ARTICLE 8 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Employees shall be probationary employees until they have been continuously employed by the Corporation for three (3) calendar months or for sixty (60) actual days worked, whichever is greater. Upon completion of the probationary period the employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list and their seniority shall be based on the date of their last hire. The discharge of an employee during the probationary period shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration procedures.

ARTICLE 9 - SENIORITY

9.1 Seniority of years of service shall be each individual employee's term of continuous full-time permanent service with the Corporation.

9.2 In the event two or more employees have the same seniority date, seniority shall be reckoned in alphabetical order of surname commencing with the more senior employee beginning at the letter

"A."

- 9.3 A seniority list shall be compiled semi-annually on June 30th and December 31st and each full-time permanent employee will be placed thereon in accordance with their term of continuous service with the Corporation.
- 9.4 Any employee whose continuity of service has been broken, other than in the case of layoffs or authorized leaves of absence, which are dealt with below, shall be considered a new employee and seniority of years of service of such employee shall be calculated from the date of re-entry.
- 9.5 An employee's seniority shall be broken and the employee shall no longer be regarded as a full-time permanent employee covered by this Agreement and the Corporation shall not be obliged to re-hire such employee, if:
- (a) an employee resigns voluntarily;
 - (b) an employee retires;

- 9.6 Subject to Article 9.5 and Article 37, if an employee is absent from work due to lay-off or authorized leave of absence, the employee shall not lose seniority, but shall not acquire seniority after the first sixty (60) calendar days of such lay-off or after the first thirty (30) calendar days of such authorized leave of absence. Employees absent from work on paid sick leave due to illness or accident, will continue to accrue seniority until Article 9.5 (f) applies.
- 9.7 Seniority shall operate and govern on a bargaining unit-wide basis.

ARTICLE 10 - LAY-OFF AND RECALL

- 10.1 In the event of lay-offs, seniority with the Corporation shall be the main governing factor. Hence, employees shall be laid off in the inverse order of their seniority and when necessary to recall former employees they shall be recalled in the inverse order in which they were laid-off. Such employees who are recalled or retained in the event of a lay-off must have the necessary skills and qualifications to perform the work required with a ten (10) working day orientation period, but without training.

10.2 On recall from lay-off, the following procedure will apply. Employees must signify their intention to return to work after recall from lay-off within three (3) working days following proper notification by the Corporation by registered or certified mail sent to the employee at the last address provided by the employee to the Human Resources Division. Employees must return to work after an additional five (5) working days following such notification. Copies of the notification will be sent to the President of the Union. The intent of this clause is as follows:

- (a) The registered or certified notification shall be deemed to be received on the second (2nd) working day after the date of mailing.
- (b) The laid-off employee has three (3) working days to notify the Corporation.
- (c) An employee who has complied with (b) above will have a further five (5) working days from the expiry of the time limit in (a) above to return to work.

If an employee notified the Corporation within said three (3) working days that they are unable to return to work within the prescribed time for a legitimate reason acceptable to the Corporation, their name will not be struck from the seniority list. Their name, however, may be passed over and the next in line of seniority may be recalled. These time limitations may be extended in writing for valid reasons such as sickness certified by a doctor's certificate, death in the immediate family, accident and other legitimate reasons acceptable to the Corporation.

10.3 In the event of a lay-off, members of the local executive namely, the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary, shall be the last persons laid-off during their term of office as long as full-time work for which they already possess the necessary skills and qualifications to perform the work available with a ten (10) working day orientation period, but without training, at their own or at a lower rate of pay. Should work not be available at their same wage rate, then placement will be made at the next lower wage level.

In the case of a change in the local executive during a lay-off, notice in writing of the change shall be given to the Corporation forthwith and the Corporation shall have five (5) working days from receipt of such notification within which to advise individuals of the changes necessary to apply this cause to the new local executive and to terminate its application to the person(s) dropped from the executive. If any notice to any person being laid-off in the consequence is required by law, the period of the notice will be in addition to the five (5) working days and lay-offs and recalls will not be effective until the expiry of the notice period required by law.

10.4 No permanent employee with the necessary skill, ability and competence to perform the work required with a ten (10) working day orientation period, but without training, will be laid-off until all temporary or seasonal employees are first laid-off.

10.5 Throughout article 10, it is understood that an employee shall be allowed to exercise his/her seniority rights to bump another employee only once.

ARTICLE 11 - UNION COMMITTEE HEARING

Any Committee of the Union, upon request, shall be accorded a prompt hearing by the General Manager of the Department and the various Council Liaisons.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB VACANCY AND JOB POSTING

12.1 All employees governed by this collective agreement shall at all times have a job posting that accurately reflect the current duties of the job that they perform for the Corporation. Job postings will be amended when changes are required. When any changes in job postings are required by the Corporation, a draft copy of the job posting shall be presented to the Union at least thirty (30) days in advance of such proposed changes. The Corporation will notify the Union in writing seven (7) working days prior to filling any staff changes or new classifications covered by the terms of this Agreement and post notice of the position for at least ten (10) working days in all departments covered by the Agreement. Such notice shall contain the following information:

- (a) nature of position;
- (b) qualifications required, indicating knowledge, education and skills;
- (c) shift;
- (d) wage rate.

The Corporation will within thirty (30) working days of the position becoming vacant subject to an extension of time by mutual agreement, post notice of the vacancy or notify the Union in writing that the vacancy will not be filled, and giving the reason for not filling the position. If notice has not been received by the union after the thirty (30) working days the Corporation shall post the vacancy within fifteen (15) working days.

12.2 When filling new or vacant permanent positions seniority shall govern providing the applicant has the necessary skill, ability and competence to perform the work required.

12.3 When new classifications are created the Corporation will advise the Union in advance of the nature of the position and the proposed wage rate. Any change in wage rate shall be negotiated between the Corporation and the Union.

12.4 In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory to the Corporation or wishes to return to their former position during the trial period of up to twenty-five (25) actual days worked, or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, they shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred as a result of the rearrangement of jobs shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority.

In the event that employees, during the trial period, are returned to their former positions, the following will apply:

- (a) The position(s) will not be re-posted and the selection will be reconsidered in accordance with the initial posting and Article 12.2.
- (b) The time limits in Article 12.9 shall be extended by the number of days the employee has worked during the trial period.
- (c) Any positions filled by new employees which were moved as a result of the change, will cause the new employee(s) to be terminated.

12.5 It is agreed that successful applicants of the job posting procedure will not be permitted to re-apply for a posted job for a period of six (6) months, unless prior written permission is received from the Chief Human Resources Officer. This clause will not restrict an employee in posting for a higher paid position.

12.6 Job vacancies in the classification of "Labourer" under Appendix "A", may be filled by the Corporation by either allowing current Temporary or Seasonal Employees to complete more than eight (8) continuous months of service, thereby becoming Permanent Employees, or, by applying the above job posting procedure.

12.7 Temporary or Seasonal Employees will be allowed to submit application for jobs posted under the above procedure. These applications will be considered by the Corporation in the event no qualified permanent employee posts for the job vacancy or change. It is agreed that the posting of any Temporary or Seasonal employee to any permanent employee classification, shall at all times, be at the sole discretion of the Corporation provided it is in conformity with article 12.8.

12.8 Seasonal employees, in the employ of the Corporation, who have completed two full seasonal work terms in the Section, or in the Division where there is no Section, will be given preference in filling vacancies in that Section or Division in the classification of "permanent labourer". Seniority will govern provided the employee has the necessary skill and ability to perform the work required.

- 12.9 In the event a position is posted, the Union and all internal applicants will be advised of the name of the successful candidate, the start date and the Department where the employee will be assigned, at the same time as the correspondence is sent to the successful candidate. The Union will be provided with a copy of the "offer of employment" to the employee selected for the job, at the same time as the correspondence is sent to the successful candidate. The Union will be provided with a copy of the "offer of employment" for any seasonal employees hired by the Corporation at the same time as the correspondence is sent to the employee. The position will be filled within sixty (60) working days of the expiry of the job posting or such longer period of time as mutually agreed upon.
- 12.10 Upon request, internal applicants who were interviewed and were unsuccessful shall receive an interview with one of the persons who conducted the interview with the employee setting out reasons why the applicant was not selected for the position. Following such meeting, and upon written request, such reasons will be provided in writing.

ARTICLE 13 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 13.1 It is the mutual desire of the Union and the Corporation that grievances of the parties to this Agreement shall be adjusted as quickly as possible. For the purposes of this Agreement, a grievance shall be defined as any difference between the parties to this Agreement relating to the interpretation, application or administration of the Agreement, including the question of whether or not a matter is arbitrable and any question as to whether the suspension, discharge or other discipline of an employee is reasonable may constitute a grievance and shall, at the request of either party, be dealt with as follows:

process as an individual employee grievance or grievance of a group of employees.

- 15.2 Failing settlement under the foregoing grievance procedures as outlined in Articles 13, 14 and 15 of any grievance between the parties, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration, as set forth in Article 16. If no written request for arbitration is received within twenty (20) working days after the decision is given, it shall be deemed to have been settled and not eligible for arbitration.

The adjustment required by this provision will be made by adjusting the employee's year-end tax remittance and adjusting their T-4 form accordingly. The adjustment will be made by determining the amount paid by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board and then applying the tax deduction as set out in Section 4, Part 4, Tax Deductions on Special Payments, Lump Sum Payments. This amount of tax will be deducted from the employee's year-end tax remittance and T-4 form.

17.2 a) An employee shall be granted full wages during absence due to non-occupational illness for a total period of eighteen (18) working days per year with unlimited accumulation. Such sick leave pay shall be earned by employees on the basis of one and one-half (1 1/2) days for each month of service. An employee shall be entitled to sick pay provided they have sick leave credits accumulated.

b) The accrual of sick leave and vacation shall be prorated while an employee is on a non WSIB work accommodation that is longer than 30 days duration and when there is a graduated work schedule involving shifts of less than the normal 8 hours.

c) The Corporation shall have the right to take such steps as may be necessary to ascertain whether or not the employee is malingering.

17.3 Upon termination of employment, retirement, or death, following the completion of ten (10) years of continuous service with the Corporation, an employee shall be entitled to be paid fifty (50) percent of his available accumulated sick leave credits to the maximum amount of fifty (50) percent of one year's normal earnings at the rate received immediately prior to termination of employment subject to the following conditions.

- (i) Upon becoming engaged by another Municipal Corporation or local board thereof or the Provincial Government or agency thereof and without any intervening period of other employment, the employee may elect to have the payment described above transferred to the hiring employer, subject to written acceptance by the hiring employer, that sick leave credits equal to that provided by the former employer will be paid to the employee's credit.
- (ii) In the event of death, the beneficiary as shown on the Group Insurance Record shall be paid the monies owing.
- (iii) The sick leave severance allowance as defined in this Article shall not apply to employees hired on or after June 1st, 1985.

17.4 In case an employee is unavoidably kept from work, they will not be discriminated against. Any employee detained from work on account of sickness or any other such good cause must, if possible, advise the Manager/Director of the Department in time so they can arrange for relief, and in all cases employees will make arrangements with the Manager/Director of the respective Department to lay off or to return to work.

17.5 Seasonal or Temporary employees shall accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of ten (10) hours per month of service. Seasonal or Temporary employees shall be granted full salary during the absence due to non-occupational illness and shall be entitled to this benefit as long as they have any sick leave credits accumulated.

Seasonal or Temporary employees who are rehired for a second or consecutive term or seasonal employment, within nine (9) months of the date of their last termination, shall be credited with previous unused sick leave credits; and the three (3) month waiting period for benefits shall be waived.

ARTICLE 18 - VOTING TIME

Employees shall, on Provincial and Federal Election days, be allowed time off for voting, if required, in accordance with the Ontario and Federal Acts, where applicable, and no deduction shall be made from their pay on that account. The time for voting shall be arranged between the Manager or the Director and the employee.

ARTICLE 19 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

19.1 A reasonable leave of absence shall be granted an employee without remuneration, but an employee taking employment for wages during their leave of absence, shall forfeit their standing on the seniority list, unless permission has been given on mutual agreement between the employee, the Corporation and the Union.

In the event of emergency, steps will be taken to deal with the immediate situation and every effort will be made to utilize the services of such members of the bargaining unit, who would normally perform the work required. Determination of a state of emergency, and the provision of adequate service shall be at the discretion of the General Manager through the Director.

33.2 The Corporation has the right to test equipment before and after repairs, for a reasonable length of time.

ARTICLE 34 - ABUSIVE LANGUAGE

Any person employed by the Corporation in authority while addressing employees must refrain from the use of abusive language and similarly employees must refrain from the use of abusive language to any such person in authority. All employees of the City are expected to show respect and tolerance for each other in the workplace.

ARTICLE 35 - CORRESPONDENCE

ARTICLE 36 - EMPLOYEE FILES

An employee shall have the right to obtain access to his/her personnel file upon reasonable notice and within normal working hours. No employee file shall be removed from Human Resources and such file will be reviewed by an employee only in the presence of Human Resources staff. Copies of file material requested by the employee will be supplied to the employee at City cost, as soon as reasonably possible. An employee may respond to any document in the personnel file and such reply will be retained in the file. All disciplinary letters and documents, including letters recording verbal warnings, shall be removed from the employee's file twenty-four (24) months from the date of issue. All letters of counsel shall be removed from the employee's file fifteen (15) months from the date of issue.

ARTICLE 37 - MATERNITY/ADOPTION LEAVE

37.1 Under the Employment Standards Act, a pregnant employee has the right to take unpaid pregnancy leave of absence. The pregnancy leave entitlement shall be up to seventeen (17) weeks in length. In some cases the leave may be longer.

A pregnant employee qualifies for pregnancy leave if she was hired at least thirteen (13) weeks before the date her baby is expected to be born (due date). The earliest a pregnancy leave can begin is seventeen (17) weeks before the employee's due date. However, when the employee has a live birth, she will be able to begin her pregnancy leave on the date of the birth. The latest a pregnancy leave can begin is on the baby's due date. However, if the baby is born earlier than the due date, the latest the leave can begin is the day the baby is born.

The employer can not decide for the employee when the leave will begin, even if the employee is sick or if the pregnancy limits the type of work she can do.

Once an employee starts her pregnancy leave, she must take it all at once. If she decides to return to work she gives up the right to take the rest of the leave under the Employment Standards Act.

If an employee has a miscarriage or still birth, she is eligible for pregnancy leave only if the miscarriage or stillbirth occurred within seventeen (17) weeks before the due date. The pregnancy leave of an employee who has a miscarriage or still birth ends on the date that is the later of seventeen (17) weeks after the leave began or six (6) weeks after the stillbirth or miscarriage.

An employee must give her employer at least two (2) weeks written notice before beginning her pregnancy leave and if requested, provide a certificate from a medical practitioner indicating the expected date of birth. If the expected date of the leave to begin changes, the employee must provide the employer with written notice of the change at least two (2) weeks prior to the new earlier date.

If the employee does not specify a return date, it is assumed the employee plans to take the full seventeen (17) weeks. If the employee chooses not to take the full seventeen (17) weeks pregnancy leave, the employee must provide the employer with written notice of the expected date of return. If the date changes, the employee must provide written notice at least four (4) weeks before the new date to return to work.

An employer can not require an employee to return early from pregnancy leave.

An employee who is a new parent is entitled to parental leave. A 'parent' includes a birth parent, an adoptive parent (whether or not the adoption is legally finalized) or a person who is in a relationship of some permanence with a parent of the child and who plans on treating the child as his or her own. This includes same sex couples.

Both new parents have the right to take parental leave up to thirty-five (35) or thirty-seven (37) weeks of unpaid time off work. If an employee has also taken the pregnancy leave of seventeen (17) weeks, the employee is entitled to thirty-five (35) weeks. If the employee has not taken the pregnancy leave, the employee is entitled to thirty-seven (37) weeks unpaid time off.

An employee who is a new parent must have been hired at least thirteen (13) weeks before the leave begins.

A birth mother who takes pregnancy leave must ordinarily begin her parental leave as soon as her pregnancy leave ends. If an employee's baby has not come into her care for the first time when the pregnancy leave ends, the employee can choose to return to work and start her parental leave once the baby comes home.

All other parents must begin their parental leave no later than fifty-two (52) weeks after the date their baby is born or the date their child first came into their care, custody and control. The parental leave doesn't have to be completed within the fifty-two (52) week period, just started. Employees may wish to take a shorter leave if they wish. However, once they start the leave, he or she must take it all at one time.

An employee who has a miscarriage or stillbirth, or whose spouse or same-sex partner has a miscarriage or stillbirth, is not eligible for parental leave.

An employee must give his or her employer at least two (2) weeks written notice before beginning a parental leave. If an employee is also taking pregnancy leave, she may give her employer notice of both leaves at the same time but not required to.

If the expected date of the leave to begin changes, the employee must provide the employer with written notice of the change at least two (2) weeks prior to the new earlier date.

If the employee does not specify a return date, it is assumed the employee plans to take the full thirty-five (35) or thirty-seven (37) weeks they are entitled to. If the employee chooses not to take the full leave entitlement, the employee must provide the employer with written notice of the expected date of return. If the date changes, the employee must provide written notice at least four (4) weeks before the new date to return to work.

An employer cannot require an employee to return early from parental leave.

37.3 In most cases, the employee who takes pregnancy or parental leave is entitled to the same job the employee had before the leave began or a comparable job if the employee's old job no longer exists. In either case, the employee must be paid at least as much as he or she was earning before the leave. If the employee's pay would have gone up if he or she hadn't been on leave, the employee must be given the higher pay on returning to work.

An employee will not be penalized in any way because the employee took a pregnancy or parental leave, plans to take a pregnancy or parental leave, is eligible to take a pregnancy or parental leave or will become eligible to take a pregnancy or parental leave.

Employees on pregnancy or parental leave have a right to continue to take part in all benefit plans that their employer may offer. The employer will continue to pay premiums for any of these plans that were offered before the leave, unless the employee tells the employer in writing that he or she won't continue to pay his or her own share of the premiums (if any).

The employee will continue to earn credits towards seniority, service and length of employment - just as if he or she had stayed at work.

37.4 The period of a leave isn't included when determining whether an employee has completed a probation period. If an employee was on probation at the start of a leave, he or she must complete the probationary period after returning to work.

ARTICLE 38 - LEAD HAND AND SENIOR LEAD HAND

The Union agrees that during the life of the Agreement there will be no strikes, picketing, slow down or stoppage of work either complete or partial. The Corporation and its officers who are in positions of authority agree that no means prejudicial to the employees or any of them will be exercised and there will be no lockouts of employees.

ARTICLE 43 - REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION OF DRIVER'S LICENCE

In the event that an employee temporarily or permanently, due to culpable reasons, lose or have suspended their driving privileges and/or driver's licence, the employee shall report such suspension or loss to their manager immediately prior to working their next shift and in writing within three (3) working days to the Chief Human Resources Officer. The City will reassign the employee as quickly as possible to a job where a licence is not an essential part of the job. The rate of pay will, if necessary, be adjusted to the type of work undertaken. If there is no work that is reasonably available the employee may be laid off for the duration of the licence suspension. The employee shall be recalled to their previous position upon the expiry of the licence suspension or the reinstatement of their driving privileges.

In the event that an employee temporarily or permanently loses their licence or driving privileges due to medical reasons they shall be accommodated under the "duty to accommodate".

No employee shall be disciplined for the reason of loss of driver's licence, unless such loss of licence or driving privileges occurred with the operation of a City vehicle.

ARTICLE - 44 REHABILITATION, MODIFIED DUTIES AND WORK ACCOMMODATION

Re: Sick Leave Provision and Personal Days

All employees are reminded that the sick leave provision is an income protection plan during times of short term illness or injury. Sick leave is not to be viewed as a supplement for holidays or other non-medical absences.

In an effort to encourage all employees to accurately report their time away from work; employees covered under the collective agreement with CUPE Local 1542 will be granted five (5) Personal Days to be allocated from their sick leave bank under the following provisions:

1. These personal days will be for the purposes of unforeseen family emergencies, family or elder care, medical appointments not able to be made outside work hours;
2. There will be three (3) days for family care leave with reason provided to the Corporation and two (2) personal days with no explanation provided;
3. All requests for personal day use must be made to the Director/Manager or Acting Designate directly and may not be granted by any other employee. Wherever possible advance notice of need would assist in managing workplace requirements;
4. Personal Days are not to be viewed or used as additional vacation;
5. Only in special and rare circumstances may more than one (1) personal day at a time be requested and must have Director/Manager approval;
6. At no time will additional credits be given for unused personal days and no more than five (5) days will be granted;
7. Unused personal days will remain as part of the annual sick bank accrual;

8. Personal days will be recorded as 'PD' on the Time Card in the location where sick time is recorded.

Re: Continuation of Employee Benefits During Strike or Lock Out:

The Union may request in writing during the term of a collective agreement the cost to the City of the benefits under Articles 31.2 and 31.3, following which the City will provide the Union as soon as possible with the premium costs to the City of each of the benefits categorized into single and family coverage.

The parties have agreed to provide each other with at least three (3) working days written notice of any legal strike or legal lock out action. Where the Union has provided the City with at least three (3) working days written notice of any legal strike and the Union undertakes to reimburse the City for the continuation of the benefits set out above, The City shall invoice the Union and accept payment from the Union on a bi-weekly basis in advance of the period to be covered and shall ensure that such benefits are continued as provided for as long as the payment continues.

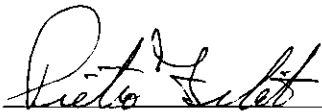

Where the Union serves notice to bargain in accordance with Article 46, this letter of understanding will continue in force and effect in the same manner as the other provisions of the collective agreement.

Any dispute concerning the continuation of benefits during a legal strike or lock out shall be a matter for a policy grievance and may be referred to arbitration. An arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to hear any grievance concerning this Article.
