ARTICLE 1: PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain harmonious relationships between Her Majesty in right of Canada as represented by the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces, hereinafter referred to as the Employer, the Bargaining Agent and the employees and to set forth herein the terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.

1.02 The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve and to promote the well-being of the employees.

ARTICLE 2: RECOGNITION

2.01 The Employer recognizes the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local 175, certified by the Public Service Staff Relations Board on 19 March 1985, as exclusive Bargaining Agent for all employees of the Employer in the Operational Category employed at the Canadian Forces Base at North Bay in Ontario save and except managers/category II employees.

ARTICLE 3: INTERPRETATION AND DEFINITIONS

3.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:

- a. Full-time Employee means an employee who has completed his probationary period and is normally employed for twenty-seven (27) or more hours per week.
- b. Part-time Employee means an employee who has completed his/her probationary period and is normally employed on a continuing basis for more than thirteen and one third (13 1/3) hours and less than twenty-seven (27) hours per week.
- c. Probationary Employee means a new employee who is carrying out the tasks of a full-time or part-time employee but has not been granted full-time or part-time status. The probationary period shall not normally exceed:
 - (1) supervisory: four (4) calendar months;
 - (2) non-supervisory three (3) calendar months..

In circumstances where the Employee has not successfully passed the probationary period, the Employer and the Bargaining Agent may agree to extend the probationary period.

3.02 The terms of this agreement shall apply to and only to full-time and part-time employees except where otherwise specifically stated.

3.03 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3.01 (a), a part-time employee relieving a full-time employee absent due to illness, vacation or any other leave of absence for a period of six (6) months or less will not be considered a full-time employee for the purpose of this agreement. If a part-time employee relieves a full-time employee for a continuous period in excess of six (6) months he/she will become a full-time employee and his/her seniority as a full-time employee will date back to his/her first day so employed.

3.04 Part-time employees shall be paid for the benefits provided for in this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Payment for applicable benefits shall be in the same proportion as their average weekly hours of work, as averaged over the preceding two (2) pay periods relates to the number of hours in the normal work week. If an employee's service is for less than two (2) pay periods the average weekly hours will be calculated on the period of service.

ARTICLE 4: STATE SECURITY

4.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring the Employer to do or refrain from doing anything contrary to any instruction, direction or regulations given or made by or on behalf of the Government of Canada in the interest of the safety or security of Canada or any state allied or associated with Canada.

ARTICLE 5: MANAGERIAL RIGHTS

5.01 The Bargaining Agent recognizes and acknowledges that the Employer has and shall retain the exclusive right and responsibility to manage its operation in all respects including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. To plan, direct and control operations; to determine methods, processes, equipment and other operating matters; to determine the location of facilities and the extent to which these facilities or parts thereof shall operate;
- b. To direct the working forces including the right to decide on the number of employees, to organize and assign work, to schedule shifts and maintain order and efficiency, to discipline employees including suspension and discharge for just cause; and it is expressly understood that all such rights and responsibilities not specifically covered or modified by this Agreement shall remain the exclusive rights and responsibilities of the Employer. Such rights will not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement.

5.02 New NPF employees may be released during their probationary period for cause. The employee shall have access to the second level of the grievance procedure but may not refer a grievance to adjudication.

ARTICLE 6: FUTURE LEGISLATION AND THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

6.01 If any law now in force or enacted during the term of this Agreement renders null and void any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The parties shall thereupon seek to negotiate substitute provisions, which conform with the applicable law.

ARTICLE 7: CHECK-OFF

7.01 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the bi-weekly membership dues established by the Bargaining Agent from the pay of all full-time and part-time employees in the Bargaining Unit. Where an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any bi-weekly period to permit deductions, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deductions from subsequent salary.

7.02 For the purpose of applying Article 7.01, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each bi-weekly period will start with the first bi-weekly payroll period of employment to the extent that earnings are available.

7.03 The Employer agrees to remit dues together with a list of employees from whom deductions have been made to the Union at its mailing address by the fifteenth (15th) day following the end of two consecutive payroll periods, except for mail strikes or other circumstances beyond the Employer's control. The employee list will consist of the employee's full name, employee number, and date of hire. In addition, a separate list will be provided with each remittance of dues detailing new employees, their date of hire and work location. The list will also advise the Bargaining Agent of all employee terminations and the effective date.

7.04 The total Union dues deducted will appear on the T4 forms.

7.05 The Bargaining Agent agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.

ARTICLE 8: APPOINTMENT OF STEWARDS

8.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Bargaining Agent to appoint employees as stewards and alternate stewards. The Bargaining Agent agrees to exclude employees who are serving members of the Canadian Armed Forces and subject to the National Defence Act, Code of Service Discipline from any/all union offices.

8.02 The Employer and the Bargaining Agent shall determine the jurisdiction of each steward, having regard to the plan of organization, the distribution of employees at the work place and the administrative structure implied by the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 9: LEAVE FOR STEWARDS & ACCESS TO PREMISES

- a. The meeting is attended by employees outside their working hours; and 10.01 The Employer agrees to maintain reasonable provisions for the safety of its employees during the hours of employment and to provide an accident prevention program.

10.02 The Employer and the Union agree that Part II of the Canada Labour Code, as amended from time to time, with all rights, functions, powers, privileges and obligations as defined under the Code, shall apply.

12.03 Overtime shall be offered first, to the employees with the most seniority on the shift in the outlet which requires the overtime work, and thereafter in decreasing order of seniority, provided the employee is in the job category for the nature of the work required and is capable of performing the work. - b. If the vacancy is full-time, non-supervisory and cannot be filled from the full-time lay-off list as per Article 13.05 a., it is to be posted in accordance with Article 13.06. - c. If the vacancy cannot be filled in accordance with Article 13.05 a. or b. members of the Bargaining Unit employed in the outlet who applied for the position will be considered. The successful applicant for the position will be selected in accordance with Article 13.06;
- d. If there is no qualified or successful applicant within the outlet the Employer will consider members of the Bargaining Unit who applied for the position. The successful applicant for the position will be selected in accordance with Article 13.06; and
- e. If the Employer determines that there is no qualified or successful applicant within the Bargaining Unit the Employer may hire someone from outside the Bargaining Unit. The Employer determinations in sub-paragraphs b, c and d above are subject to review by the Grievance and Adjudication provisions of the Agreement.

13.06 Vacancies that cannot be filled in accordance with Article 13.05 a. will be posted for a total of five (5) working days. Members of the Bargaining Unit interested in the position may apply, in writing, during this five (5) day period to the responsible officer named in the poster. Applicants will be selected in accordance with the order of precedence outlined in Article 13.05 b., c. and d. The poster shall indicate the job title and description of the job opening, rate of pay, the approximate starting date and the qualifications required. 13.07 Only an employee who applied for a vacancy and was not selected may submit a grievance concerning any determination made by the Employer regarding the filling of the vacancy. The grievance must be submitted within the five (5) working days following the day on which the candidates were advised of the name of the successful candidate.

13.08 Employees selected to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for an initial assessment period. The duration of the assessment period shall not exceed four (4) months for supervisory positions and three (3) months for non-supervisory positions. If, during the assessment period, the Employer determines that the employee has not performed the duties and responsibilities to the satisfaction of the Employer, or should the employee not wish to continue in this position, the employee will be removed from the job and will be reassigned to his former position or to a position equivalent to his former position.

13.09 An employee's seniority will continue to accrue during any period of absence or lay-off.

13.10 Separate seniority lists for full-time and part-time employees shall be provided to the Bargaining Agent annually. The list will be by outlet, one for full-time and one for part-time and will contain employee's full name, job title and seniority date.

13.11 A full-time employee in the outlet shall have preference over a part-time employee provided the full-time employee has the experience, skill, and ability to do the job.

If the Employer determines that the requested vacation will not interfere with the proper operation of the outlet, the request will be approved.

15.11 The vacation schedule shall be posted prior to the vacation period and such vacations will be granted on the basis of seniority by outlet. Employees must submit their request for vacation by April 30 at which time the Employer will finalize, approve and post the vacation schedule. 15.13 Vacation is only earned while an employee is drawing a wage except that authorized periods of leave without pay that do not exceed two weeks may be counted as time earning vacation.

15.14 The vacation leave entitlement of an employee who has completed five (5) years of continuous part-time service at CFB North Bay and whose status is changed from part-time to full-time will be based on the total completed years of employment as a part-time and full-time employee. - c. The following conditions govern the entitlement to sick leave:
- (1) The full-time employee must notify his/her manager of his/her absence prior to his/her regular starting time on the first day of absence or as soon as possible, at which time he/she will indicate the reason for the absence and the expected date of return,
 - (2) A medical certificate signed by a doctor must be provided for each absence in excess of three (3) working days. The Employer reserves the right to require a medical certificate for any period of illness that occurs during the remainder of that calendar year provided that the employee is advised in writing of the requirement beforehand. Prolonged or frequent illness may require additional certificates from another doctor mutually agreed upon, and
 - (3) An employee on maternity leave in accordance with Article 16.02 will not be eligible for coverage under the sick leave plan;
- d. The full-time employee's full benefits are reinstated after a return to work for thirty (30) calendar days for the same disability or for five (5) continuous working days if the disability is for a new cause.

Maternity Leave

- 16.02
- a. The Employer will grant maternity leave without pay to an employee with six (6) months of continuous employment provided that it may require the employee to commence leave at any time following three (3) months after commencement of pregnancy and provided the employee returns to work no later than three (3) months after delivery.
 - b. The employee concerned shall request maternity leave in writing and shall provide the Employer with a certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner confirming the pregnancy and specifying the date upon which the delivery will occur in his opinion.
 - c. The employee is required to give the Employer at least two (2) weeks written notice of her desire to return to work. If the employee fails to give said notice or fails to return to work on the expiry date of the maternity leave she will be considered to have voluntarily terminated her employment.

Leave for Employees with Child Care Responsibilities

16.03 Every employee who has completed six (6) consecutive months of employment with the Employer is entitled to a leave of absence without pay as follows:

- a. When an employee provides her Employer with a certificate of a qualified medical practitioner confirming that she is pregnant, that employee is entitled to and shall be granted a leave of absence from employment of up to seventeen (17) weeks, which leave may commence not earlier than eleven (11) weeks prior to the estimated date of her delivery and end not later than seventeen (17) weeks following the actual day of her delivery.

- b. When an employee has or will have the actual care and custody of a newborn child, that employee is entitled to and shall be granted a leave of absence from employment of up to thirty-five (35) weeks commencing as the employee elects:
 - (1) In the case of a female employee:
 - (a) On the expiration of any leave of absence created for maternity purposes, or
 - (b) On the day the child is born or comes into her actual care and custody.

 - (2) In the case of a male employee:
 - (a) On the expiration of any leave of absence granted to the mother for maternity leave, or
 - (b) On the day the child is born or comes into his actual care and custody.

16.04 The aggregate amount of leave of absence without pay that may be taken by two employees for child care responsibilities will not exceed twenty-four (24) weeks.

16.05 Every employee is to give at least four (4) weeks notice in writing to the Employer of the intent to take leave for employees with child care responsibilities and of any change in length of leave intended to be taken.

16.06 An employee returning from child care responsibilities shall be reinstated into the position occupied at the time the leave commenced, or in a comparable position in the same location, with not less than the same wages and benefits. If during the period of leave, the wages and benefits of the group to which the employee belongs are changed as a result of a reorganization, and/or a renewal of the collective agreement, the employee is entitled upon return from leave to receive the same pay and benefits that the employee would have received had she been working when the reorganization and/or renewal of the collective agreement took place. An employee on leave will be notified in writing if such a change took place.

16.07 Leave granted under this article shall be counted as "service" for purposes of benefits in the agreement. This shall not apply where an employee does not return to work on completion of the leave.

16.08 The employee shall, along with the request for child care responsibilities leave without pay, notify the Employer in writing of the options concerning the pension and group insurance benefits. For these employees taking leave under Article 16.03 a. above the Employer shall continue to pay its share of contributions, for those employees who wish to continue benefits. For those employees taking leave under Article 16.03 b. above arrangements will be made for the employee to make the necessary contributions.

16.09 An employee leaving on maternity leave shall be granted a two-week allowance equal to the benefits the employee would receive pursuant to Section 22 of the Employment Insurance Act, as may be amended from time to time, and for the remaining fifteen (15) weeks of maternity leave shall be granted a top-up allowance equal to the difference between the benefits the employee would receive from Employment Insurance and ninety three (93) percent of their gross pay as averaged over the previous two pay periods, in accordance with the following conditions:

- a. After completion of six (6) months continuous employment, an employee who provides the Employer with proof that she has applied for and is eligible to receive Employment Insurance benefits pursuant to Section 22 of the Employment Insurance Act, as may be amended from time to time, shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the supplementary employment benefit plan;
- b. An employee who receives the allowance shall return to work for a period of ten (10) working days on the date of the expiry of maternity leave, unless the date is modified with the Employer's consent or unless the employee is then entitled to another leave provided for in this agreement; and
- c. Should the employee fail to return to work as per the provisions of Article 16.03 the employee recognizes that she is indebted to the Employer for the full amount of the allowance. The employee is required to give NPF at least two (2) weeks written notice of her desire to return to work. If the employee fails to give said notice or fails to return to work on the expiry date of the maternity leave, she will be considered to have voluntarily terminated her employment. The Employer will communicate with employees' four (4) weeks prior to the expected date of her return to work but that failure to do so does not negate the consequence of the preceding requirements.

Bereavement Leave

- 16.10
- a. An employee will be given leave with pay for four (4) days immediately following the death of a member of his/her immediate family and leave with pay for one (1) day in the case of a distant relative. In addition he/she may be granted up to two (2) days leave with pay for the purpose of necessary travel related to the death.
 - b. For the purpose of this Agreement, immediate family will comprise anyone of the following; brother or sister, mother or father, father-in-law or mother-in law, husband or wife, son or daughter and grandparents, grandson or granddaughter; and distant relatives will be any of the following: brother-in-law or sister-in-law, son-in-law or daughter-in-law and spouse's grandparents.
 - c. Should the periods mentioned above contain one or more non-working days (for example, Sunday or day off), the employee may claim payment only for the actual days of work he/she will have missed.

16.11 In the event an employee is summoned for jury duty, the Employer agrees to make up the difference, if any, between the amount paid him/her for jury services and the amount he/she could have earned had he/she worked on such days. This does not apply if the employee is excused from jury duty for the rest of the day or days and fails to report back to work, or if jury duty occurs on the employee's regular scheduled day off. The employee must promptly notify the Employer that he/she has been summoned for jury duty.

Court Leave with Pay

16.12 In the event an employee is required by subpoena to attend as a witness in any proceeding held:

- a. In or under the authority of a court of justice or before a grand jury;
- b. Before a court, judge, justice, magistrate or coroner;
- c. Before the Senate or House of Commons, or a committee of the Senate or House of Commons, otherwise than in the performance of the duties of his/her position;
- d. Before a legislative council, legislative assembly or House of Assembly, or any committee thereof that is authorized by law to compel the attendance of witnesses before it; or
- e. Before an arbitrator or umpire or a person or body of persons authorized by law to make an inquiry and to compel the attendance of witnesses before it; the Employer agrees to make up the difference, if any, between the amount paid him/her for witness fees and the amount he/she would have earned had he/she worked on the day he/she was to appear as a witness. This does not apply if the employee is excused as a witness for the rest of the day or days and fails to report back to work, or if witness duty occurs on the employee's regular scheduled day off. The employee must promptly notify the Employer that he/she has been summoned as a witness.

Adoption and Birth Leave

- 16.13
- a. An employee shall be granted one (1) day's leave with pay to attend to needs directly related to the adoption or birth of his/her child; and
 - b. At the employee's option such leave shall be granted on the day of or on the day following the adoption/birth.

Leave of Absence Without Pay

16.14 An employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay provided he/she receives permission in advance from the Employer in writing. Such leave of absence will not be unreasonably withheld. Under no circumstances shall any leave of absence be approved for a period in excess of six (6) months. During this period an employee will not be eligible for any of the benefits provided for in this Agreement. Benefits listed at Article 19.02 may be continued at the request of the employee. The employee will be responsible for both the employee and the Employer share of the premiums. The employee shall be restored to his/her former position or to a similar position at the then prevailing wage rate at the expiration of the leave of absence.

16.15 An employee shall be granted a leave of absence to attend union training or education activities, subject to Article 16.14. Where the leave of absence is less than two weeks the Employer shall continue to pay its share of benefit premiums, should the employee elect to continue coverage.

ARTICLE 17: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

17.01 The purpose of any grievance procedure is to maintain good relations between employees and management at all levels. The grievance procedure helps to do this by providing a method of resolving complaints quickly and fairly.

17.02 The grievance procedure provides an informal or oral complaint stage for employees. Managers are available for private consultations with an employee who wishes to discuss a complaint or grievance. Before a formal grievance is presented, the employee is encouraged to discuss it as an oral complaint with the manager concerned, either privately or, if required, in the presence of a steward of the bargaining agent. If the employee is not satisfied with the result of such discussions, a formal grievance may then be presented.

17.03 A three-level grievance procedure is provided to employees. The Employer will post on the bulletin boards in each outlet, the names of the officials designated by the Employer to handle each of the three levels of the Grievance Procedure. The Union to be supplied with copies of said postings.

17.04 Subject to and as provided in Section 91 of the Public Service Staff Relations Act, as may be amended from time to time, an employee who feels that he/she has been treated unjustly or considers himself aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer in matters other than those arising from the classification process is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in Article 17.09 except that,

- a. Where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament to deal with his/her specific complaint, such procedure must be followed, and
- b. Where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, he/she is not entitled to present the grievance unless he/she has the approval of and is represented by the bargaining agent.

17.05 An employee is not entitled to present a grievance relating to any action taken, direction or regulation given or made on behalf of the Government of Canada, respecting matters involving the safety or security of Canada.

17.06 An employee, when submitting a grievance at any level, shall use the NPF Grievance Presentation Form. However, a grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the NPF form or by reason of any technical irregularity. The form is obtainable from NPF Human Resources Office.

17.07 The grievance process applies to employees only, but an employee has the right to be represented by a steward in the grievance procedure at any level and at either, or both, the informal discussion (oral complaint) stage, or when the formal written grievance is being considered.

17.08 At the request of an employee who has presented a grievance, a steward shall have the right to consult with the person designated to reply on management's behalf at any level in the grievance procedure. At levels other than the final level the request for consultation may be made orally.

17.09 An employee wishing to present a grievance shall do so:

- a. At the first level of the grievance procedure where the grievance does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee; and
- b. At the final level of the grievance procedure where the grievance relates to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee.

All levels in the grievance procedure, except the final level, may be by-passed by the mutual consent of the Employer, the employee and, where applicable, a steward.

17.10 A grievance shall be presented by an employee:

- a. Where it does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twentieth (20th) day; and
- b. Where it relates to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day; after the day on which the employee is notified orally or in writing, or where the employee is not so notified, after the day on which the employee became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

17.11 When an employee is not willing to accept the response to a grievance submitted to the first or second level and wishes to submit the grievance to the final level, this must be done within ten (10) days after the date on which the response was conveyed to the employee in writing by the Employer.

17.12 When an employee does not receive a response to the grievance within fifteen (15) days, the employee is entitled to submit the grievance to the next higher level.

17.13 The Employer shall normally reply to an employee's grievance at the first or second level of the grievance process within fifteen (15) days after the grievance is presented, and within twenty-five (25) days where the grievance is presented at the final level.

17.14 The time limits stipulated in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer, the grievor and, where applicable, a steward.

17.15 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken in the grievance procedure, Saturdays, Sundays and designated holidays shall be excluded.

17.16 An employee may abandon a grievance at any stage in the process by written notice to the officer who is designated to receive and to reply on behalf of the Employer at Level One (I) of the grievance process.

17.17 An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless in the opinion of the Employer, it was not possible for the employee to comply with the prescribed time limits.

17.18 Where an employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level with respect to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or a financial penalty, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, he/she may refer the grievance to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Staff Relations Act and Regulations, as may be amended from time to time.

17.19 When a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of him/her of a provision of a Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the Bargaining Agent for the Bargaining Unit to which the Collective Agreement or Arbitral Award applies signifies in a prescribed manner:

- a. Its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication; and
- b. Its willingness to represent the employee in the adjudication proceedings.

Where an employee is promoted to a higher job level he/she shall be placed on the grid commensurate with his/her length of service, to a maximum of 12 months.

18.02 Employees shall not be paid less than the higher of the Federal Minimum Wage or the Ontario Provincial Minimum wage.

18.03 When an employee is appointed in writing by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of a higher classification in the Bargaining Unit for one (1) or more consecutive working days, he/she shall be paid as if he/she had been appointed to that higher classification level for that period from the first (1st) day.

18.04 When an employee is appointed, in writing, by the Employer to temporarily perform the duties of a non-Bargaining Unit (Category II) position for one (1) or more consecutive days, he/she shall be paid in addition to his/her normal rate of pay, a twenty (20) percent increment based upon his/her normal wages for the period from the first (1st) day.

18.05 Payments provided under the provisions of Articles 12 (Overtime), 14 (Designated Holidays) and 11 (Hours of Work) shall not be pyramided; that is, an employee shall not receive more than one (1)

form of compensation for the same service. An employee will be compensated at the highest eligible rate for the service.

ARTICLE 19: CONSULTATION

19.01 The Employer and the Bargaining Agent recognize that consultation and communication on matters of mutual interest outside the terms of the Collective Agreement should promote constructive and harmonious Employer-Bargaining Agent relations.

19.02 It is agreed that the following matters will be the subject of consultation at the National level:

- a. Group Life Insurance
- b. Optional Life Insurance
- c. Group Health Insurance
- d. Long Term Disability Insurance

A union steward will be present at disciplinary hearings unless the employee requests that he does not attend.

20.02 Notice of disciplinary action which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee shall be destroyed after eighteen (18) months has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.

20.03 Since annual performance evaluation reports are not disciplinary documents they are exempt from the provisions of this article. A copy of the annual performance evaluation report shall be supplied to all employees, upon request.

20.04 A detailed job description shall be supplied to all employees at time of hire.

20.05 Upon written request submitted twenty-four (24) hours in advance to Non Public Funds Personnel, an employee will have visual access to his/her own personal file. Access to an employee's personal file will be limited to once (1) per year.
