- 2.07 A relief or casual Employee is an Employee hired to work on a relief or replacement basis as the need arises.

ARTICLE 3 - RELATIONSHIP

- 3.01 The Employer agrees that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, upgrading, promotion, transfer, layoff, recall, discipline, classification, discharge or otherwise by reason of age, race, creed, colour, ancestry, national origin, political or religious affiliation, sex or marital or parental status, sexual orientation, family relationship, place of residence, disability, nor by reason of his/her membership or activity in the union, or any other reason.

Such interview shall take place on the premises of the Home normally during the two (2) day orientation program provided by the Employer and within the Employee=s probationary period and shall not exceed twenty (20) minutes in duration.
- 3.06 All correspondence between the parties arising out of this Agreement, or incidental thereto, shall pass between the Executive Director of the Home or his/her delegate and the Secretary of the Union or his/her delegate.

ARTICLE 4 - WORK OF THE BARGAINING UNIT

4.01 Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit, that would result in a lay-off of Employees in the bargaining unit.

4.02 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of an authorized representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. If such representative(s) require access to the Employer=s premises, such access shall be on the approval of the Executive Director or his/her delegate.

ARTICLE 6 - MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS

6.01 The Union recognizes that the management of the Home and the direction of the working forces are fixed exclusively in the Employer and shall remain solely with the Employer except as specifically limited by the provisions of this Agreement and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:

- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;

- (e) make, enforce, and alter from time to time reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the Employees, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

6.02 Management rights as set out in this agreement must be exercised fairly without discrimination and in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - UNION SECURITY

- 7.01 The Employer agrees to deduct bi-weekly as Union dues an amount indicated by the Union from the regular pay of those Employees commencing in the second (2nd) month of employment. Deductions shall be forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer not later than the fifteenth (15th) of the following month, accompanied by a list of names of the Employees, indicating the amount deducted from each individual. When T-4 slips are issued each year, the total of Union dues paid annually will be indicated.
- 7.02 The Union shall hold the Employer harmless with respect to all dues so deducted and remitted and with respect to any liability which the Employer might incur as a result of such deduction and remittance.
- 7.03 Any Employee covered by this Agreement, who was in the employ of the Employer prior to the Canadian Union of Public Employees being certified as the collective bargaining agent for the Employees, may become a member of the Union, if she wishes to do so. All present members must remain members in good standing and all future Employees must become and remain members in good standing within the probationary period.

ARTICLE 8 - UNION REPRESENTATION

8.01 A Bargaining Committee of the Union will be appointed and will consist of not more than four (4) Employees of the Employer, one (1) of whom shall be a part-time Employee. The Union will advise the employer of the names of such Committee members and the effective dates of appointments. The purpose of this Committee shall be to negotiate issues in renewal of collective agreements with the Employer and in all such meetings with the Employer up to but not including conciliation and arbitration, time spent absent from regular duties for these four (4) Employees only, shall be without loss of remuneration.

8.02 It is agreed that the Union may appoint seven (7) Employees to be Stewards from each of the following areas:

Three (3) Stewards for nursing, one (1) of whom shall be part-time;

One (1) Steward for housekeeping and laundry;

One (1) Steward for maintenance;

Two (2) Stewards for nutritional services.

The Chief Steward shall serve as the Steward in her assigned area.

The Stewards shall not leave their regular duties in connection with the servicing of a grievance hereunder until the Steward has first secured permission from her immediate supervisor. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Employee shall state her destination to her immediate Supervisor and shall report again to her immediate Supervisor at the time of her return to work. The Stewards shall suffer no loss of pay while involved in the grievance procedure during their normal working hours.

8.03 The Union shall keep the Employer advised in writing of the names of the Stewards.

8.04 A Labour-Management Committee shall be established consisting of three (3) representatives of the Union and three (3) representatives of the Employer. Both parties shall submit to each other a list of their respective committee members and inform each other of any changes in representatives. The function of the Committee shall be to promote and to provide effective and meaningful communication of information and ideas and to make recommendations on matters of mutual concern. Matters may be referred to the Committee by the Union and the Employer. A written agenda will be submitted by the party requesting the meeting to the other party at least three (3) days prior to the meeting. The Committee shall meet at mutually satisfactory times as the need arises. No Committee member shall suffer loss of pay for attending such meetings.

The Labour-Management Committee shall not have the jurisdiction to consider matters that are properly the subject of a grievance or negotiations for the amendment or renewal of this Agreement. Minutes of each meeting of this Committee shall be prepared and signed by the Joint Chairpersons as promptly as possible after the close of the meeting and distributed to all members of the Committee.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.01 A grievance may arise only from a dispute concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement.

9.02 Complaint Stage

It is the mutual desire of the parties that all complaints and grievances shall be attended to and settled as quickly as possible. It is understood that employees, with the assistance of the Local Union President, if so desired, may present an oral complaint at any time to their immediate supervisor without resorting to the grievance procedure. The Employer shall provide, if requested, any documents/information that would expedite the settlement of an alleged complaint.

9.03 It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of Employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an Employee has no grievance until she has first given her immediate Supervisor an opportunity to adjust her complaint. If an Employee has a complaint, she shall discuss it with her immediate Supervisor within eight (8) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have originated or occurred and, failing settlement, it may then be taken up as a grievance, as defined above, within five (5) working days following receipt of the immediate Supervisor's decision in the following manner and sequence:

Step # 1

The Employee, together with her Steward, may present her alleged grievance to her immediate Supervisor. The grievance shall be in writing and shall include the nature of the grievance and the remedy sought. The Supervisor shall deliver her decision in writing within five (5) working days following the presentation of the grievance to her; failing settlement and within five (5) working days after the decision is given.

Step # 2

The Employee, together with her Steward, may present her alleged grievance in writing to the Department Head. The Department Head shall deliver her decision in writing within five (5) working days following the presentation of the grievance to her. Failing settlement and within five (5) working days after the decision is given;

(Note: If the Supervisor and Department Head are the same person, Step 2 is redundant, and the grievance will proceed from Step 1 to Step 3.)

Step # 3

The Employee, together with her Steward, may present her alleged grievance in writing to the Executive Director. A meeting will be held within five (5) working days between the Executive Director or her designate and the griever, Steward, and Chief Steward. A Service Representative of the Union may be present at the request of either the Employer or the Union. The decision of the Executive Director or her designate shall be delivered in writing within seven (7) working days. It is understood that the Executive Director or her designate shall have such counsel and assistance as she may desire at such meeting with the Union.

9.04 Failing a settlement under Step #3 of any difference between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, such difference may be taken to arbitration as provided in Article 10 and, if no written request for arbitration is received within ten (10) full working days after the decision in Step #3 is given, it shall be deemed to have been settled.

9.05 Policy Grievance: Any complaint or grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be originated under Step #3 within fourteen (14) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have originated or occurred. The grievance must be in writing and must be signed by the Chief Steward or her delegate. However, it is expressly understood that the provisions of this paragraph may not be used to institute a complaint or grievance directly affecting an Employee or Employees which such Employee or Employees could themselves institute and the regular Grievance Procedure shall not be thereby by-passed.

9.06 Group Grievance: Where a number of Employees have identical grievances and each Employee would be entitled to grieve separately, they may present a group grievance in writing identifying each Employee who is grieving to his/her supervisor within fourteen (14) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or might reasonably be expected to have come to the attention of the Employees. The grievance shall then be treated as being initiated at Step No. 2 and the applicable provisions of this Article shall then apply with respect to the processing of such grievance.

9.07 A claim by an Employee who has completed her probationary period that she has been unjustly discharged shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Employer at Step #3 within five (5) working days after the discharge is effected. Such special grievance may be settled under the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure by:

- (a) confirming the Employer's action in dismissing the Employee;
- (b) reinstating the Employee without loss of seniority and with full compensation; or
- (c) by any other arrangement which may be deemed just by the conferring parties.

9.08 No adjustment effected under the Grievance Procedure shall be made retroactive prior to the date the grievance was formally discussed or presented to the Employer under the Grievance Procedure save and except bookkeeping errors involving pay.

9.09 In all steps of the Grievance Procedure, where no written answer has been given within the time specified, the Employee(s) concerned, the Union or the Employer, as the case may be, shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next step of the Grievance Procedure.

9.10 Throughout these proceedings, including arbitration, the Union Grievance Committee and/or the grievor may review any relevant information contained in her personal files which the Employer may introduce at any step of these procedures; if requested, the Employer shall provide copies of all such documents relating to the case to the Union Grievance Committee and/or the grievor.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

- 10.01 When either party requests that any matter be submitted to arbitration as hereinbefore provided, it shall make such request in writing, by registered mail, addressed to the other party to this Agreement and at the same time nominate an Arbitrator; provided, however, that if such party fails to nominate an Arbitrator as herein required, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have power to effect such appointment upon application thereto by the party involving Arbitration Procedure. The two (2) arbitrators so nominated shall attempt to select by agreement a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board. If they are unable to agree upon such a Chairperson within a period of five (5) working days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint an impartial Chairperson.
- 10.02 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 10.03 The Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 10.04 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties hereto, and the decision of the majority or, where there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the Employee or Employees concerned.
- 10.05 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expense of the Arbitrator appointed by it, and the parties will jointly bear the expenses, if any, of the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.
- 10.06 The time limits fixed in both the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Working days shall mean Monday to Friday exclusive of statutory holidays. No grievance shall be defeated or denied by any formal or technical objection. An arbitrator shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision which he/she deems just and equitable.

- 10.07 Where the Arbitration Board determines that a disciplinary penalty is excessive, it may substitute such other penalty for the discipline or discharge as it considers just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- 10.08 Whenever Arbitration Board is referred to in the Agreement, the parties may agree to substitute a single arbitrator, as set out in the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

- 11.01 a) Newly hired full-time Employees shall be on probation for a period of three (3) months from the date of hiring. This probationary period may be extended if mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union. During the probationary period, Employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The employment of such Employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure. If retained after the probationary period, the Employees seniority shall be dated as of the last hire; thereafter, seniority shall accrue as set out in this Agreement.
- 2) Part-time Employees shall be on probation for a period of four hundred and sixty (460) working hours from the date of hire. The probationary period may be extended if mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union. During the probationary period, Employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The employment of such Employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance procedure. If retained after the probationary period, seniority shall accrue based on hours worked. One (1) year of service shall equate to 1,650 hours worked.
- 11.02 Seniority for full-time Employees is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit and shall include all service with the Employer since date of last hire including service prior to certification of the Union.
- 11.03 A seniority list shall be established for all full-time and part-time Employees covered by this Agreement who have completed their probationary period. A copy of the seniority list, which shall include all Employees' current addresses, will be filed with the Union after the execution of this Agreement and a revised list will be supplied in February and August of each year. In addition, at the time of any layoff the Union, upon request, will be given a copy of a revised seniority list updated to notice of layoff. The posted seniority list shall not include Employees' addresses. An Employee may elect in writing to have his/her address withheld. A copy of this note shall be given to the Union.

11.04 Seniority rights and an Employee's employment shall be deemed to have terminated if she:

- (a) leaves of her own accord;
- (b) is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance and arbitration procedure;
- (c) is laid off for a period of more than twenty-four (24) months;
- (d) is absent from work without permission for three (3) consecutive working days unless a satisfactory reason is given by the Employee;
- (e) fails to return to work upon termination of an authorized leave of absence or utilizes a leave of absence for purposes other than those for which the leave of absence was granted, unless prior approval has been obtained, or a satisfactory reason is given by the Employee;
- (f) fails to return to work after being recalled from layoff by notice sent by registered mail at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective recall date. Working days in this case shall be Monday to Friday, excluding any statutory holidays.
- (g) is absent from work due to disability, which absence continues more than twelve (12) months and which period is extended automatically for another twelve (12) months, unless mutually agreed otherwise.

11.05 It shall be the duty of the Employee to notify the Employer promptly of any change in address. If an Employee fails to do this, the Employer will not be responsible for failure of a notice sent by registered mail to reach such Employee.

11.06 Seniority Accumulation During Leave of Absence

A full-time Employee shall continue to accumulate seniority during any approved leave of absence not exceeding thirty (30) consecutive working days. Should the leave of absence exceed thirty (30) consecutive working days, she shall retain seniority attained to the date the absence began but will not accumulate any further seniority during the absence.

ARTICLE 12 - PROMOTION AND TRANSFER

12.01 In cases of promotion or transfers within the bargaining unit, the applicant with the greatest seniority shall be appointed provided she meets the essential requirements of the job.

12.02 No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without his/her consent. Effective at the time of such transfer, the Employee shall lose all bargaining unit seniority. In the event that the Employee is returned to the bargaining unit within a one (1) year period, all seniority held at the time of transfer out of the bargaining unit shall be reinstated.

- 12.03 (a) In the case of all permanent vacancies or new positions in the bargaining unit, including all temporary vacancies of three months or greater, the Employer will post such vacancies and new positions for a period of seven (7) days so that interested Employees may apply. During the trial period, an Employee in a temporary position may be denied a transfer to a new temporary position if the new temporary position does not provide for increased wages or job security.
- (b) The job posting notice shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift (if applicable), wage or salary rate or range.
- (c) The successful candidate will be given a trial period not exceeding forty-five (45) shifts in the new position. Should the Employee fulfill the requirements of the new position to the satisfaction of the Employer, she shall be declared permanent in the new position. If the Employee fails to meet the requirements of the new position or if the Employee requests to be returned to her former position at any time before she is declared permanent in the new position, she shall be returned to her former position and wage rate.
- (d) Within seven (7) calendar days of the date of appointment to a vacant position, the name of the successful applicant shall be posted on a bulletin board so designated for such purpose.

- (e) The position of an Employee appointed to fill a permanent vacancy described in (a) above would remain as a temporary vacancy until the successful candidate for the first vacant position has been declared permanent in her new position as described in (c) above. The temporary vacancy then becomes a permanent vacancy and (a), (c) and (d) would then apply.

12.04 When a new classification (which is covered by the terms of this Collective Agreement) is established by the Employer, the Employer shall determine the rate of pay for such new classification and notify the Local Union of the same. If the Local Union challenges the rate, it shall have the right to request a meeting with the Employer to endeavour to negotiate a mutually satisfactory rate. Such request will be made within ten (10) days after the receipt of notice from the Employer of such new occupational classification and rate. Any change mutually agreed upon resulting from such meeting shall be retroactive to the date that notice of the new rate was given by the Employer. If the parties are unable to agree, the dispute concerning the new rate may be submitted to arbitration as provided in the Agreement within fifteen (15) days of such meeting. The decision of the Board of Arbitration (or Arbitrator) shall be based on the relationship established by comparison with the rates for other classifications in the bargaining unit, having regard to the requirements of such classification.

12.05 For purposes of application of seniority under this Agreement but not for purposes of service, benefits or pay (save as expressly provided in this Agreement):

- (a) An Employee whose status is changed from part-time to full-time will receive a seniority position on the basis of 1,650 hours worked equals one (1) year.
- (b) An Employee whose status is changed from full-time to part-time shall transfer her full seniority to the part-time position and will continue to accumulate seniority in accordance with Article 11.01 b).

12.06 An Employee may make a written request indicating her interest in working elsewhere in the Home, and her application shall be considered when a permanent vacancy occurs. The request will be valid for a period of six(6)months.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 13.01 a) For full-time Employees layoff shall mean the discontinuation or reduction in hours of a full-time position(s).
- b) For regular part-time Employees layoff shall mean the discontinuation of a part-time position(s).
- 13.02 a) In the event of a layoff, Employees will be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority provided that the Employees retained meet the essential requirements of the job. Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority provided they meet the essential requirements of the job.
- b) Employees on layoff shall be given preference for temporary vacancies which are expected to exceed ten (10) working days. An employee who has been recalled to such temporary vacancy shall not be required to accept such recall and may instead remain on layoff.
- c) For the operation of 13.02 b), temporary vacancy shall be defined as sick leave, vacation, leave of absence or any other paid or unpaid leave.
- 13.03 A Layoff Committee shall be established consisting of three (3) representatives of the Union and up to three (3) representatives of the Employer. The union representation shall consist of the President, Chief Steward and the National Staff Representative. In the event of a proposed layoff the Layoff Committee shall meet to review the following:
- i) the reason causing the layoff;
 - ii) the service the Employer will undertake after the layoff;
 - iii) the method of implementation including the areas of cut-back and employees to be laid off;
 - iv) to review the reasons and expected duration of any bed cutback or cutback in service, any realignment of service or staff and its effect on employees in the bargaining unit;
 - v) workload.
- 13.04 In the event of a proposed layoff of a permanent or long-term nature, the Employer shall give at least sixty

(60) days' notice of layoff for Employees who will be laid off, unless the Employees are entitled to more notice under the Employment Standards Act, in which case they will receive the notice provided for under the Act. Where an Employee is laid off contrary to this Article, the Employer shall pay the Employee termination pay at the Employee's regular straight time hourly rate of pay for the period of notice that ought to have been given. The Employer shall not be required to give notice or pay in lieu thereof in the event of a disaster, such as a fire, flood, act of God or epidemic.

13.05 An Employee in receipt of notice of layoff pursuant to Article 13.04 may:

- (a) accept the layoff, or
- (b) displace another Employee who has lesser bargaining unit seniority in the same, or a lower, or an identical paying classification in the bargaining unit, provided the Employee originally subject to layoff has the ability to meet the normal requirements of the job. An Employee so displaced shall be deemed to have been laid off and shall be subject to notice in accordance with Article 13.04. An Employee who chooses to exercise the right to displace another Employee with lesser seniority shall advise the Employer of his/her intention to do so and of the position claimed within seven(7) days after receiving the notice of lay off.

ARTICLE 14 - HOURS OF WORK

- 14.01 (a) The standard work week for full-time Employees shall consist of an average of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) hours per week over the period scheduled by the Employer, provided however, that this does not constitute a guarantee as to hours of work per day or as to days of work per week or as a guarantee of working schedules.
- (b) The Employer agrees to consider the needs of both the staff and the residents in setting shift schedules.
- 14.02 (a) Authorized work performed in excess of seven and one-half (7½) hours per day or over the averaged thirty-seven and one-half (37½) hour week shall be paid for at the overtime rate outlined in 14.02 (b) below.
- (b) The overtime rate shall be time and one-half (1½) the Employee's straight time hourly rate.
- 14.03 Overtime premium will not be duplicated nor pyramided nor shall other premiums be duplicated or pyramided nor shall the same hours worked be counted as part of the normal week and also as hours for which the overtime premium is paid.
- 14.04 Employees who work overtime will not be required to take time off in regular hours to make up for overtime worked. Time off at time and one-half (1½) may be granted at a mutually agreeable time in lieu of overtime payment.
- 14.05 The Employer agrees to grant a fifteen (15) minute rest period during each half (½) shift at a time to be designated by the immediate Supervisor.
- 14.06 It is understood that the amount of regular pay for a full normal shift worked shall not be affected by reason of the change in the number of normal hours worked in consequence of such change from Daylight Saving Time to Standard Time and vice versa.
- 14.07 An Employee who reports for work on her regularly scheduled shift and for whom regular work is not available shall be provided with four (4) hours work at four (4) hours pay in lieu thereof at her regular straight time hourly rate unless she was notified prior to the commencement of the shift not to report.

- 14.08 An Employee required to work three (3) or more hours overtime following the completion of her regular shift shall be provided with a meal or an allowance of three dollars ($3.00) by the Employer.
- 14.09 (a) Where the Employer temporarily assigns an Employee to carry out the responsibilities of a lower paid position, the Employee shall retain her higher rate of pay.
- (b) Where the Employer temporarily assigns an Employee to carry out the responsibilities of a Supervisor, she shall receive an allowance of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for each shift assigned.

ARTICLE 15 - SCHEDULING

- 15.01 (a) i) The Employer agrees that every full-time Employee shall have every second weekend off.
- ii) The Employer agrees that every part-time Employee shall have every second weekend off if they so desire.
- (b) Employees will not be required to work more than seven (7) consecutive days.
- (c) There shall be no split shifts without the consent of the Employee.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT

Re: Article 15.03 - Holidays

The Union and the Home agree to waive the requirement that a day granted in lieu of work performed on a holiday be taken within thirty (30) days on which the holiday was observed.

It is understood that Employees shall not be permitted to carry forward days banked in lieu of a holiday to a subsequent calendar year unless written permission is granted by the Employer.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

In the event that an employee is called in to work an unfilled scheduled shift, such employees, who are within the classification of needed replacement and have advised the employer that they are available shall be offered the shift on a seniority basis.

For the purpose of this letter NA's and HCA's shall be deemed to be the same classification.

When an employee is called and is not home or unavailable to answer the call, that employee shall be deemed to have refused the offer of the shift and the employer shall go to the next most senior available person.

Short Shift employees shall be considered for the full shift only after the availability list of employees not scheduled to work on the day has been exhausted.

If unable to replace from within the classification the employer, at its discretion may fill the shift with other qualified staff who are within the bargaining unit.

This Letter of Understanding shall form part of the Collective Agreement and, therefore, is arbitral.

Both parties agree to discuss this Letter during the term of the Collective Agreement and any changes mutually agreed upon shall be incorporated into the letter of understanding.
