Powers of an Arbitrator

A grievance referred to arbitration shall be determined by a mutually acceptable arbitrator/board of arbitration who shall have all the powers described in Part 1 of the Canada Labour Code.

Cost of Arbitration

In respect of the cost of arbitration of grievances, the parties shall share equally the fee and expenses of the sole arbitrator or the Chair of the Arbitration Board and, where applicable, each party shall be responsible for the expenses of their respective nominee to the Board of Arbitration.

List of Arbitrators

The parties will agree to a list of arbitrators for each geographical area to whom grievances may be referred. This list shall be reviewed at the mid-point of the Collective Agreement and may be amended by mutual agreement. Each party will alternate in selecting an arbitrator to sit as a sole arbitrator or as a chair of the Arbitration Board from the appropriate list. In the event that the arbitrator selected by a party is unable to hear the grievance within ninety (90) days of the referral to arbitration, the party having made the selection may choose another arbitrator from the list.

Expedited Arbitration

- (a) As an alternative to the formal arbitration process set out in the foregoing paragraphs, a grievance may, upon mutual consent of the parties, be referred to a previously agreed upon sole arbitrator, whose appointment shall be reviewed annually. The arbitrator shall hear the grievance and at the conclusion of the hearing, immediately give a verbal decision with reasons. The arbitrator's decision, with reasons, will be confirmed in writing. The decision shall be final and binding upon both parties and shall be made without precedent or prejudice to similar or like cases. The arbitrator shall not have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.
- (b) To maintain the efficiency of such a process, the parties agree not to use outside legal counsel to argue a case or to call any evidence at expedited arbitration.
- (c) The parties agree to schedule expedited arbitration as required. At least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing, the parties will mutually agree upon a list of grievances to be heard. The parties also agree to prepare a joint statement of facts at least five (5) days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

Sole Arbitrator v. Board of Arbitration

All grievances will be heard by a sole arbitrator except where the parties mutually agree that the grievance shall be heard by a Board of Arbitration.

Arbitration Board

Where the parties agree to a Board of Arbitration, the party referring the grievance to arbitration shall also provide the name of that party's nominee to the Board of Arbitration. Within ten (10) days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail, indicating the name and address of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration. The selection of the Chair shall be in accordance with the list of arbitrators above.

Arbitration Procedure

The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration may determine its own procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations in order to determine the issue in dispute.

Decision

- (a) The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding and enforceable on all parties, but in no event shall the Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.
- (b) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration shall have the power to modify any discipline or discharge imposed by NAV CANADA and to take whatever action is just and equitable in the circumstances relative to the discipline or discharge.

Arbitrability

- (a) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration shall have jurisdiction to determine whether a grievance is arbitrable.
- (b) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration may extend the time for taking any step in the grievance process or arbitration procedure, even after the expiration of the time, if the arbitrator or Arbitration Board is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the extension and that the other party would not be unduly prejudiced by the extension.

Location of Arbitration Hearing

The arbitration hearing shall be held at the city where the work site of the grievor is located and where the circumstances giving rise to the grievance occurred, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Witnesses

- (a) An employee who is requested by NAV CANADA to appear as a witness before an arbitrator or arbitration board, will be granted leave with pay to attend the hearing and appear as a witness if called.
- (b) Where operational requirements permit, NAV CANADA will grant leave without pay to an employee called as a witness by an employee of the Institute.

October 5, 1998

Mr. Dave Parco
Group Chairman, NAV CANADA Group
The Professional Institute of the Public
Service of Canada
53 Auriga Drive
Nepean, Ontario
K2E 8C3

Dear Mr. Parco:

In response to questions raised during negotiations in connection with the selection of a new classification system, NAV CANADA agrees to the following:

1. If, during the life of this Agreement, NAV CANADA proceeds to the selection of a classification system to cover all positions in the bargaining unit, NAV CANADA agrees to use the consultation process provided for in Article 16 of the Collective Agreement in order that the Institute participate in a selection of a classification system.
2. NAV CANADA shall then proceed to the evaluation of all positions, the results of which shall be submitted to the Institute in writing for review and comments. An Institute staff person may participate in any meeting with NAV CANADA held in this regard. The parties shall jointly determine the appropriate rates of pay.
3. The parties to this agreement will cooperate to insure that any selected job evaluation plan satisfies the requirements of the Canadian Human Rights Act.
4. In the event that NAV CANADA and the Institute fail to agree to a pay rate for a particular classification, NAV CANADA shall establish an interim pay rate which shall apply until this matter is resolved during the negotiation for the renewal of the Collective Agreement.

Until such time as a new classification system has been implemented and rates of pay established, the existing classification system and the rates of pay in the Collective Agreement shall remain in place.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Parco:

- (c) joint responsibility for actuarial plan liabilities

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING (LOU NO. 3)
RE DISABILITY CASE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

October 5, 1998

Mr. Dave Parco
Group Chairman, NAV CANADA Group
The Professional Institute of the Public
Service of Canada
53 Auriga Drive
Nepean, Ontario
K2E 8C3

Dear Mr. Parco:

For the purpose of insuring the wellness of all employees in the Bargaining Unit, the Institute, and NAV CANADA will jointly sponsor, endorse and support a Disability Case Management program. This program will preferably be done through a mutually agreed upon third party provider.

Intervention under this Program will normally only be considered if an employee is absent under this Article for more than ten (10) days in any twelve (12) month period or for a continuous period of over five days.

Procedures and processes for such intervention will be developed jointly by the parties. Such intervention will be subject to all the rules of privacy applicable in such cases.

The Program will be used to ascertain the reasons for absences, to develop with an employee a Program to assist in improved attendance or to facilitate an early return to work. Information pertaining to the limitations caused by the illness, the return to work prognosis and corrective or rehabilitative measures proposed will be provided to NAV CANADA. In the event that the third party provider is of the view that the limitations imposed by the injury or illness are insufficient to justify the absence, the Institute and the employee will be advised immediately by NAV CANADA to permit the matter to be jointly resolved.

The Institute and NAV CANADA will establish Employee Wellness Committees at regional level to facilitate such joint resolution.

All costs of this program will be borne by NAV CANADA.

Sincerely yours,

Sheelagh Taylor
Manager, Labour Relations
