12036(01)

- (a) to maintain order, discipline, and efficiency;
- (b) to hire, retire, classify, direct, transfer, promote, demote, lay off, discipline, suspend or discharge employees, provided that a claim of discriminatory promotion, demotion or transfer, or a claim that an employee has been discharged, suspended, or disciplined without cause may be the subject of a grievance, and dealt with as hereinafter provided;
- (c) generally to manage the industrial enterprise in which the Company is engaged and direct the work force and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, to determine the number and location of plants, the products to be manufactured or handled, methods of manufacturing, schedules of production, kinds and locations of machines, tools and equipment to be used, processes of manufacturing and assembling, the engineering and designing of its products, and the control of materials and parts to be incorporated in the products manufactured or handled, save only where such rights and obligations are explicitly abridged or amended by the express terms of the collective agreement.
- (d) to make, alter and enforce rules and regulations to be observed by employees, provided such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with the terms of this agreement.

3. RELATIONSHIP

3.01 The Union agrees that in recognition of the fact that efficient and economic production is in the interest of both parties, it will promote among its members good workmanship and regular attendance. It is further agreed that managerial personnel will co-operate with the Union in suggestions that may be made with respect to the above.

3.02 The Company and the Union agree that neither party shall practice discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion with respect to any employee by reason of age, marital status, sex, race, creed, colour, national origin, political or religious affiliations, disability, sexual orientation nor by reason of union membership or activity.

3.03 The Union agrees that any employee covered by this agreement may exercise, or may refrain from exercising, the employee's right to become a member of the Union. The Company, in view of this undertaking, agrees in the interest of maintaining harmonious relations to give all present and new employees when hired a copy of this agreement.

3.04 The Company will permit the Shift Steward to interview new employees for a period not to exceed ten minutes. The time and place of such interview will be arranged by the Company.

4. CHECK-OFF

4.01 The Company shall deduct weekly from the pay of each employee in the bargaining unit, a sum equivalent to the regular weekly Union dues, and shall remit such dues to the Financial Secretary of Local 504 on or before the 15th day of each month. The deductions shall be accompanied by a list of those employees from whom such deductions have been made. The list shall also provide the status of each employee.

4.02 The Company agrees that where the employee voluntarily signs a form for Union initiation, the fee of ten dollars ($10.00) will be deducted from their pay.

4.03 The Company will provide dues deduction totals for the year on employees' T4 slips.

5. STEWARDS AND COMMITTEES

5.01 The Company acknowledges the right of the Union to elect or appoint a negotiating committee of not more than three (3) employees. The Company further acknowledges that any two (2) of the above constitute the grievance committee to, assist employees with the presentation of grievances to the Company. In addition the Company will recognize eight (8) stewards to assist employees in presenting grievances to the Company at the first stage of the grievance procedure.

It is understood that committee persons and stewards shall have no less than (6) months of service with the Company in order to hold a position within the Union.

5.02 The Company agrees to deal with the Negotiating Committee with respect to any matters that may properly arise within the relationship between the parties.

5.03 The Union acknowledges that Stewards as well as other members of the Union Committee and Union Officers will continue to perform their regular duties on behalf of the Company, and that such persons will not leave their regular duties without obtaining permission from their immediate supervisor. When resuming their regular duties after being engaged in duties on behalf of the Union, they shall inform their immediate supervisor of their return and will give any reasonable explanation that may be requested with respect to their absence.

5.04 It is clearly understood that Stewards and Committee Persons will not absent themselves from their regular duties unreasonably in order to deal with the grievances of employees, and that in accordance with this understanding, the Company will compensate such employees at their basic straight-time hourly rate of pay for such time spent in dealing with the employee's grievances. Compensation will not be allowed for time spent outside of the Steward's or Committee Person's regular working hours, or when the time spent is off the premises of the Company. The Company reserves the right to withhold payment if the Steward or Committee Person does not conform to the accepted practice when dealing with grievances, or if an unreasonable amount of time is consumed in dealing with such matters.

5.05 The Union agrees that it will not appoint or otherwise elect any employee to serve as a Steward or Committee Person until the employee has acquired seniority standing.

6. COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES

6.01 It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is generally understood that an employee has no grievance until the employee has first given the Company an opportunity of adjusting the employee's complaint. At the employee's option, the employee may be accompanied by the employee's Zone Steward. Failing settlement, the employee may file a grievance in accordance with 6.02.

6.02 The Grievance Procedure shall be as follows:

STEP NO. 1

If the employee believes the employee has a grievance for an event or a situation other than wage rates or classifications that occurred within thirty days, the employee shall present such grievance in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor, and the employee shall have the assistance of the employee's Steward if the employee so desires. If a settlement satisfactory to the employee is not reached within two (2) full working days, or in any longer period of time which is mutually agreed upon by the parties, then Step No. 2 may be invoked.

STEP NO. 2

The Grievance Committee may, within a period of five (5) working days after the completion of Step No. 1 present such grievance to the Company provided the alleged circumstances or origin of the grievance, except in the case of continuing circumstances, occurred not more than thirty (30) days immediately prior to its original presentation at Step No. 1, and may request a meeting with the Company within five (5) working days of such submission. At any such meeting a full-time officer of the Union may be present if the officer's presence is requested by either party. No more than three members of the Grievance Committee may be in attendance at such meeting, unless the grievance involves more than one department of the plant, in which case the Steward⁸ from the affected departments may be present. The Company will give its decision in writing within five (5) working days after the meeting has been held, a copy of which shall be sent to the Union office.

STEP NO. 3

If the grievance is not settled to the satisfaction of both parties, then, at the request of either party to this agreement, the grievance shall be submitted to arbitration provided such request for arbitration is made in writing to the other party within thirty (30) days, or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon after the written decision of the Company has been given at Step No. 2.

POLICY GRIEVANCE

6.03 The parties agree that grievances may be lodged by the Company or the Union alleging a violation of this agreement, and which grievance could not be lodged by individual employees, or which involve a group of employees.

Such grievance shall be dealt with at a meeting between the Company and the Grievance Committee. Should such meeting fail to resolve the grievance, either party may proceed to arbitration as hereafter provided.

7. ARBITRATION

7.01 When either party requests that such grievance be submitted to arbitration, they shall make such request in writing to the other party, formally stating the subject of the grievance and at the same time submit proposals for a sole arbitrator. The parties shall attempt to agree upon a sole arbitrator. If they are unable to agree within a period of ten (10) days, then the minister for Labour for the Province of Ontario will be asked to appoint a sole arbitrator.

7.02 No person shall be selected as an arbitrator who has been directly involved in attempts to settle the grievance.

7.03 The arbitrator shall not have any jurisdiction or authority to change or alter or add to any of the provisions of this agreement, or to give a decision which is inconsistent with the terms of this agreement. The decision rendered by such arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties hereto, upon any employee affected by it. The parties shall bear equally the fee and expenses of the arbitrator.

8. DISCHARGE OR SUSPENSION OF EMPLOYEES

8.01 Employees shall be discharged or suspended only for just cause. A claim by an employee that the employee has been discharged or suspended without just cause shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Company within one week after notice of suspension or discharge is given. Step No. 1 of the Grievance Procedure shall be omitted in such cases.

8.02 An employee, who has been discharged or suspended without notice shall have the right to interview the employee's steward privately for a reasonable period of time before leaving the plant premises.

8.03 Such special grievance may be settled by confirming the Company's action in dismissing the employee or by reinstating the employee with full wage compensation for time lost, or by any other wage arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties or of the Arbitrator.

8.04 Copies of disciplinary notices will be issued to the Unit Chairperson and Committee person.

9. NO STRIKES AND NO LOCKOUTS

9.01 In view of the orderly procedure established herein for the disposition of the employee's complaints and grievances, the Company agrees that it will not cause or direct any lockout of its employees for the duration of this agreement, and the Union agrees that there will be no strikes or other collective action by the employees which will stop or interfere with the production for the duration of this agreement.

9.02 The nature of the operations is such that tooling and unfinished materials are often on Company premises but belong solely to customers. It is in the interests of the parties, that any dispute between them will not cause customer alienation and thereby affect the future operation of the Company and its ability to employ. For this reason it is mutually agreed that in the event of a strike or lockout all customer property which is on or in Company premises can be removed with the full co-operation of both parties.

10. SENIORITY

10.01 A new employee shall be on probation until the employee has been employed by the Company for a period of three (3) consecutive months except for an employee who has been re-hired following loss of seniority who shall serve a one (1) month probationary period. If retained beyond the probationary period, the employee's seniority shall date from the date he or she last commenced work with the Company, and will accumulate thereafter.

10.02 Seniority shall operate on a departmental basis during the first six (6) months of employment after which plant wide seniority shall prevail. Seniority lists of employees shall be established on the basis of the employee's last date of commencement to work for the Company. Such lists shall be revised quarterly, and copies shall be posted in the plant and shall be sent to the Union office.

The Company agrees to the principle of granting leave of absence to employees for the birth or adoption of a child in accordance with the ~~Employment Standards~~

Act.

10.05 The Company shall grant leave of absence without pay to any employee for extended illness. The Company may require the employee to submit a statement from the employee's doctor and the Company may at its own expense have such statement verified by its own doctor. Such employee shall accumulate seniority during such illness up to a maximum of one (1) year after which time the employee's seniority shall be maintained without change.

10.06 The Company agrees to grant leave of absence for a period of one (1) year when requested by the Union to do so, without pay, to any one replaceable employee to serve the Union as Business Agent or in other full-time work with the Union.

10.07 The Company agrees to grant leave of absence to not more than two replaceable employees, if requested by the Union to do so, to attend Conventions of the Union, or to carry out Union assignments, for a total of twenty-five (25) days in a year provided written notice of such request is given to the Company at least seven (7) days in advance. The Company shall pay the regular wages for such employees during such leave of absence and shall be reimbursed by the Union for such wages and an additional 25% of such wages on account of benefits. Such hours shall be considered hours worked for the purpose of calculating overtime.

10.08 Promotions or transfers to jobs will be based primarily on the experience and qualifications of the employees concerned, but as between two persons of approximately equal standing based on the above factors, seniority shall govern.

10.09 The appointment or selection of employees for supervisory positions, or for any position not subject to the provisions of this agreement, is not governed by this agreement, but if an employee is so transferred or appointed he shall continue to accumulate seniority for a one-year period beginning with date of transfer and if during that one-year period, the employee is not transferred back to the bargaining unit, the employee shall lose all seniority at the expiration of the period.

10.10 A lay-off of employees shall be made on the basis of their seniority standing provided that the employees who are entitled to remain on the basis of seniority are willing and qualified to perform the remaining work.

When recalling employees who have been laid off, the recall will also be made on the same basis. An employee being recalled will be notified in writing to the employee's last address on record with the Company, and the employee shall have three (3) days in which to notify the Company of the employee's intentions, or be passed over for a later recall, and must return to work within seven (7) days or the employee's name will be removed from the seniority list unless he furnished the Company with an acceptable reason for his failure to return. The Company will endeavour to notify the Union and the employees at least four (4) days prior to the date of lay-off.

10.11 Stewards, as recognized under Article 5.02 and up to three Union Officers, will be retained by the Company in the event of a layoff provided that such employees have the necessary experience and qualifications to perform the remaining work and provided sufficient work is available.

10.12 An employee with less than one year's service, with departmental seniority, shall upon being transferred from one department to another have all accumulated seniority placed to the employee's credit in the new department.

10.13 All occupational vacancies the Company believes will last three weeks or more shall be posted on the plant Bulletin Board for a period of five (5) days along with the rates applying and the name of the department posting the vacancy, except that only the first vacancy that occurs in a related series will be posted in the group of jobs so designated on the Wage Schedule Appendix A. All employees, except for those who have successfully bid for a job vacancy within the preceding six months and which job is still in existence, shall have the right to apply for posted jobs vacancies and shall be considered according to Article 10.08. Where the Company believes the job will last for more than three weeks, but less than two months, the vacancy will be shown as "probably temporary". In the case of transfers made by the Company to fill vacancies expected to last no longer than three weeks, the Company will, where possible, transfer the most junior employee from among those who are able to do the vacant job and which transfer will not adversely affect the operating efficiency of the department from which the employee would be transferred.

A promotion or transfer to the vacancy will be made from amongst those who apply, except that in the event applications are not received from suitable applicants, the Company will have the right to fill the vacancy from amongst employees at the lower or equal wage level to the vacancy, or by hiring a new employee.

The Company agrees to give every consideration to requests from employees who may wish to transfer to a job at the same or a lower wage level than they hold at time of request.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

Re: Pension Plan for El-Met Parts
Employees

The parties recognize the possibility that the Federal Government may change in the future the formula for Canada Pension Plan contributions.

The Company and the Union agree to the principal that any change to the current CPP contribution levels referred to in the Pension Plan document at paragraph 2 and 3, will not have the effect of eroding the present contributions of either the Company and or Employee to the employees El-Met Parts Pension Plan.

The Company and the Union agree to seek professional advise towards the development of a mechanism, to the extent possible, to implement this principal as soon as possible but no later than April 9, 1999.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

April 9, 1998

The Company and the Union recognize that there is a dramatic need to make major productivity improvements in all areas.

The Company and the Union agree that the objective is to maximize production in each and every department and to maximize the number of hours each piece of machinery in the plant operates on each and every shift.

To attain this objective, it is recognized that each employee should:

1. Be at his work station ready to begin work at the start of each shift.
2. Remain at his work station until the end of each shift.
3. Work at a reasonable pace until the end of each shift.
4. Avoid excessive personal breaks and wandering from his work station during his shift.
5. Avoid shutting down presses while operating and eliminate press shut downs at shift changes.
6. Avoid "stretching" the work to fill the time and to take the initiative to provide assistance in other areas of the plant.

It is agreed that these productivity gains can only be gained by each employee's recognition of the importance of productivity to the future of the Company and each employee's commitment to maximizing it.

NOTES:

1. The apprentice shall be paid his/her hourly rate for all training programs that take place on the company's premises. If the apprentice, to complete his program, is required to attend a community college, trade school or other outside course for any period of time, he will do so on his own time. However, the company will fully cooperate to give opportunities to the worker to perform work for the missed time at a mutually convenient time.
2. The Company agrees to pay, on behalf of apprentices covered by this agreement for books, registration fees and/or tuition required in connection with related related training under the apprentice program.

3. If the apprentice is laid off, he/she may elect to continue school classes. Tuition and books during such layoff period will be paid upon the return of the apprentice to the Apprenticeship Program. Tuition and book receipts will be presented to the Company by the apprentice.
4. Apprentices who are given credit for previous experience shall be paid upon signing the apprenticeship agreement, the wage rate for the period to which such credit advances them.
5. Bargaining unit employees whose starting rate or credit level under the Apprenticeship Agreement would place them at less than their present rate, will receive a wage rate midway between their current rate and the adjusted apprentice rate they would be entitled to as an apprentice. The employee shall be red-circled at that rate, without any changes including COLA or general increases if any, until normal advancement in the Apprenticeship Program places them at a higher rate.
6. When a apprentice has successfully completed 8,000 hours of training, and has attained his/her certificate of qualifications from the Ontario Ministry of Education and Training, he/she is to receive the starting rate paid to skilled journeymen/women in the trade in which he has served his/her apprenticeship.
