ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

1.01 Bargaining Unit Part Time and Temporary

The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive Bargaining agent of all employees of the Employer who are located at 178 Rexdale Boulevard, Toronto, Ontario, save and except the following:

1. Managers; Co-ordinators, and Team Co-ordinators other than those listed in the schedule attached hereto; Supervisors and persons above the rank of Supervisor; Development Specialist; Secretaries to members of the Executive Committee; Secretaries to persons above the rank of Supervisors; Persons employed in Human Resources Office; Payroll Clerks; members of the Engineering Profession; Special Audits Investigators.
2. Duly qualified persons within the recognized professions such as dental, legal, medical and pharmaceutical, employed in a capacity which requires such professional knowledge.
3. Temporary personnel employed on work within the scope of the Bargaining Unit to replace an employee on sick leave, LTD, WSIB, maternity leave, parental leave or an unpaid leave of absence provided that in all cases the bargaining unit employee being replaced is not actively at work. Such temporary personnel shall not be employed on work within the scope of the bargaining unit except as stated in this section. However, these individuals can apply for internal vacancies but will be treated as external candidates. In the event, any of these temporary personnel are employed on work within the scope of the Bargaining Unit, except as stated in this section, the Employer will pay the Union the maximum rate of pay for the position being relieved as listed in this collective agreement for all hours worked, except as stated in this section.
4. Peakload personnel employed on work within the scope of the Bargaining Unit for a period not to exceed 450 hours in any one fiscal year, which is required to deal with vacation and the peaks in workload, which do not justify permanent positions. Such Peakload personnel shall not be employed on work within the scope of the Bargaining Unit except as stated in this section. However, these individuals can apply for internal vacancies but will be treated as external candidates. In the event any of these Peakload personnel are employed on work within the scope of the Bargaining Unit, except as stated in this section, and/or in excess of 450 hours in a fiscal year, the Employer will pay the Union the maximum rate of pay as listed in this collective agreement for the position being relieved for the duration of the hours worked in excess by such Peakload personnel.

5. Students on educational placement programs, and students who are registered in a full time program in high school or post secondary institutions to a maximum of 675 hours per fiscal year.
6. The term "Employees" as used in this Agreement shall be those persons within the scope of the Bargaining Unit as set out above.

1.02 For purposes of clarity, the parties agree that should the Employer transfer any part or parts of its operation from the 178 Rexdale Boulevard location to any other location in Ontario, employees within the transferred operation shall be covered by the provisions of this Agreement provided however that this shall not be construed to mean the transfer of individual employees, without the transfer of a part of an operation.

1.03 Appendix D outlines the provisions of the Collective Agreement that shall apply to part time personnel.

1.04 The term and kind of work activities for students on an educational placement program shall be governed by the requirements of their educational institute. The Manager of Human Resources will inform the Local Union President in writing of the term and kind of work activities for each student, prior to the student's first workday. There shall be a maximum of three (3) such students at any one time with an overlap period of up to four (4) months. There shall be no more than two (2) of these students in a Division (i.e. Certification and Testing, Standards, Finance and Administration, and Corporate) at any one time excluding overlap. The maximum 675 hours stated in Section 5 may be extended by mutual consent of the Employer and the Union, provided proof of the necessity to increase the 675 hours is provided by the appropriate educational institute. The Employer will pay the equivalent of union dues for each employee for their term.

ARTICLE 2 MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

2.01 The Employer has the exclusive right and power to manage its business and direct its working force in a manner consistent with the terms of this Agreement, including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the right to hire, promote, demote or discipline, suspend or discharge for just cause, provided that an employee who has not completed his probationary period may be dismissed for any reason satisfactory to the Employer, and the right of a probationary employee to grieve shall only be as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE 3 EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE RELATIONSHIP

3.01 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee by reason of race, creed, colour, national origin, political or religious affiliation, sex or marital status nor by reason of his membership or activity or his non-membership in the Union.

3.02 (a) The Employer shall provide the Secretary of the Union a monthly list of expected commencement and termination of employment dates, vacancy numbers, Supervisor's name, cost centre, names of employees they are replacing and accumulated hours where applicable of Bargaining Unit employees, students, peakload personnel and temporary personnel. This list shall include other information re: effective dates for employees referred to in Art. 24.04, 24.06 and any other items mutually agreed upon.

(b) The Employer shall provide an annual list of expected retirees.

3.03 (a) The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Union Agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out therein. A copy of the Agreement will be supplied to the new employee.

(b) The immediate Supervisor shall introduce all new employees to the zone steward.

3.04 Every three (3) months, the Union will be given the opportunity to conduct a seminar, for a maximum period of thirty (30) minutes, for all new employees within the Bargaining Unit, hired during that period. Attendance shall not be withheld by the immediate Supervisor. The seminar will take place during regular working hours without loss of pay at such time and place as the Employer may determine. The sole purpose of such a seminar is to acquaint the new employees with the benefits and duties of Union membership and his responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union. No more than one local Union designate shall be present to conduct this seminar.

3.05 The Employer and the Union agree that consultation and communication on matters of joint interest are desirable to promote constructive and harmonious relations between the parties.

A Management/Union Committee (MUM) has been established. The function of the Committee shall be to act as a forum for improving service to customers, correcting conditions causing misunderstandings, reviewing suggestions or questions from employees and any other items both parties deem necessary to discuss.

The Committee will attempt to meet once a month and an advance Agenda, agreed to by both parties, shall be sent to all Committee members. The parties also acknowledge the interest of all employees in the Bargaining Unit to be kept informed of developments affecting their employment and communications in this regard will be discussed during meetings.

It is understood that while the Committee shall consider and attempt to resolve all such problems coming before it, it shall have no power to alter, amend, add to or modify the terms of this Collective Agreement, but rather it shall act in an advisory capacity to the parties.

ARTICLE 4 NO STRIKE - NO LOCKOUT

4.01 The Union agrees that there will be no strike during the term of this Agreement and the Employer agrees that there will be no lockout during the term of this Agreement.

4.02 For purposes of this Agreement, the words "strike" and "lockout" shall be as defined in the Labour Relations Act.

ARTICLE 5 UNION MEMBERSHIP AND CHECK-OFF

- 5.01 (a) Any employee covered by this Agreement shall have the right to become a member of the Union, or not, as he sees fit.
- (b) Union dues, or deductions in lieu thereof, will be deducted from all employees in the Bargaining Unit who are in receipt of wages from the Employer.

5.02 The deductions outlined above shall be in such amounts as the Union may advise in writing from time to time. Upon receipt of a written authorization from the Union, the Employer will deduct prepaid dues in such amounts as the authorization may direct. Such deductions shall be forwarded to the Union treasurer within ten (10) days following the end of each unit accompanied by a list of additions and deletions for a master list. The master list shall be provided in April and October of each year.

5.03 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless from any claim by an employee arising out of the deduction arrangements in this Article.

5.04 The Employer shall provide the total regular wages for all Bargaining Unit employees for each fiscal unit.

ARTICLE 6 UNION ACTIVITY

6.01 The Union agrees there will be no Union activity conducted during working hours or at any time on the Employer's premises except:

- (a) Normal informal discussion at lunch periods providing it does not interfere with the rights and privileges of others and the conduct of business;
- (b) That which is provided for in connection with the handling of grievances;
- (c) During direct contract negotiations as agreed to by the Employer and;
- (d) Other activities as approved by Human Resources;
- (e) In order for the Union to properly represent the employees, the Employer shall provide a room for meetings, as the need arises with approval of the Director of Human Resources.

6.02 For the purpose of representation under Article 7 or Article 9, the Union may appoint a maximum total of eighteen (18) stewards.

6.03 One of the stewards will be appointed by the Union as Chief Steward. In the event that the appropriate steward is not on the premises, the Chief Steward or, failing him, any member of the Executive of Local 967 may act on the employee's behalf.

6.04 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the name of each steward and the area he represents and also the name of the Chief Steward, before the Employer shall be required to recognize any of them.

6.05 No more than one steward or union officer shall be absent from his job to process any grievance when such is desired by a grievor, in accordance with the grievance procedure. Such absence shall not exceed 1/2 hour unless approved by the Human Resources Director.

6.06 Before leaving his regular employment duties to engage in investigation and processing of grievances within his zone of operation, the steward must receive permission from his Supervisor and indicate the nature of the business and the time anticipated. Such requests shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Employer will pay only for authorized time spent on Union business.

6.07 On entering a section other than his own, a steward shall advise the Supervisor of the section entered, or such substitute as the Supervisor may designate, and on return to his section shall immediately advise his Supervisor.

6.08 A committee of three (3) employees shall constitute the Union Grievance Committee. A Union representative who is not an employee may be present if so requested.

6.09 A committee of four (4) employees plus one (1) Union representative who is not an employee shall constitute the Union Negotiating Committee.

6.10 The Union shall advise the Employer, in writing, of the names of members of the Union Grievance and Bargaining Committees. Any changes in the above representation shall be communicated in writing to the Employer as soon as possible.

6.11 If direct negotiations take place during working hours with permission of the Employer, the four (4) employees on the Union Negotiating Committee shall be paid for working time lost. If the services of a Conciliation Officer is utilized, the Union shall reimburse the Employer for the cost of all regular wages paid for such employees beyond an initial period of two (2) days.

6.12 All correspondence between the parties, arising out of this Agreement, shall pass to and from the Director of Human Resources and the Secretary of the Union.

6.13 Six (6) bulletin boards will be provided for the Union to post notices. Management reserves the right to approve such notices and it shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 7 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.01 It is the desire of the parties that complaints of employees regarding the application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that if an employee has a complaint he shall process it in the following manner and sequence, provided that the dismissal of an employee during the probationary period shall not be the subject of a grievance:

FIRST: Between the employee and his immediate Supervisor, provided such complaint is lodged within five (5) working days of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint. The immediate Supervisor shall give his decision within five (5) working days. A steward may be present upon request of the employee or Supervisor.

SECOND: If the Supervisor fails to settle the complaint to the satisfaction of the complaining employee, the employee shall, with the assistance of his steward, reduce the complaint to a grievance in writing (on forms supplied by the Union in quadruplicate and approved by the Employer) and they shall present it to the Supervisor within five (5) working days. The Supervisor shall give his written answer to the employee within five (5) working days.

THIRD: If the Supervisor fails to settle the grievance, the steward shall give the grievance to the Human Resources Director within five (5) working days of the Supervisor's written disposition, otherwise, it will not be accepted in the third step. The Human Resources Director shall give a written decision within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance.

FOURTH: If the grievance has not been settled in the third step, it must be processed within five (5) working days of the Human Resources Director's written decision, otherwise it will not be accepted in the fourth step. All grievances not settled at the third step shall be taken up at a meeting between the Union Grievance Committee and the Management Committee within five (5) working days. The decision of the Management Committee will be given to the Union in writing within five (5) working days following the meeting.

7.02 The time limits fixed for the Grievance Procedure may be extended on an individual basis by written consent of both parties to this Agreement.

7.03 A Union Policy grievance (which is clearly distinguishable from a grievance of an individual) which alleges that there has been a violation of this Agreement, may be filed by the Union Officers and instituted at the third step of the Grievance Procedure as outlined herein, provided this is done within five (5) working days after the occurrence of the event(s) or within five (5) working days after the Union ought reasonably to have known of the occurrence of the event(s) being grieved and if necessary, proceed to arbitration.

However, it is expressly understood that this procedure may not be used to institute a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees, which such employee or employees could have themselves instituted and the regular grievance procedure shall not be bypassed.

7.04 It is understood that the Employer may bring forward to a meeting held with the Union Grievance Committee any general complaint with respect to the conduct of the Union, its Officers, Stewards, or any other Union representative, and that if such a complaint by Management is not settled to the mutual satisfaction of the conferring parties, it may be treated as a grievance, instituted at the third step of the Grievance Procedure, and, if necessary, proceed to arbitration.

7.05 In order to facilitate an orderly and confidential investigation of grievances, the Employer shall make available the temporary use of a private room.

ARTICLE 8 ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION

8.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration and the notice shall contain the name of the first party's appointee to an Arbitration Board.

8.02 Such notice, in order to be accepted as an appropriate matter for submission to arbitration, must be communicated to either party in writing not more than ten (10) working days subsequent to the written decision of the Management Committee in Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure.

8.03 The recipient of the notice shall within five (5) working days inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two appointees so selected shall, within five (5) working days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson.

8.04 If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two appointees fail to agree upon a Chairperson within the time limited, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

8.05 The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of a majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson governs.

8.06 The Arbitration Board shall not have jurisdiction to alter, or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement nor deal with any matter not covered by this Agreement. The Arbitrator, however, in respect of a grievance involving a penalty, shall be entitled to modify such penalty in such a way that in the opinion of the Arbitrator is just and equitable.

8.07 It is agreed that each party will bear the cost of its appointee and bear equally the fees and expenses of the Chairperson. Where the Board deems it necessary to incur other expenses in connection with the case, the Board will consult with the parties and obtain agreement from the parties before making its decision regarding incurring such expenses.

8.08 The time limit fixed for the arbitration procedure may be extended on an individual basis by written consent of both parties to this Agreement.

- 8.09
- (a) Either party may, at the same time as filing the notice in Article 8.02 or within the time limit provided therein, serve the other with a Notice of Intent to Mediate the difference. If the other party agrees to the mediation of the difference, it shall reply in writing within five (5) working days to that effect and the parties will proceed to the selection of a mediator as set out below.
 - (b) If the parties agree to mediate, the arbitration provisions of this Article shall be held in abeyance until the day the mediation procedure has concluded without a final resolution of the difference, after which the arbitration provisions of this Article will continue, including access to expedited arbitration but not to consensual mediation-arbitration under the Labour Relations Act.
 - (c) The mediator will be selected in rotation from a panel of not less than three persons to be agreed upon by the parties in writing. If the mediator next in rotation is unavailable to mediate the difference within 30 days of the Notice of Intent to Mediate, the next mediator will be contacted, and so on until a mediator is selected who is available within this time frame. If none of the panel are available, and the parties are unable to agree upon an alternate, then the arbitration provisions of this Article shall apply unless the parties can otherwise agree in writing.
 - (d) The mediator shall determine the process and the procedure for mediation which, in his or her opinion, best suits the nature of the dispute and creates the optimum environment for resolution between the parties.
 - (e) If the mediator is able to fashion a consensus between the parties, the mediated settlement shall be reduced to writing, and is a final and binding settlement. Any concerns with respect to the interpretation, application or administration of the settlement shall be referred back to the mediator for resolution, and the mediator's determination of the issue is final and binding upon the parties.
 - (f) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the mediated settlement does not create a precedent for the disposition of the same issues in the future.
 - (g) If the parties are unable to conclude a settlement with the assistance of the mediator on the day appointed for that purpose, then the arbitration provisions of this Article shall apply unless the parties agreed to continue mediation on additional days with the mediator. If both parties are agreed, the mediator may be appointed as the arbitrator to hear and determine the difference in accordance with the requirements of this Article and the Labour Relations Act.

- (h) The mediation provisions of this Article shall have no application in the event either party requests the Minister to appoint a consensual mediator-arbitrator under the Labour Relations Act.
- (i) The Mediator shall not be a compellable witness at arbitration and any discussions with the mediator shall be given the same protected status as discussions between the parties in the grievance procedure.
- (j) The Employer shall pay all costs associated only with the Mediation process as outlined in clause 8.09. All other costs for Arbitration under this clause or under the Labour Relations Act, including consensual mediation-arbitration shall continue to be shared in accordance with current practice.

ARTICLE 9 WRITTEN DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION OR DISCHARGE

- 9.01 (a) At the time an employee is disciplined in writing, suspended or discharged, he shall be informed in the presence of the zone steward or Union officer of his right to Union representation, unless, in the case of discharge, the reasons are such that it is necessary to require his immediate expulsion from the premises. The employee may consult with the steward or Union officer, where applicable, for a reasonable time not to exceed 1/2 hour during working hours unless extended by mutual agreement.
- (b) An employee, discharged as described above, shall be provided the opportunity to meet with a Steward or Union Officer, outside the premises, immediately after discharge.

9.02 The employee who is disciplined in writing, suspended or discharged, shall be disqualified from proceeding under the Grievance Procedure unless written notice of a grievance is lodged with the Human Resources Director within five (5) working days from date of discipline. Such a grievance shall be commenced at the fourth step of the Grievance Procedure.

9.03 If no other disciplinary action occurs, disciplinary letters will be removed from the file in eighteen (18) months, suspension letters in thirty-six (36) months from the date of issue. In the event that further disciplinary action occurs, the letters shall remain on the file for thirty-six (36) months from the most recent action.

9.04 Any employee shall have the opportunity to review his personnel file upon request to the immediate Supervisor.

ARTICLE 10 SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL, SEVERANCE PAY

Seniority

10.01 An employee will be on probation and not acquire seniority until he has completed six (6) months of active employment within the twelve (12) month period following his hiring. On successful completion of the probationary period, he shall then be credited with seniority equal to the probationary period served, and any seniority thus acquired may be exercised in the manner set out in this Article. At the request of the Employer, the probationary period may be extended with the written consent of the Union.

10.02 It is understood that the release of an employee during the probationary period shall not be the subject of a grievance under either the Grievance or Arbitration and Mediation Procedures. An employee who has completed the probationary period and has seniority, who is discharged for cause, may lodge a grievance in the manner and to the extent provided in the Grievance Procedure.

- 10.03 (a) The seniority date of an employee shall be the date such employee first commenced work in any classification covered by this Agreement, except that any period of service outside this Bargaining Unit of more than twenty-four (24) consecutive months will not be added to the employee's Bargaining Unit seniority. In which case the seniority list will be adjusted accordingly and show the employee's service and seniority date.
- (b) A person who transferred to a supervisory position, or any other position not covered by this Agreement, after August 1st, 1977, and who is returned to a position within the Bargaining Unit within one (1) year from his date of transfer, shall return with his original seniority date. If such person is returned more than one (1) year after his date of transfer, his seniority shall be equal to that held at the date of transfer, plus a maximum accumulation of two (2) further years.
- (c) The seniority date of an employee who was in the Bargaining Unit prior to August 1st, 1977 shall be the date his service commenced.

10.04 Seniority shall be lost and employment deemed terminated if:

- (1) An employee is discharged and is not reinstated through the grievance and Arbitration and Mediation procedure;
- (2) An employee resigns;
- (3) An employee is laid off for the lessor of the employee's years of service or twenty- four (24) months or applies for and receives early severance pay as outlined in Article 10.12;
- (4) An employee on layoff fails to return to the Employer in accordance with his notice of recall;

(5) An employee fails to return upon the completion of any leave of absence except for reasons satisfactory to the Employer;

(6) An employee is absent from work without permission for a period of three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer unless such notice was not reasonably possible, and providing reasons for such absence satisfactory to the Employer.

10.05 A full time employee shall continue to accumulate seniority while he:

- (1) Is in the active employ of the Employer;
- (2) Is absent through verified illness for a period equal to the employee's accumulated sick leave plus an additional four (4) months, the employee's position shall be reserved. After this period of time, the employee shall cease to accumulate seniority and the position shall be posted, unless the employee can provide medical verification that he can return to work within one month;
- (3) Is absent for up to two (2) months on a leave of absence;
- (4) Is on maternity leave for up to twenty-six (26) weeks, or such longer period as may be prescribed by the Employment Standards Act;
- (5) Is on parental leave as per Article 12.06(a);
- (6) An employee on WSIB shall retain his seniority during the period of illness or injury to a maximum of thirty-six (36) months.

10.06 An employee on Long Term Disability shall retain his seniority as at the date of commencement of LTD.

10.07 The Employer shall maintain up-to-date seniority lists showing each employee's seniority date, and where applicable service date, as calculated in accordance with this Article; and the employee's current classification. The lists will be posted on the Union bulletin boards in April and October of each year and a copy sent to the Secretary of the Union.

Layoff and Recall

10.08 In the case of a layoff, seniority shall apply under Pay Rates and Classifications provided those employees remaining are competent to perform the available work.

- 10.09 (a) An employee who has been laid off in accordance with the provisions of this Article, will be called back to work in order of seniority provided that such employee is competent to perform the available work.
- (b) Employees on layoff shall be given preference for temporary vacancies which are expected to exceed ten (10) working days. An employee who has been recalled to such temporary vacancy shall not be required to accept such recall and may instead remain on layoff.

- (c) An employee may refuse recall, without loss of recall rights, when he is recalled to a job outside the original Career Family or to a lower pay grade.

An employee who accepts recall to any position is no longer on layoff and is considered to be placed in the recalled pay grade and Career Family.

- 10.10 (a) Employees shall be notified of recall by registered mail or courier sent to the employee's last known address according to the Employer's records, a copy of which shall be sent to the Union Secretary on the date of issuance. The employee shall:
- (1) within two (2) working days of the receipt of the recall notice, advise the Employer's Human Resources Director that he intends to return to work, and;
 - (2) return to work within five (5) working days of the receipt of the notice of recall.
- (b) Notification shall be deemed to have been received by the employee five (5) working days following the day the recall notice was sent by registered mail or courier.
- (c) It is the sole responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer advised of his current address and telephone number.
- 10.11 (a) An employee claiming that he has been laid off or transferred contrary to the provisions of this Article or that he has not been recalled in conformity therewith, may file a grievance in writing with the Employer commencing at the third step of the Grievance Procedure.
- (b) In the case of a layoff or transfer, such grievance shall be filed not later than ten (10) working days after the date of layoff or transfer.

LETTER OF INTENT RE MEDIATION

This is in regards to the new Mediation provisions in Article 8 and its impact on time limits when processing a grievance to arbitration or expedited arbitration.

The intent of the process is to allow both parties to seek the advice of an independent third party in settling differences while all time limits progressing to arbitration are in abeyance. Accordingly, CSA and CUPE Local 967 undertake not to use the time period of the Mediation process as a bar to hearing the grievance on its merits at arbitration or expedited arbitration, following mediation.

Should it be necessary, in this regard, CSA will support CUPE Local 967's application to the Ministry of Labour requesting expedited arbitration. Likewise, CUPE Local 967 will support CSA in similar circumstances.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING RE KATHLEEN O'NEIL MEDIATION

The Employer and the Union acknowledge that the May 5, 1993 Memorandum of Understanding remains in effect and the parties are committed to completing this process as soon as possible and, in any event prior to March 1, 1999. The parties are committed to set aside the time and resources necessary to complete this process within this time frame.

Ms. Kathleen O'Neil, who is presently seized with the inclusion/exclusion issue, has agreed to act as a mediator to assist the parties to resolve these matters. It is agreed that Ms. O'Neil shall determine the process and the procedure for her assignment which, in her opinion, best suits the nature of the dispute and creates the optimum environment for a resolution between the parties. In the event this matter is not completely resolved to the satisfaction of either the employer or the union at the mediation stage, Ms. O'Neil will then re-assume the position of sole Arbitrator to hear and decide any and all issues still remaining in dispute regarding this matter.

In the event that Ms. O'Neil does re-assume the position of sole Arbitrator, the terms of this Letter of Understanding and the position the parties have taken in mediation shall be without prejudice to the respective positions of the parties.
