors, and when resuming their regular duties will report to their foremen or supervisors and will give any reasonable explanation which may be requested with respect to their absence. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. In accordance with the above understanding, the Employer will compensate Union officers and stewards for the time spent in handling the grievances of employees to a reasonable amount of time in any week at their regular rate of pay, but this will not apply to time spent on such matters outside of regular working hours. The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for the grievance meetings.

8.05 No grievance shall be deemed to be lost due to minor technical irregularities.

ARTICLE 9

ARBITRATION

9.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting any grievance procedure established by this agreement, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the differences or allegation to arbitration and a notice referring a dispute or allegation to arbitration shall contain the name of the first party's appointee to an arbitration board. The recipient of the notice shall within five (5) days inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the arbitration board. The two appointees so selected shall, within five (5) days of the appointment of the second of them appoint a third person who shall be the chairman. If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two (2) appointees fail to agree upon a chairman within the time limited, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party. The arbitration board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and that decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of a majority is the decision of the arbitration board, but if there is no majority the decision of the chairman governs. The parties may mutually agree to submit such difference to a single arbitrator, whose selection shall be by mutual agreement, and whose fees and expenses shall be equally shared.

9.02 No person shall be selected as a member of an arbitration board who:

(a) is acting, or has within a period of six (6) months preceding the date of his appointment acted in the capacity of solicitor, legal advisor, counsel, or paid agent of either of the parties.

(b) has any pecuniary interest in the matters referred to the Board.

9.03 In no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to alter, modify, or amend this agreement in any respect. Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision, either party may apply to the Chairman of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision, which it shall do within three (3) days.

9.04 Each party shall pay:

(a) The fees and expenses of the arbitrator it appoints.

(b) One-half of all other expenses of the Board

9.05 The time limits fixed for both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of the parties of this Agreement.

9.06 At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to any part of the Employer's premises to view any working condition which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

ARTICLE 10

DISCHARGE OR SUSPENSION

10.01 (a) Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to censure an employee in a manner indicating that disciplinary action may occur, a meeting of the employee, a Union Representative and the Employer will be held. The supervisor shall so notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the meeting in order that the employee may contact her/his representative to be present at the meeting. Written minutes of this meeting may be recorded and copies distributed to the employee and the Union. The minutes, letters of censure, reprimand or criticism which are two years old shall be removed from the employee's file and shall not be considered in connection with any disciplinary action.

(b) An employee shall have the right to have access to any document in her/his file which has been executed after the employee's hire or seniority date in the bargaining unit, whichever comes later. Employees shall have the right to respond in writing to such documents contained therein; such reply becoming a part of the employee's record.

10.02 An employee who has completed her/his six (6) months probationary period may be dismissed but only for just cause and only upon the authority of the manager. The supervisor may suspend an employee but shall immediately report such action to the manager. Such employee and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing, by the Employer, of the reason for such discharge or suspension.

10.03 An employee considered by the Union to be wrongfully or unjustly discharged or suspended shall be entitled to a hearing under Article 8, Grievance Procedure. Steps 1, 2 and 3 of the grievance procedure shall be omitted in such cases.

10.04 Should it be found upon investigation that an employee has been unjustly suspended or discharged, such employee shall be immediately reinstated in her/his former position, without loss of seniority rating, and shall be compensated for all time lost in an amount equal to her/his normal earnings during the pay period next preceding such discharge or suspension, or any other arrangement as to compensation which is just and equitable in the opinion of the parties or in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration if the matter is referred to such a Board.

The normal work week will be from Monday through Friday and the normal day will be from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Other shifts will consist of five (5) consecutive eight (8) hour days. Shifts and shift premiums will apply as defined in Article 12. Employees will be given the opportunity to express their preference for shift work except that seniority will determine shift preference, subject to the ability to perform the job.

11.02 In the event of an employee starting work in any day and being sent home before he/she has completed four (4) hours, he/she shall be paid for four (4) hours.

11.03 All employees shall be permitted a fifteen (15) minute rest period both in the first and second half of the shift, excepting in the case of an emergency.

11.04 Employees shall be permitted to leave their place of work in reasonable time for the purpose of washing up prior to lunch period and the end of their shift. A reasonable time shall be interpreted as ten (10) minutes.

Overtime in any week beyond the normal forty (40) hour week shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times the regular rate. Work performed on any of the Holidays, as defined herein, shall be classed as overtime and paid at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2) times the regular rate in addition to the Holiday pay. Employees shall not be required to lay off during regular hours to equalize any overtime worked, except as defined in clause 12.03 Emergency Shift 11.06 Instead of cash payment for overtime, an employee may choose to receive time off at the overtime rate, to a maximum of twelve and a half (12.5) days per year. Such time off may be accumulated to a maximum of five (5) days at any one time, and is to be taken at a mutually agreeable time.

11.07 Every employee who is called back and required to work in an emergency outside their regular working hours shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay plus one hour travelling time at straight time rates or overtime rate for all hours worked whichever is greater.

11.08 Call back time and overtime shall be distributed as equally as possible among the employees engaged in similar types of operations in a specific work area and who are qualified to perform the work that is available. For the term of this collective agreement, a roster of employees willing to work overtime will be established and posted annually. During the year, employees who wish to add their name to the roster, or remove it from the roster, shall inform their supervisor in writing.

11.09 An employee required to work overtime for two and one-half (2 1/2) hours or more prior to or following the normal day's work, shall be provided with a meal allowance of $10. An additional meal allowance will be provided for each additional four (4) hours of overtime worked. If the employee is required to work overtime for four hours prior to the normal day's work, he/she shall receive an extra meal allowance.

11.10 All overtime and call back pay earned by an employee shall be paid and accounted for on the next pay following the pay period in which it was earned 11.11 An employee shall be given no less than five (5) working days notice of a change in shift, unless the change is made at the request of, or to accommodate, the employee, or the shift change is of a temporary nature resulting from an emergency situation or a snowfall.

(c) Night shifts shall be those shifts in which the major portion of hours worked occurs between 11:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

12.02 The Employer shall pay a shift premium of 8% on the regular hourly rate to employees when the major number of hours worked in a day fall between 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m., except that employees required to work a regular shift on Saturday or Sunday will receive a shift premium of two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per hour for all hours worked.

12.03 An emergency shift shall be defined as an emergency requiring employees to be on duty between their regular shifts for a period of time of six (6) hours or more. In cases of this nature the individual will receive overtime pay for all hours worked but not report for duty for the next shift unless the emergency persists or in the opinion of the employee he/she is in a condition to adequately perform her/his duties. Letter of Intent

The parties agree that no later than thirty (30) days after ratification, they will meet to discuss the appropriateness of the wage rate of the following job classifications: Maintenance Mechanic, Auto Mechanic, Painter, Locksmith and Carpenter. Each classification will be assessed separately and the rates of pay be adjusted at that time.

The evaluation may be based on comparison of the rate of pay for each classification or similar classification with the rate of pay for the classification of Electrician or Plumber, considered to be similar to Carleton University, in existing organizations within Ottawa or Ontario.

The parties agree to conclude the discussions no later than July 1, 2000.
