2.02 Whenever the feminine pronoun is used in this Agreement, it includes the masculine pronoun when the context requires, and vice versa.

2.03 For purposes of definition in this agreement, a full time employee is one who is regularly scheduled to work in excess of thirty-two (32) hours per week as averaged over an eight (8) week period.

b) A temporary assignment is the assignment of a bargaining unit employee for a period of greater than eight (8 weeks), but no

- a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
 - b) hire, discharge, direct, transfer, classify, promote, demote, layoff or discipline employees provided that a claim of improper classification, promotion, demotion, layoff or transfer or a claim that an employee has been discharged or disciplined without just cause may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided; and
 - c) make, enforce and alter from time to time reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the employees except as specifically limited by the expressed provisions of this agreement;
 - d) determine the nature and kind of operations conducted by the Employer, the kinds and locations of operations, the equipment and materials to be used, the number of employees to be employed, their job content and their qualifications, the extension, limitation, curtailment or cessation of operations or part thereof and to determine and exercise all other functions and prerogatives in accordance with its commitments, obligations and responsibilities all of which shall remain solely with the Employer except as limited by the expressed provisions of this Agreement.

Article 7 - Grievance Procedure

For purposes of this agreement a grievance is defined as any difference arising between the parties relating to working conditions and the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

Step 1

An employee who has a complaint shall first discuss it with his supervisor. Such a complaint shall be brought to the attention of the immediate supervisor within ten (10) business days of the incident leading to the alleged grievance. The immediate supervisor's decision shall be given verbally within five (5) business days.

Step 2

Should the grievance remain unsolved, the employee may present a grievance in writing on a written grievance form supplied by the Union to his/her immediate supervisor within ten (10) business days of receiving the reply to the verbal complaint. The grievance shall contain a statement of the nature of the grievance and indicate the relief sought and shall be signed and dated by the employee. The immediate supervisor shall answer the grievance in writing within ten (10) business days.

Step 3

Failing settlement of the grievance at step 2 the Union may within five (5) business days of receiving the response of the immediate supervisor, refer the matter to the Executive Director in writing. Within the next five (5) business days the Employee and the Executive Director shall meet to discuss the matter. If the grievance is not settled within five (5) business days of the meeting, it may be referred to arbitration as hereinafter provided.

7.02

The employee may be accompanied by his steward if he so desires at any stage of the grievance procedure. If at any step of the grievance procedure the grievance has not been processed by the Employer within the time limit as prescribed the grievance shall automatically be advanced to the next step.

- 7.03 Time limits set forth herein are mandatory and not directory and the failure of an employee to follow the procedure laid down in this article shall result in forfeiture of all rights to the grievance procedure. The times limits fixed in this agreement may be extended by mutual consent of both parties to this Agreement provided that there shall be no obligation on either party to consent.
- 7.04 When referred to in this agreement, "business days" are exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Paid Holidays.

Article 8 - Discharge Grievances

- 8.01 A claim by an employee who has completed the probationary period that s/he has been discharged or suspended without just cause shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Executive Director at Step 3 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) business days after the employee ceases to work for the Employer and for the purposes of this article, Step 2 shall be waived. A probationary employee may be discharged or suspended without just cause and no claim by a probationary employee that s/he has been discharged or suspended without cause may be treated as a grievance.
- 8.02 During the probationary period neither party shall be required to give the other party more than seven (7) calendar days notice of termination of employment. During the probationary period the Employer may dismiss a probationary employee without cause. The dismissal, the reason for the dismissal, or the lack of reason for dismissal; the cause or the lack of cause; layoff, failure to recall after layoff or the reason or lack of reason to recall after layoff, of a probationary employee shall not be the subject of a grievance.

Article 9 - Policy Grievance

- 9.01 A policy grievance is defined as a complaint arising directly between the Employer and Union concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the agreement.
- 9.02 The Employer may complain to the Union with respect to the conduct of any employee covered by this Agreement or any complaint with respect to the conduct of Officers, Committee Members or Union Representatives and if such complaint is not settled to a mutual satisfaction of the parties it may be treated as a grievance and similarly, the union may process policy grievances which are not otherwise processed by individual employees subject to the terms of this Agreement.

- 9.03 All policy grievances shall be initiated in writing at step 3 of the grievance procedure and the times set forth therein shall be applicable.
- 9.04 No policy grievance shall be considered which overrides the rights of management. A policy grievance must be signed by the president of the local or designate.

Article 10 - Arbitration

- 10.01 Where a grievance is not resolved after exhausting the Grievance Procedure, either of the parties may notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the difference of the allegation to arbitration and the notice shall contain the name of the first party's appointee to an Arbitration Board. The recipient of the notice shall within five (5) business days inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two appointees so selected shall within five (5) business days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairman. If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two appointees fail to agree upon a chairman within the time limits, the appointment shall be made by the minister of Labour, upon the request of either party. The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of the majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman governs. Each of the parties hereto shall jointly bear the expenses of the third party, and any cost of the place of hearing of such arbitration if and when the necessity arises.
- 10.02 The Board of Arbitration shall not have any power to alter, modify or change any of the provisions or any existing provisions, nor to give decisions inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- 10.03 Single Arbitrator - Notwithstanding the forgoing provision of this article, the parties hereto may in substitution for the above procedure agree in writing to appoint one (1) arbitrator satisfactory to both parties, in which cases such arbitrator shall have the same jurisdiction, power and authority as has been given to the Arbitration Board by the foregoing terms of this Article.

Article 11 - Bulletin Board

- 11.01 It is agreed and understood that the Employer will provide at no cost to the Union and shall place in mutually agreeable locations, bulletin boards and/or binders to be used for the purpose of posting Union notices and job postings therein, being a maximum of one (1) bulletin board and/or binder per facility.

Article 12 - Job Posting

Full Time Employees

- 12.01 A notice of any permanently vacant, newly created or temporary assignment position, forming part of this Agreement shall be advertised electronically for a period of seven (7) business days and shall indicate the number of employees required, the location of, title and qualifications, description and salary of this position Only employees who apply in writing will be considered for the vacant or newly created position subject to the rights of the Employer to hire from outside as set forth herein. Each applicant will be informed of the outcome of the posting in writing upon request.
- 12.02 It is agreed and understood that the Employer shall attempt to fill all job vacancies from within the bargaining unit before hiring from outside provided bargaining unit employees have made application in writing and have the necessary qualifications to fill the vacant position. Applications shall be considered upon the following factors:
- a) skills, ability, experience, knowledge, training and competence;
 - b) the ability to relate to the client group
 - c) seniority
- Where the qualifications in factors (a) and (b) are relatively equal, seniority shall govern. Such judgment shall be made in a fair, impartial and consistent manner.
- 12.03 If an employee is absent from work s/he will have the right to apply for any vacant position. Such absent employee must make his application within the time specified and consideration of his application will not delay the filling of the position.
- 12.04 Job Sharing
- a) Full-time employees or the Employer may propose a job sharing arrangement, and if agreed to by the union and the Employer, it shall be implemented.
 - b) Employees who enter into such a job sharing arrangement shall continue to be included in the bargaining unit as regular part-time employees notwithstanding the recognition provisions of the Collective Agreement, and this Paragraph 2 shall in no way be deemed to constitute an amendment of the recognition clause in the Collective Agreement, and unless modified by this Article, all terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement shall continue to apply.

- c) Two employees sharing one (1) full-time position shall receive wages at the straight full-time hourly rate, plus pro-rated benefits and holidays. It is the parties' objective to ensure that two employees who are sharing one (1) full-time position shall not receive any benefits superior individually or cumulatively to that which a non-sharing full-time employee would individually receive.
- d) Such proposal shall be limited to splitting one (1) full-time position into two (2) parts. The total number of full-time positions allowed to job share would be a maximum of 10% (to the next full-time position) of full-time equivalent positions.
- e) Individuals who are presently working full-time and wish to make application to job share shall do so in writing to their supervisor. The applicant's portion of the position will not be posted, but the remainder of the original shall be posted as per the Collective Agreement. A successful applicant shall meet with the supervisor to discuss the job sharing arrangements. A union representative may accompany the employee to the meeting.
- f) If the number of applications to job share is greater than is acceptable to the Employer the decision of which job(s) is (are) to be shared shall be based upon the seniority of the applicants with the most senior given preference, subject to any applicant having the qualifications to perform the shared job to the Employer's normal standards.
- g) If one of the job sharers permanently vacates his position, for whatever reason, and the job shared position reverts to full-time, then the remaining job sharer shall assume the full-time position if he so desires and if he was a full-time employee when he entered into the job sharing arrangement. If job sharing is to continue, then the vacancy shall be posted according to the Collective Agreement. If the vacancy is not filled successfully, the remaining job sharer shall have a final opportunity to assume the non-shared full-time position if he was a full-time employee when he entered into the job sharing arrangement. If he refuses it will be posted as a full-time position in accordance with the Collective Agreement. The remaining job sharing employee could be reassessed to hire as regular part-time if agreed to by the Union and the Employer. If one of the job sharers temporarily vacates his position for a leave of absence of more than sixty (60) consecutive calendar days, the remaining job sharer shall have the opportunity to assume the full-time position until the return of the other job sharer. However, if the remaining job sharer declines to assume the full-time position the Employer may fill the job sharer position on a temporary basis.

- h) An employee participating in job sharing who wishes to return to a full-time position must apply through the posting provisions of the Collective Agreement when such positions become available.
- i) Posted schedules for job shared positions will be identical to the full-time positions they replace.
- j) Job sharers will have the option of determining between themselves which portion of the work schedule they will work. If the job sharers are unable to agree on the hours they will work within five (5) working days of the creation of the shared job, the Employer shall schedule such work and the job sharers shall work in accordance with the posted schedule.
- k) The seniority and service accruals of an employee participating in a job sharing arrangement shall continue to accrue in accordance with hours paid.
- l) Any difference that may arise from the implementation of job sharing shall be discussed by the parties at a Labour/Management meeting. If no agreement can be reached between the parties, the particular job sharing arrangement involving specific employees which was the subject of the difference shall cease to exist and Paragraph 7 herein shall become applicable with respect to the employees concerned.
- m) The Employer or the employee may discontinue job sharing with thirty (30) calendar days' notice to the other party or such other notice as may be agreed to by the parties. In such instances Paragraphs 7 and 8 herein shall become applicable with respect to the employees concerned.

Part Time Employees

12.05 Where management requires additional part time help they will first offer additional hours, where practical, to part time employees who have applied in writing for additional hours of work. The granting of extra hours will be based on skills, ability, knowledge, training, competence and the ability to relate to the client group. Where these factors are judged to be relatively equal then seniority shall govern.

12.06 Where a part time employee wishes to change work locations, s/he will apply to the Manager Organizational Development in writing for a transfer which must be considered before hiring from outside the bargaining unit.

Article 13 - Seniority

13.01 a) Subject to Article 13.04, full time employees earn seniority based on their length of continuous service with the Employer in any position in the bargaining unit, expressed in years or parts thereof. A full-time employee is deemed to be in continuous service;

- i) when actually at work for the Employer and
 - ii) when on an approved absence
- b) Part time employees earn seniority based on their total number of hours worked for the Employer as a part-time employee in the bargaining unit, expressed in years or parts thereof.

 - e) Probationary employees shall be evaluated after three hundred and twenty (320) hours worked and again, if necessary, after four hundred (400) hours worked.
 - f) The Employer may require the probationary period to be extended for up to an additional five hundred and twenty (520) hours to a total of one thousand and forty (1040) hours, provided the Employer informs the Union and the employee at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the expiration of the initial probationary period and sub clause (e) has been complied with.
 - g) Seniority shall be established upon the successful completion of the probationary period and shall be effective from the date of employment in a position covered by this agreement.
 - h) The Employer shall notify the employee and the unit steward, in writing, within thirty (30) calendar days of the successful completion of the probationary period.
 - i) Seniority is a factor in respect of the following processes only:
 - i) Layoff and recall
 - ii) Job Posting
 - iii) Choice of vacation schedule
 - iv) Scheduling of hours of work for part-time employees.

13.02 An employee shall lose all seniority and shall be deemed to have terminated his/her employment if s/he:

- a) voluntarily leaves the employ of the Employer or is retired;
- b) is discharged and is not reinstated through the grievance procedure or arbitration.
- c) is absent from work without permission for one (1) scheduled shift during which time s/he has not contacted the Employer;

13.03 1) With the exception of pregnancy/parental leave, during which an employee's seniority shall accumulate in accordance with the Employment Standards Act and the further exception of sick leave:

a) a full-time employee shall continue to accumulate seniority during the first thirty (30) working days of absence from work, after which the employee shall maintain but not further accumulate seniority; and

b) a part-time employee shall maintain seniority during absences from work.

2) An employee who accepts an acting position outside of the bargaining unit shall continue to pay union dues and accumulate seniority for the first sixty (60) working days; after which the employee shall maintain but not further accumulate seniority and shall not pay union dues. The employee shall retain the right to return to their former position in the bargaining unit, on completion of the acting assignment, or to a comparable position if the former position no longer exists.

13.04 a) A combined seniority list according to the records of the Employer with seniority expressed in years shall be posted semi-annually by January 31st and July 31st. A copy shall be supplied to the Unit Steward of the Union and a copy posted on each bulletin board.

b) For the purposes of calculating seniority, employees shall receive half (1/2) credit for each hour paid at the sleepover rate.

b) A seniority year shall be 2080 hours.

c) A part-time employee cannot accrue more than 2080 hours of seniority and service per calendar year.

Article 14 - Technological Changes

14.01 In the event of proposed technological changes, or in the event of changes resulting from work reorganization which affects the employees in the bargaining unit, the Employer agrees to discuss such changes with the Union executive before such changes are made.

- 14.02 In the event an employee requires training, as determined by the Employer, to perform a job in a position to be changed, the Employer agrees to allow the employee up to three (3) months for the purposes of retraining. During the period of training the position may be filled by temporary staff.
- 14.03 Subject to the factors listed in Article 12.02 employees displaced by any technological change will be given the first opportunity to apply for any new position created by such technological change or any other vacant position before the position is posted in the normal manner.

Article 15 - Layoff and Recall

Full-Time Employees

- 15.01 Wherever practicable, attrition, voluntary early retirement, and voluntary exit will be used as alternatives to layoffs.
- 15.02 The Employer agrees to notify the Union or an OPSEU representative one (1) month prior to implementation of a layoff and to discuss the layoff with the Union. Every reasonable effort will be made on the part of the Employer and the Union to assist employees affected by a layoff.
- 15.03 In the event of a layoff, the Employer shall lay off the least senior employee within a classification, in reverse order of their seniority.
- 15.04 A laid off employee will be entitled to displace the employee with the least seniority less than their own in a lower classification.
- 15.05 An employee who has received layoff notice and who has displaced another employee will be considered for future full-time vacancies, in the classification from which they were laid off, in priority to all other employees. If more than one employee is affected, the order of placement will be according to seniority.
- 15.06 A laid off employee who does not displace another employee will be placed on a recall list for a period of twelve (12) months unless such employee on the recall list who is not recalled to work within twelve (12) months shall be entitled, at the end of the twelve (12) month period, or such lesser period greater than thirteen (13) weeks as the employee may determine to the balance of the termination pay payable at the end of thirteen (13) weeks of layoff, if any and, if mandated by the Employment Standards Act, severance pay, in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act, upon payment of which the employee's name shall be removed from the recall list.

- 15.07 Subject to Article 15.05, the Employer, upon rehiring, agrees to do so in reverse order of layoff within each classification. All employees on the recall list who are qualified for the available positions shall be rehired before the Employer hires new employees from the open market.
- 15.08 An employee recalled and reinstated to his/her former position shall receive the appropriate rate of pay for the position at the time of recall. Any employee recalled and reinstated to any other position will receive the appropriate pay for such position at the time of recall.
- 15.09 Any employee who has completed his/her probationary period and who, after lay off, remains on the recall list may continue to participate in the benefit plans for a period of 31 days.
- 15.10 Should job qualifications change, bargaining unit members will be deemed qualified in their current position, and those qualifications for which the employee has been deemed qualified will be transferable to any other position within the bargaining unit which requires equal qualifications. For greater clarity, the Employer reserves the right to change qualifications to include specific skills.

Part-time Employees

- 15.11 When scheduled part-time hours are no longer necessary in a work location then the affected part-time employee has the right to assume the part-time hours of the least senior employee based on skill, competence and ability to relate to the client group.

Article 16 - Sick Leave

Full-time Employees

- 16.01 All full-time employees covered by this agreement shall be eligible for a sick leave credit of eight (8) hours for each one hundred and sixty (160) hours worked. Sick leave credits are granted for the sole purpose of protecting an employee against loss of income due to illness or accident and are granted subject to the conditions set out in this article. Sick leave shall be cumulative to a ceiling of three hundred and sixty (360) hours.
- 16.02 Where an employee is absent as a result of sickness or accident and is receiving the Weekly Indemnity benefit or Long Term disability insurance under the Group Insurance Plan for the employees of the Employer, the employee shall receive from the Employer the difference between his regular pay and the amount being received from the Group insurance to the maximum amount in aggregate of the dollar value of the existing sick leave credit.

- 16.03 When the employee is receiving benefits from WSIB (Workplace Safety and Insurance Board), then at the employee's option s/he will receive the difference between his/her pay and the Board's award to the maximum amount in aggregate of the existing sick leave credit.
