An insured employee will be eligible for benefits from the first day of absence, due to a non-occupational accident and from the fourth day (first day if hospitalized during the waiting period) where the absence is due to a bona fide sickness. The benefit will be payable for a maximum period of twenty-six weeks.

Effective June 1, 1999, the Company will pay the premium cost of $28,000 of Group Life Insurance underwritten by the Great-West Life Assurance Company for employees who have completed their probationary period and otherwise fulfilled the eligibility requirements of the underwriter. Effective November 1, 1999, the life insurance coverage will increase to $29,000 for active employees. Effective November 1, 2000, the life insurance coverage will increase to $30,000 for active employees. Note exception: Current members of the Office Bargaining Unit (June 30/86) will have their Group Life coverage (and AD+D) frozen at the present levels and premiums.

The Company agrees to pay the premium cost of the present Major Medical Plan (excluding drugs) $25/$50 deductible and a Prescription Drug Plan with a deductible of $10 for the insured employee and $10 for his dependents. Effective the month following ratification: the booklet will be altered to read: Maximum: $25,000 per Covered Person in a period of three (3) consecutive Calendar Years.

Vision Care: Effective June 1, 1999, the Vision Care benefit will increase to $110.00 every 2 years per covered person. Effective November 1, 2000, the Vision Care benefit will increase to $125.00 every 2 years per covered person.

The Company will pay the premium cost of a Dental Insurance Plan for employees who have completed their probationary period and otherwise qualify and for their eligible dependents. Such dental plan will provide benefits equivalent to the basic Blue Cross Plan #7. Effective June 1, 1999, benefits will be paid on the basis of the 1997 Ontario Dental Association schedule. Effective November 1, 1999, the 1998 O.D.A. Schedule will apply. Effective November 1, 2000 the 1999 O.D.A. Schedule will apply.

The Company will pay the premium cost of a Long Term Disability Insurance Plan for eligible employees who have completed the probationary period. The disability benefit under the plan shall be 55% of basic earnings, excluding overtime or other premium to a maximum of $1,400 per month effective November 1, 1991, increased to $1,500 per month effective April 1, 1997.

No benefits are payable for the first twenty-six weeks of disability or the period of time during which disability benefits are payable under the Unemployment Insurance Act. Canada Pension Plan and other legislated benefits shall be integrated with the long term disability benefit.

It is understood that payment of these insurance premiums by the Company is in lieu of any employee entitlement to future premium reduction under the Unemployment Insurance Act.

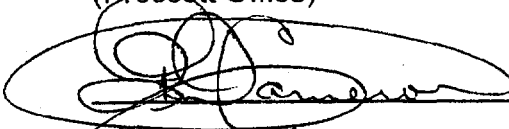

The Company will pay the premium for the semi-private hospital plan for eligible employees and their eligible dependents. Effective July 1, 1997, the maximum daily benefit of this plan is $110.00.

It is understood that payment by the Company of group life, hospital, medical-surgical, major medical, drug, dental and weekly benefits insurance premiums, as above described, is conditional upon the employee performing work for the Company during the month in which the premiums fall due. It is understood that in cases of bona-fide sickness or accident, premiums will be paid for three months beyond the month in which the employee last worked, except where the law requires otherwise (i.e. Workers' Compensation).

The Company may elect, at some future date, to transfer the underwriting and/or administration of one or more of these benefit plans to another carrier with the understanding that in this event, the benefits that will be provided by the new carrier will be similar or substantially similar to those in effect at this date.
