9.01.04 In determining any grievance arising out of a claim of discharge or other discipline, the Arbitration Board may dispose of the claim affirming the Employer's actions and dismissing the grievance; by setting aside the disciplinary action involved and restoring the grievor to his/her former position, with or without compensation; by substituting a lesser or different penalty for the discharge or discipline; or in such other manner as may, in the opinion of the Arbitration Board, be justified and equitable.

ARTICLE 10 - SENIORITY

10.01 Definition

10.01.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer as a permanent employee in a position within this Bargaining Unit, except that an employee shall continue to accrue seniority within the Bargaining Unit, while assigned to a position outside the Bargaining Unit, for a maximum of six (6) months.

10.01.02 Notwithstanding Article 10.01.01, for the purpose of calculating seniority in the bargaining unit, seniority shall include temporary service provided the temporary service was continuous and unbroken prior to the employee becoming a permanent employee.

Employment as a Membership Development Trainee as defined in clause 2.03 (c) shall not be included in any calculation of seniority.

10.01.03 Notwithstanding the above, former members of the Bargaining Unit, demoted back into the Bargaining Unit in accordance with Article 11.01.07 shall count their continuous service in a position outside the Bargaining Unit as if it were seniority earned within the Bargaining Unit.

10.01.04 When a permanent full-time employee's status is changed to permanent part-time, seniority shall be carried over on the basis of one (1) year of seniority being equal to eighteen hundred and twenty (1820) hours of work.

10.02 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service as a permanent employee commenced, plus accrued seniority. Up-to-date seniority lists shall be sent to the Union on June 30th and December 31st of each year.

10.03 Probationary Employees

Newly hired employees shall be considered on probation for a period of five (5) months for all permanent full-time employees, and one hundred (100) days worked for all permanent part-time employees, from the date of hire. During the probationary period, employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The employment of such employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment as a permanent full-time employee or as a permanent part-time employee.

The probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties. The extension of the probationary period may not exceed four (4) months, in the case of permanent full-time employees, or eighty (80) days worked, in the case of permanent part-time employees, beyond the original probationary period.

Loss of Seniority

- (a) If an employee is absent from work because of sickness, long-term disability, or accident, he or she shall not lose seniority rights and shall continue to accumulate seniority.
- (b) If an employee is absent from work because of layoff or leave-of-absence, he or she shall not lose seniority rights, but shall not continue to accumulate seniority.
- (c) An employee shall lose all seniority and his/her employment shall be deemed to have been terminated if:
 - (i) he or she is absent from work without leave or authorization for a period of ten (10) working days, except for reasons acceptable to the Employer;
 - (ii) he or she is discharged for just cause and is not reinstated through the grievance procedure;
 - (iii) he or she resigns;
 - (iv) he or she fails to return to work within five (5) working days following layoff and after being notified by registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of his or her current address;
 - (v) he or she is laid off for a period longer than eighteen (18) months.

Retention of Rights and Privileges

Should the Employer merge, amalgamate or combine any of its operations or functions with another organization, the Employer, through whatever merger agreement involved, agrees that all benefits and conditions of employment enjoyed by the employees shall not be adversely affected.

ARTICLE 11 - PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

11.01 Posting of Positions/Vacancies

- 11.01.01 When a permanent vacancy occurs, or a new position is created, the Employer shall post notice of the position in the Employer's head office and regional offices, for at least ten (10) working days, so that all employees will know about the full time vacancy or new position.
- 11.01.02 The Union agrees that the Employer may exercise its sole and absolute discretion concerning any temporary vacancies, subject to the provisions of Article 2, 14, and 16 of this Agreement.
- 11.01.03 The Employer may exercise its sole and absolute discretion concerning any vacancies created as a result of a temporary vacancy assignment.
- 11.01.04 Except where the Employer has decided to leave a position vacant and has not assigned any person to perform the duties normally associated with that position, all new positions and all permanent vacancies shall be posted within two (2) months of the position becoming vacant or the new position being created.

- 11.01.07 The Employer has the right to demote a permanent employee from outside the Bargaining Unit into a new position and shall not be required to post the new position. The Union will be advised in advance of any new position to be so filled.

11.01.08 When permanent employees are assigned to acting positions outside the Bargaining Unit for purposes other than replacing an employee who is on leave of absence, the resulting home position vacancy must be posted as a permanent vacancy after six (6) months, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

11.02 Method of Filling Positions/Vacancies

11.02.01 Those bargaining unit employees with more than two (2) years of service in the Bargaining Unit shall receive first consideration, before anyone else inside or outside the bargaining unit is considered for all posted positions/vacancies, except that current employees, covered under another Appendix, who are applying for promotions to positions covered by Appendix A, will be considered at the same time as OPSEU members applying for Appendix A positions.

11.02.02 Where all other factors are relatively equal, appointment shall be made of the applicant with the greatest seniority.

11.02.03 The Employer need not consider any employee applying for a permanent position until they have completed twenty-four (24) consecutive months of service in their current position.

11.02.04 All positions are to be filled within four (4) months of the posting except where the Employer has notified the Union that it is considering the elimination of a position, or where no suitable candidate has been found, or where circumstances beyond the Employer's control make it impossible to fill within four (4) months, in which case it shall be filled as soon as reasonably possible.

For the purposes of this Article " filled " is satisfied by a confirmed offer of acceptance of the position.

11.03 Promotions

If in filling a vacancy a promotion results, an employee shall receive that rate of pay in the salary range of the new classification which is the next higher to his/her present rate of pay, and which provides for at least one full increment.

11.04 Trial Period

11.04.01 In the event the successful applicant is unable to perform the requirements of the position in a satisfactory manner, within a period not exceeding three (3) months from date of the appointment; he or she shall be returned to his or her former position without loss of seniority, and his or her salary will be adjusted to the appropriate step in his or her former position.

11.04.02 Any other employee, promoted or transferred as a result of another employee returning to his/her former position during the trial period, shall also be returned to his or her former position without loss of seniority, and his or her salary will be adjusted to the appropriate increment in his or her former position.

11.04.03 In the event of satisfactory performance, the employee may return to the former position, upon the mutual consent of the employee and the Employer.

11.05 Temporary Employees

11.05.01 A record will be kept of the number of hours worked by temporary employees.

11.05.02 Temporary employees at head office may compete for permanent positions on the same basis as OPSEU members provided they are in the active employ of the Employer and have worked 910 regular hours, exclusive of overtime, in the past 28 weeks.

Temporary employees at head office who have a break in service of more than 3 weeks will have their accumulated hours returned to zero.

The effective date for determining the accumulation of hours of temporary employees at regional offices will be January 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 12 - LAYOFF AND RECALL PROCEDURE

12.01 Both Parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service. If there is to be a reduction of the number of personnel within the Bargaining Unit, the Employer will give the Union as much advance notice as possible, and discussion will begin to determine what should be done with those employees whose positions become redundant. Employees working in the same job category, i.e., Professional/Technical, Support or Services Staff shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority in that category. No one shall be laid off provided he or she has the qualifications and ability to perform the job of a less senior person working in the same job category.

Employees shall be recalled to work in the order of their seniority. No new employees in the same job category will be hired until those laid off in that job category have been given the opportunity of employment.

During the year of leave, seniority shall accumulate for the entire period of the leave.

For purposes of this Clause, the C.P.I. shall mean the Canada-wide Consumer Price Index, all items, September to September.

In addition, all retirees or survivors shall have their benefit adjustments as described above topped up each year on an ad hoc basis for the life of this Agreement, to a maximum of the increase in the CPI minus one percent (1%) to a cap of eight percent (8%), provided the Pension Fund has sufficient surplus, as determined by the actuary.

The Employer shall be responsible for the coverage for this portion of the Plan. These days cannot be banked, and are intended as insurance against income loss due to the employee's illness only.

23.01.02 Employees shall have the next eighty-four (84) working days of illness, in a calendar year, covered by the Short Term Income Protection Plan, at seventy-five percent (75%) of daily earnings.

When an employee commences sick leave in one calendar year, and continues into the next calendar year, the employee is not entitled to more than ninety (90) working days in the two years, until the employee has returned to work for twenty (20) consecutive working days.

When an employee has used ninety (90) working days sick leave in a calendar year, the employee must complete twenty (20) consecutive working days before being entitled to further sick leave days, in the next calendar year.

Where an employee requires additional days in a calendar year for uninterrupted coverage prior to commencing LTD, the employee shall be paid at seventy-five percent (75%) of daily wages.

23.02.07 Transfer of Sick Leave Credits

The Parties agree that an employee may, by indicating in writing, have sick days accumulated in his/her name, transferred to the credit of any other employee. Such transfers of sick days will be made by determining the prorated daily rate of the transferring employee, and dividing that value by the prorated daily rate of the benefitting employee. This dividend shall then be rounded to the nearest decimal five (0.5), and this shall be the number of sick days added to the benefitting employee's credit.

No disability pensions will be paid under the retirement pension plan; but normal retirement benefits shall continue to accrue based on the employee's earnings immediately prior to disability; and all further pension contributions shall be paid by the Employer, for disabled employees in receipt of insured long-term disability benefits. This will not affect the total of disability benefits payable to a disabled employee prior to age sixty-five (65), but will increase the retirement pension payable to the employees after age sixty-five (65) years.

24.04 The benefits payable to an eligible employee, under the Long Term Disability Plan, shall be subject to the provisions and limitations set out in the contract between the Employer and the insurance carrier.

24.05 The Employer shall pay all welfare premiums while the employee is on LTDIP, i.e. Medical, Dental, Hospital coverage, group life insurance, and pension plan.

During the period preceding the commencement of LTDIP benefits, and after the exhaustion of all other credits, the Employer will pay the cost of group insurance plans and pension coverage.

24.06 LTDIP benefits will be payable for the first two years following Commencement of regular payments, if an employee is unable to perform his/her regular job. After two years, LTDIP benefits will continue as long as the disability prevents an employee from performing any job for which he/she is reasonably suited, by way of education, training or experience, but not beyond his/her sixty-fifth (65th) birthday.

When an employee who was on LTDIP is able to return, the Employer recognizes its obligation to provide the returning employee with work.

The Employer agrees to place the employee in his/her former position, and at the same work location, except as provided below:

- (a) The former position no longer exists. The Employer will then place the employee in an equivalent vacant position; or
