- 10.2 (02) Departmental weekly schedules indicating daily starting times and finishing times, will be posted no later than Monday at 5:00 pm, for the week starting that Friday and ending the Thursday thereafter. Said schedule shall be posted in an accessible location to all employees concerned. In this manner, the departmental weekly schedules will correspond to the payroll processing schedule.
- 10.3 (02) These provisions must however in no way be interpreted as a weekly or daily guarantee of work hours or days. In each department, within each classification, available regular hours of work shall be assigned by seniority to employees starting with the longest weekly schedule shift in the following order:
- (a) Regular unrestricted employees;
 - (b) Regular restricted employees;
 - (c) Casual employee, Schedule "C"

- 10.6 (02) Regular employees shall have two (2) consecutive days off following five (5) consecutive days of work, unless requested by the employee. There shall be no change in the assigned days off of an employee for the purpose of avoiding overtime.

Should a regular employee request a change in assigned days off which is approved by the Department Head, then the employee shall be permitted to work a maximum of ten (10) consecutive days without incurring overtime and to minimize any loss of hours worked due to such requested change of days off.

10.17 (99) An employee required by the Company to attend a staff meeting during their normal working hours shall be compensated at their hourly base rate of pay for the time thus spent even though such meetings may run over the normal working hours.

Attendance for staff meetings will be on a voluntary basis for those employees who are not scheduled on that day.

compressed work week may be implemented, subject to the ratification of a two thirds (2/3) majority of the employees directly affected and present at the meeting, in a secret ballot vote.

The Local Chairperson shall be advised of the date for the ratification vote and shall be present.

After a two (2) calendar month period, a vote will be held to confirm the continuation of a compressed work week, failing which, all employees will within thirty (30) days, be returned to a regular schedule in accordance with the Collective Agreement. - (b) Once the agreed-upon period of Privileged Lay-Off Status expires, the employee is required to immediately return to work to their original position, failing which they shall forfeit their seniority and their name shall be removed from the seniority list.
- 12.22 (02) A regular unrestricted employee with fifteen (15) or more years of continuous service may make a written request to reduce their weekly hours to a minimum of thirty-two (32) hours. 22.10 (02) Outside Contracting: It is recognized and understood that at times and for varying reasons it is not considered practical or advisable for certain work to be performed in-house. The Company must, therefore, reserve the right to decide how and by whom any work is to be performed. This Article is not to be regarded as affecting that right.

In the event that the Company finds it necessary to contract out work presently performed by the bargaining unit, it agrees to the following:

- (a) the Company will provide the Union, in writing, with a minimum of ninety (90) calendar days advance notice of the proposed change;
- (b) at the Union's request, and within the specified time indicated in (a) above, meet prior to the proposed change so as to explain why the work must be contracted out and to consider any Union proposals which may enable the work to be continued within the bargaining unit, within budget and/or time frame;
- (c) The Company will not contract out work which would result in a lay-off, maintain a lay-off or reduce the regular working hours of an employee who, on the date of signing of this collective agreement or date it will be in force September 1st 2002, is still actively employed.

The foregoing limitations shall not apply to any work that is presently contracted out, nor shall it apply to work contracted out because of renovation programs or for which such work is to be completed within a specified time.

It is further agreed that, should the Company not have the necessary equipment/machinery or experience difficulty in either promoting qualified employees or hiring qualified employees, it will be allowed to contract out work presently done by employees covered by the scope of this Agreement. The Company will endeavour to maintain a qualified work force.

The terms and conditions for joint consultation and adjustment plans as set out in the B.C. Labour Relations Code, Part 4, Division 2, Sections 53 and 54, as they existed on August 1st, 2000, shall be minimum requirements incorporated within this Collective Agreement.

22.11 (02) Health, Safety, & The Environment:

Joint Health and Safety Committee

The Company and the Union agree to a joint Health and Safety Committee consisting of not less than five (5) employees, preferably from different departments of the hotel, selected by the Union and not less than five (5) from the Company who shall meet on a regular monthly basis. It is agreed that a primary function of this Committee is to review the previous minutes, discuss accidents & incidents, potential hazards, initiatives to increase awareness and overall health & safety of all members and required action where necessary. Additionally, all members of the Health & Safety Committee will participate in completing regularly scheduled site inspections. Minutes of these meetings shall be kept, posted on all departmental bulletin boards with copies forwarded to the Union.

Pay For Attending Monthly Meetings

The Employer agrees that an employee carrying out his/her responsibilities as representatives of the Joint Health & Safety Committee will be paid their regular hourly rate for that time, in accordance with the provisions of the collective agreement as it relates to attendance of Company meetings.

Right of Refusal

No employee shall be discharged, penalized or disciplined for refusing to carry out any work process or operate any equipment where they have a reasonable cause to believe that it would create an undue hazard to the health or safety of any person.

There shall be no loss of pay, seniority or benefits during the period of refusal. However, the employee is required to immediately report the circumstances of the unsafe condition to the Employer who will investigate the matter and attempt to resolve it. If the matter remains unresolved, further investigation will be required including the Employer, the employee, and the Union representative of the Health and Safety Committee or a designate. If the matter still remains unresolved, the Employer and the employee or a Union representative shall notify an officer of the Workers' Compensation Board for investigation and decision orders if required. The employee may be assigned temporarily to alternative work until the matter is resolved.

In the event that a regular restricted employee is awarded a position under the unrestricted list and has not yet become eligible for participation in the Pension Plan, then said employee shall become eligible to participate in the Pension Plan following six (6) months of continuous employment at the Fairmont Empress and having maintained an average of thirty (30) regular hours of work per week.

The employer and the employee shall contribute 3.2% of earnings up to the Yearly Maximum Pensionable Earnings (YMPE), and 5% of earnings over the Yearly Maximum Pensionable Earnings;

Should the Company discontinue the Fairmont Hotels Pension Plan for Unionized Employees at the Fairmont Empress in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Plan and no longer provide a pension plan, then the total of the employees' contributions and interest accumulated together with the matching employer's contributions and interest accumulated shall be transferred in accordance with the Plan and any applicable Legislation having jurisdiction over the Plan, into a mutually agreed upon pension plan or investment vehicle.

FUNCTIONS DEPARTMENT
CASUAL EMPLOYEES

(1) SENIORITY:

A casual employee will not be used to cover regular hours that could be scheduled into a regular shift for a period exceeding eight (8) continuous work weeks. A work week shall be defined as constituting thirty (30) regular hours divided into five (5) days.

Following the period stated above, said position shall then be posted as a regular position and the successful applicant shall then be considered a regular employee entitled to all rights and benefits applicable to the regular employee.

Casual employees do not accumulate seniority and only their date of hire indicates priority for call-in, in their classification.

Casual employees will accrue in-service time for the purpose of bidding for regular positions in Schedule "A" based on one (1) day's service for each eight (8) hours worked.

Should a casual employee be appointed to a posted regular position as per Article 13 of this agreement, said employee will be granted seniority retroactive from the date of the appointment on the basis that forty (40) hours of work is equal to one (1) week of seniority. Provided they have completed sixty (60) service assignments, casual employees shall not undergo a probationary period as stated in Article 14.

(2) VACATIONS AND STATUTORY HOLIDAYS:

Casual employees shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the British Columbia Employment Standards Act when calculating Vacation and Statutory holiday pay and shall be paid out on each corresponding pay period.

(3) HOURS OF SERVICE:

Four (4) consecutive hours, exclusive of a meal period, shall constitute a function, i.e. breakfast, lunch or dinner shift. Employees requesting shorter shifts shall be required to sign out and will be paid only for hours worked.

(4) OVERTIME:

Casual employees shall be paid for authorized overtime on the actual minute basis as one and one-half (1 1/2) times the hourly base rate of pay for the first hour of overtime so worked. Overtime in excess of one (1) hour shall be paid for on the actual minute basis of two (2) times the hourly base rate of pay.

(5) RATES OF PAY:

The provisions contained in Schedule "A" shall apply during the term of Schedule "C", except that Article 14.3 will apply to casual employees.

(6) MANAGEMENT RIGHTS, UNION RIGHTS, AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE:

Management rights, Union rights, and the grievance procedure shall be as defined previously in the collective agreement.

(7) PROBATIONARY PERIOD:

The probationary period for a new employee shall be up to sixty (60) service assignments. In accordance with present practice, work on any one day shall constitute an assignment.

& GENERAL WORKERS UNION OF CANADA

(CAW-CANADA), Local 4276

The parties agree, that notwithstanding the provisions contained in Articles 10.11, 10.12 and 12.2 and in order to maximize the weekly regular hours of work within each classification within each department, and for the life of the present Agreement which will terminate on August 31th, 2005, the following shall apply:

- (1) On or about each of the following date of each year (first starting work week of the month):
 - (a) March 1st;
 - (b) June 1st;
 - (c) September 1st;
 - (d) December 1st;

the Company shall for each period:

- (i) establish a minimum staffing level of position(s), for each classification based on business demands;
- (ii) establish for each staffing level position a fixed weekly schedule consisting of five (5) shifts in a week, each shift shall be for eight (8) consecutive hours exclusive of meal period.
- (iii) Fixed weekly schedules shall have a fixed starting time which shall be the same on all days of the week, but fixed weekly schedules may occasionally be adjusted due to fluctuating business demands, but not to vary by more than two (2) hours before or after the scheduled starting time, provided that said shift is not extended beyond a daily regular eight (8) hour shift.
- (iv) For the purposes of covering a fixed weekly schedule during the absence of it's incumbent and provided that said coverage will not exceed thirty (30) days and that the provisions of the two (2) hours as stated in (iii) above are applicable, a senior employee having a fixed weekly schedule may request to occupy the absent incumbent fixed weekly schedule for the required period. - (3) The provisions contained in (1) or (2) above are in no way a guarantee of daily or weekly hours of work and do not prevent the Company the right to reduce the staffing level of fixed weekly schedule(s) or the number of hours in a day or a week of any or all fixed weekly schedules.
- (4) It is agreed that the position of Night Porter (Department – Guest Services) working the night shift shall be a red circle position and that the incumbent shall not be displaced except in the application of the provisions of Article 12.8.

Re: Casual Employees

This letter will serve to confirm our conversation with respect to the availability of casual employees.

Wherein, both parties agree that although the basis of casual employees, as per Article 2.1 (n), of the current Collective Agreement is that they be used on an ad-hoc basis there exists the necessity to maintain some control over the amount of casual employees within the Hotel.

As such, it is agreed that any casual employee who is not available for a period of four (4) consecutive months shall have their file closed and be deemed as terminated at that time.
