The provisions of this clause do not apply in the case of pensionable injury. Except as otherwise provided in 11.04, no sick leave shall be paid in cases where the member is eligible for Worker's Compensation.
- 11.05 For all amounts which the Board or the Regional Municipality of Halton, as the case may be, pays pursuant to Article 11.04 of this Agreement, then for such amounts the Board shall be subrogated to all rights or recovery and chooses-in-action to which the member is or is about to become entitled against any person, group or company and may pursue any and all necessary legal remedies in the name of the member to enforce those rights and to effect recovery of such amounts.

LEGAL INDEMNIFICATION

28.01 Subject to the other provisions of this Article, a member charged with and finally acquitted of a criminal or statutory offence, because of acts done in the attempted performance in good faith of the member's duties as a police officer, shall be indemnified for the necessary and reasonable legal costs incurred in the defense of such charge.

28.02 Notwithstanding Clause 28.01, the Board may authorize payment necessary and reasonable legal costs of a member pleading or being found guilty of an offence described in Clause 28.01, where the court, instead of convicting the accused, grants the member an absolute discharge, provided that the Board accepts the recommendation of the Chief of Police, or an officer designated by the Chief of Police to make such a recommendation, that the member's actions as a police officer in the course of performing police duties were motivated by an intent to do lawful duty, that such actions do not constitute any of the actions described in Clause 28.03 hereof, and that such indemnification will not in the opinion of the Board reduce respect for law enforcement in Halton Region.

28.03 Notwithstanding clause 28.01, the Board may refuse payment otherwise authorized under clause 28.01 where the actions of the officer from which the charges arose amounted to a gross dereliction of duty or deliberate abuse of the member's powers as a police officer.

28.04 Where a member is a defendant, in a civil action for the damages because of acts done in the attempted performance in good faith of the member's duties as a police officer the member shall be indemnified for the necessary and reasonable legal costs incurred in the defense of such an action in the following circumstances only:

(a) Where the Chief of Police is not joined in the action as a party and the Chief of Police does not defend the action on behalf of the Chief and of the member as joint tortfeasers at the Board's sole expense.

(b) Where the Chief of Police is joined as a party or elects to defend the action, but the solicitor retained on behalf of the Chief of Police and the member is of the view that it would be improper for the solicitor to act for both the Chief of Police and the member in that action.

28.05 A member whose conduct is called into question in the course of an inquiry under the Coroners Act because of acts done in the attempted performance in good faith of the member's duties as a police officer shall be indemnified for the necessary and reasonable legal costs incurred in representing the member's interests in any such inquest in the following circumstances only:

(a) Where the Chief of Police and/or the Board does not provide counsel to represent the member at the inquest at the Board's expense;

OR:

(b) Where the counsel provided by the Chief of Police or the Board to represent either or both of them along with the member is of the opinion that it would be improper for the counsel to act for both the Chief of Police or the Board and the member in that action.

- 28.06 A member who is subject to a hearing before a Police/Public Complaints Board established under the Provincial Legislation, because of acts done in the attempted performance in good faith of the member's duties as a police officer shall be indemnified for the necessary and reasonable legal costs incurred in respect of that hearing only where the Chief of Police has referred a matter to the Police/Public Complaints Board, or the Police/Public Complaints Commissioner has ordered a hearing before the Police/Public Complaints Board pursuant to the legislation, and the officer is found not guilty of misconduct under the Act by the Police/Public Complaints Board or a panel or member thereof.
- 28.07 Where a member intends to apply to the Board for indemnification hereunder, the member shall, within thirty days of being charged or receiving notice of other legal proceedings covered herein, or receiving notice that the member will not be represented by counsel retained by the Chief of Police and/or the Board, apply in writing to the Chief of Police or to the Officer designated by the Chief of Police to deal with such applications for approval to retain counsel and approval of the counsel to be so retained. In the event of any dispute concerning the counsel to be retained, the matter shall be resolved by an officer designated by the Chief of Police and a member of the Association Executive designated for that purpose.
- 28.08 Where the Chief of Police, pursuant to Board policy, elects to provide legal counsel to defend a member in any legal proceeding covered by this provision, the cost of such counsel is the Board's responsibility irrespective of the outcome of the proceedings and neither the member nor the Board may rely upon the other provisions of this policy.
- 28.09 For greater certainty, members shall not be indemnified for legal costs arising from:
- (a) grievances or complaints under the collective agreement between the Board and the Association or under the Police Services Act;
 - (b) the actions or omissions of members acting in their capacity as private citizens;
 - (c) subject to Article 28.06 AND 28.12, discipline charges under the Police Services Act and regulations thereunder.

28.10 For the purposes of this provision, a member shall not be deemed to be "finally acquitted" if as a result of charges laid the member is subsequently found guilty or, or pleads guilty to, other charges arising out of the same incident or incidents, but nothing in this clause will disentitle the member to consideration under clause 28.02 hereof.

28.11 For the purposes of this provision, "necessary and reasonable legal costs" shall be based on the account rendered by the solicitor performing the work, subject initially to the approval of the Regional Solicitor and, in the case of dispute between the solicitor doing the work and the Regional Solicitor, Assessment on a solicitor and client basis by the Assessment Officer.

28.12 Where a member is the subject of a hearing before a Board of Inquiry established under Part II or VI of the Police Services Act, 1990, as a result of a decision by the Police Complaints Commission pursuant to s.91 of the Act and the decision of the Board of Inquiry is that misconduct was not proved, the member shall be indemnified for any necessary and reasonable legal costs arising directly from the defence of the complaint being heard. This provision does not apply to a hearing pursuant to sections 90 or 92 of the Act, or to a decision which subsequently is altered or reversed by the Ontario Court.

JOB SHARING PROPOSAL

The increasing change in demographic patterns and quality of work life issues will continue to result in many new employment-related challenges. Job sharing is one of these.

Job sharing is defined as a voluntary arrangement between two individuals and their employer to enable the employees to share what are normally the duties of one full-time person.

Job sharing embraces the rationale that employees productivity is not solely a workplace issue. It is also related to how effectively an individual is able to deal with work, family and personal issues outside the workplace. To attract and retain a productive police service, we must utilize new and innovative work and need specific support programs.

Many of our members often find themselves having to chose between the desire to be successful, committed to their families, and productive employees.

Changing employee and employment patterns will continue to result in new personnel related challenges. Job sharing is an innovative and viable means of accommodating growing work and family concerns.

MERITODOLOGY When two (2) existing employees with a need to share one full time permanent job propose to work the equivalent of one full time position, such a proposal will be considered. The two employees shall submit a joint request in writing to the Immediate Supervisor responsible for the position who will take the matter up with the next level(s) of Management./ Each request shall be considered on its own merits and both employees will have the required skills and ability to do the whole job. Time worked shall be shared equally by each job sharer. The onus will be on the applicants to find their own partners for job sharing. Merit increments will apply as per the policy covering part-time continuous service.

CONTINGENCYPLAN If one job sharer terminates this agreement for any reason, the vacancy created will be first posted as a job sharing position provided the remaining job sharer wishes it to continue. The position will be posted as a job sharing position for five (5)days. If no potential candidates are identified within the five (5)day posting period, the job will revert to a full time position. The remaining job sharer will have first option to fill this position on a full time basis. If the remaining job sharer does not wish to fill the position on a full time basis the position will be posted as per Article XXVI.

CONCLUSION

In the past few years there has been a steady increase in organizations that have developed personal and family support initiatives. We hope to recognize the importance of needs orientated support programs as sound human resource management and good business sense. Attracting, retaining and managing human resources is a priority that demands a response in the form of supportive programs and policies.

Through long-term strategic planning supports the concept that investing in human capital is the most effective means of achieving long-term efficiency. Job sharing provides a viable approach that can satisfy personal and professional needs resulting from changing demographics and attitudes.

It will be critical that we continue ,to build on these efforts and chart a course for the future that offer creative solutions.

It must be stressed, that in order for the job sharing process to be successful, supervisors should support not only the concept of job sharing, but also the actual job sharers!
