The Foreperson will give his/her answer to the complaint within two (2) working days after it has been brought to his/her attention. (It is understood that an employee has no grievance until he/she had first given his/her Foreperson an opportunity of adjusting his/her complaint).

- 10.02 If such complaint or question is not settled to the satisfaction of the employee then the following steps of the grievance procedure may be invoked in order. It is understood that a grievance must be lodged within ten (10) working days after the circumstances giving rise to such a grievance has occurred.

- 10.05 An employee's earnings shall be corrected by the second pay following the resolution of a grievance concerning an employee's wages where the grievance is resolved in the employee's favour. Any correction of $200 or more will be corrected within ten (10) working days.

have a Steward present. The Employer will provide as much notice as possible to both the employee and the steward prior to the commencement of such a meeting.

10.08 Access to Personnel File

Each employee shall have reasonable access to his/her personnel file for the purpose of reviewing any evaluations or formal disciplinary notations contained therein, in the presence of his/her Supervisor or designate. An employee has the right to request copies of any evaluations in this file.

12.01 The parties expressly agree that notwithstanding the amendments to the provisions of the Ontario Labour Relations Act, the termination of employment of a probationary employee shall not be subject to the provisions of the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement except in the event of a claim by a probationary employee under Article 4.03.

12.02 A claim by an employee having completed his/her probationary period that he/she has been unjustly discharged from his/her employment shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged to the Supervisor within five (5) working days after the employee is discharged. All preliminary steps to the grievance procedure prior to Step No. 2 will be omitted in such cases.

12.03 Such special grievance may be settled by confirming Management's action, or by re-instating the employee with full compensation for time lost, or by any other arrangement(s) which are just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties or of a Board of Arbitration.

12.04 When an employee has been dismissed without notice he/she will have the right to meet with a Steward and the Chief Steward for a reasonable period of time before leaving the Work Centre.

ARTICLE 13 - ARBITRATION

13.01 The parties agree that a grievance concerning the application, interpretation, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement and including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable which has been properly carried through all steps of the grievance procedure outlined in Articles 10, 11, 12 may be referred to a Board of Arbitration, at the written request of either of the parties hereto. The written request shall contain the name of the nominee appointed by the party requesting arbitration.

13.02 Within five (5) working days of the request the other party shall appoint a nominee and so advise the party requesting arbitration.

The two (2) nominees so named shall, as soon as possible, attempt to agree upon a Chair of the Arbitration Board. If the nominees cannot agree upon a Chair, either party may refer the matter to the Minister of Labour for Ontario who shall appoint a Chair.

- 13.03 The decision of the Board of Arbitration, or a majority thereof, constituted in the above manner shall be binding on both parties.

In the event of failure of the Board of Arbitration to reach a majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall constitute the decision of the Board.

- 13.04 The Board of Arbitration shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement. The Board of Arbitration shall have the power to alter a penalty consistent with the provisions of Section 48 (17) of the Ontario Labour Relations Act, S.O. 1995, c. 1, Sch. A .

- 13.05 Each of the parties of this Agreement will bear the expenses of its member of the Arbitration Board and the expenses incurred by it for the preparation and presentation of the case including witnesses. The parties will jointly bear the fee and expense of the Chair of the Board of Arbitration.

- 13.06 Notwithstanding the earlier provisions of this Article the parties may, by mutual agreement, waive these provisions in favour of a specific single arbitrator to be chosen by agreement of the parties, provided such agreement can be reached within five (5) working days of notice of arbitration. The fee and expenses of the single arbitrator will be shared equally.

- 13.07 Any written notice under the Grievance or Arbitration procedures that is sent to a party by pre-paid ordinary post shall be deemed to have been received on the second working day following the date of mailing.

 - 6. Fails to return to work immediately after the expiration of an authorized leave of absence granted by the Employer unless prevented from doing so for reason(s) acceptable to the Employer.
 - 7. Uses such authorized leave of absence for purposes other than that for which it was granted.

- 14.04 Seniority lists shall be updated quarterly by the Employer and include the classification and yard location of each employee and posted on the Employer's appropriate bulletin boards with a copy of same being sent to the Union.
- 14.05 In any instance where the Employer dismisses an employee who has completed the probationary period as a result of an alleged violation of any specific provisions contained in Article 14.03 and the employee believes such dismissal to be unjust, that employee will have full opportunity to invoke all provisions of the grievance and arbitration procedures.
- 14.06 Where an employee is transferred from a position outside the bargaining unit to a position inside the bargaining unit, he/she will be considered on a probationary basis for a period of three (3) months from the date of transfer during which the employee shall be ineligible for overtime, call-out, or standby assignment. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the employee will be credited with seniority dating back to the date of transfer together with all seniority previously accrued in the bargaining unit. Within the first thirty (30) days of such assignment, at the employees request, the employee will be returned to their regular position in the bargaining unit. All others who have been assigned in the bargaining unit as a result of the temporary vacancy shall be reverted to their previous classification(s) and yard without regard to seniority.

ARTICLE 15 -DEMOTION, LAY-OFF, AND RECALL PROCEDURE

15.01 Lay-off as referred to in this Agreement means a period of at least one (1) working day.

In the event of a lay-off, students, temporary employees, and persons on probation, shall be first to be laid off, providing the remaining persons are qualified to meet the normal requirements of the work to be performed.

Temporary lay-off shall be for two (2) working days or less, to a maximum of ten (10) working days per employee per year. Such lay-offs shall involve at least several employees, and must be authorized by the appropriate Director.

Reduction in complement for a period of more that two (2) working days shall be implemented by demotion and/or lay-off, and shall be administered as follows:

- a) The employee or employees with the least seniority within any affected classification shall be assigned to the next lower rated classification. If his/her demotion does not create an excess, the position(s) must be posted and filled as in Article 16, within fifteen (15) working days. In the event that his/her demotion creates an excess to the required complement in the new classification, he/she shall displace the employee having the least seniority in that classification, provided that;

- i) he/she is able to perform the work available; and,
- ii) he/she has greater or equal seniority than the employee to be displaced within that classification.

This process shall be repeated until the required reduction in complement for each classification, and in all classifications above the classifications of Rodperson and Labourer has been achieved.

- b) The surplus employee or employees resulting from (a) above shall:
 - i) provided he/she is able to perform the available work and,
 - ii) provided that he/she has greater or equal seniority, displace the employee(s) with the least seniority in the Rodperson or Labourer classification within the bargaining unit.
- c) The displaced employee(s) resulting from the foregoing procedure shall be laid off.

15.02 Where, consistent with the provisions of 15.01, two (2) or more employees are capable of displacing the least senior employees of a lower rated classification, preference may be exercised on a seniority basis as to which of the least senior employees affected within that classification shall be displaced.

15.03 In instances of recall from lay-off or restoration of complement, the complement vacancy shall be posted and filled in accordance with the provisions of Article 16. After the filling of the initial vacancy, and any subsequently posted vacancies arising from the filling of the initial vacancy, any resulting vacancy which is required to be filled shall be offered first, on a seniority basis, to the employee or employees remaining on lay-off who are capable of performing the work required prior to filling the vacancy from other sources.

15.04 In the event of a lay-off, union officers and stewards shall have super seniority and shall be the last persons to be laid off and the first persons to be recalled, subject to the provisions contained in this Article.

16.01 In the filling of job vacancies, newly created jobs, or transfers within the bargaining unit, the following factors shall govern:

- a) Ability to perform the posted job
- b) Seniority

Where factor (a) is relatively equal amongst applicants, then factor (b) shall govern.

Probationary employees will only be considered for posted vacancies when no applicant with seniority is qualified for the position.

16.02 When a temporary vacancy arises due to an employee being on an approved leave of absence for any reason, another employee may be temporarily assigned from that work centre if possible by the Employer to fill that position. Such vacancy shall be filled without posting and assignment shall not exceed twenty (20) working days.

All vacancies, including temporary vacancies, which are anticipated to remain vacant for twenty (20) working days or longer and that are required to be filled shall be posted on the Employer's appropriate bulletin boards for a minimum period of five (5) working days. The posting shall include the minimum and maximum job rates and the vacancy's current work centre. A copy of the posting will be forwarded to the Union's Recording Secretary or designate.

Any employee may apply for such vacancy in writing using the prescribed Employer's Job Posting Application form. Employee Job Posting Applications are to be filed with the Director of Human Resources within the time limits noted on the job posting notice. An employee may hand such completed application to his/her immediate supervisor or area clerk for internal mailing purposes.

Upon completion of a posted temporary assignment, all affected employee(s) shall return to their previous position(s) and work centre(s).

16.03 The Employer shall select the employee to fill the vacancy within ten (10) working days of the expiry date on the posting notice and the successful applicant will be placed on the job as soon as possible after the award. Reason(s) for any delays beyond fifteen (15) workings days will be given to the Union.

16.04 All vacancies created by filling a posted job and which are required to be filled shall be posted in accordance with section 16.02 above.

16.05 The Employer retains the right to fill the vacancy from other sources if bidding employee(s) do not possess the ability needed for the job or if no employee applications are received. Upon request, an employee shall receive a detailed explanation in the event that they are unsuccessful for a posted job.

16.06 Should the Employer, within thirty (30) days of assignment, determine that the employee is not suited to the position, the employee and all others who have been assigned as a result of the employee assignment shall be reverted to their previous classification(s) without regard to seniority. The Employer may in this event consider further applicants to the relative job posting.

On two occasions only during any employee's employment with the Employer, such employee may revert to his/her previous position within thirty (30) days after he/she is placed in the new position.

16.07 A notice shall be posted on the appropriate bulletin boards advising of the successful applicant(s) with a copy forwarded to the National Representative and Recording Secretary.

16.08 The Employer may temporarily fill any position in which event the employee so assigned shall receive the job rate of the temporary assignment, if greater than his/her own rate for all time worked in the temporary position on completion of one half (1/2) shift or more in the temporary position in any pay period.

16.09 In the event of a transfer of complement between locations, such transfer shall be effected on the basis of seniority from amongst those employees in the classification at the location affected expressing an interest. Where there are an insufficient number of interested employees, such transfer shall be effected on an inverse seniority basis from amongst those employees in the classification at the location affected. The employee(s) transferred shall receive a minimum of five (5) consecutive working days notice of such transfer, and such transfer shall be for a minimum of five (5) consecutive working days.

ARTICLE 17 - SITE VISITATION

17.01 An authorized representative of the Union, after arranging permission through the Director of Human Resources or his/her designate, may visit the Employer's premises and in special circumstances the job sites, for the purpose of discussing or investigating any matter covered by this Agreement, it being understood there will be no interruption of work caused by such visitation. The authorized representative of the Union shall contact the Area Supervisor as designated by the Director of Human Resources or his/her designate before pursuing such visitation.

ARTICLE 18 - BULLETIN BOARDS

18.01 The Employer shall supply bulletin boards for the Union's use at each of its work centres for the posting of Union Notices with a copy forwarded to the Director of Human Resources or his/her designate. Any material deemed to be inappropriate by the Director of Human Resources or his/her designate shall be removed from the Union's Bulletin Board(s) for resolution by the parties.

ARTICLE 19 - JURY DUTY AND WITNESS PAY

- 19.01 When an employee is required to serve jury duty or is summoned as a witness, the Employer will pay the Employee for regular working hours lost at his/her straight time rate, provided the Employee turns over to the Employer the amount received as jury duty or subpoena pay (exclusive of payment for travelling, meals, or other expenses) and providing that the Employee reports for work when not required for jury duty or witness duty.

ARTICLE 20 -REPORTING EMPLOYEE ABSENCES AND RETURN

- 20.01 Employees unable to report for work at their regularly scheduled starting time shall telephone their Supervisor or such other person as their Supervisor may instruct within fifteen (15) minutes of such time, giving reason(s) for being unable to report for work, and if possible, an estimate of the time they may be away from work. The employee shall report again by telephone to the Supervisor the work day prior to recommencing work, or at such other reasonable times as their Supervisor may instruct.

- 21.03 The parties agree to co-operate to eliminate accidents as far as possible, and to provide a safe and healthy working environment for all employees. The Employer agrees to implement identified legislated safety requirements in an expeditious manner.
- 21.04 The Employer and the Union agree to establish a joint Safety Committee on which each party will have equal representation. The Union representatives will be determined solely by the Union, but such appointments shall be for a minimum period of six (6) months and shall not exceed six (6) members. The Safety Committee shall be involved in determining the Terms of Reference pertaining to the function of the Safety Committee.

ARTICLE 22 – JOINT MODIFIED WORK COMMITTEE

- 22.01 The parties agree to maintain a Joint Modified Work Committee consisting of one (1) employee member and one (1) alternate member selected or appointed by the local Union, and one (1) Employer member from each employees location to be determined by the Employer together with the Region's Manager responsible for Occupational Health and Safety or appropriate designate, who shall act as Chairperson.
