The seven (7) days and thirty (30) days limitations provided above shall not deprive an employee or the Union of the right to register a retroactive claim for OHIP premiums or Health and Welfare Benefits, where such premiums or benefits have not been paid in line with the provisions of this Agreement. This meeting shall be held in the terminal unless otherwise agreed. The District Manager or his designate shall render his decision in writing within seven (7) days from the date that the grievance was referred to him.

Section 6.5

Should the parties fail to reach satisfactory settlement in the preceding steps, the final settlement of the grievance may be submitted to an Arbitration Board as outlined below.

Section 6.6 - Procedure for Union or Company Grievance

In the event the Union or the Company has a grievance, it shall be the responsibility of the grievor to advise the other party in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the alleged violation of the Agreement and by such notification arrange a meeting within fourteen (14) calendar days between the Terminal Manager or his designate and a duly accredited principal officer of the Local Union or his designate. Should the grievor fail to reach a satisfactory settlement, the grievance may be submitted to a Board of Arbitration as outlined in Section 6.8.

Section 6.7 - Discharge and Suspension Grievance

Grievances dealing with discharges and suspensions shall be registered in writing within seventy-two (72) hours (Saturdays, Sundays and General Holidays excluded) from the time of the discharge or suspension and shall commence with Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure as outlined in Section 6.4.

- b) a Company grievance within seven (7) calendar days after the meeting with the Union Representative;
- c) A Union grievance within seven (7) calendar days after the meeting with the Company's representative.

The grievance shall be submitted to a sole arbitrator chosen by mutual agreement. If the parties fail to agree upon a neutral arbitrator within fifteen (15) working days (excluding Saturday, Sunday and General Holidays) after either party has served written notice on the other party of its intention to refer the matter to a neutral arbitrator, the Federal Minister of Labour will be requested to appoint a neutral arbitrator.

Section 6.9 - Powers of Board of Arbitration

The Arbitrator shall not have the right to alter or change any provisions of this Agreement or substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement. The Arbitrator, however, shall have the power to vary or set aside any penalty or discipline imposed relating to the Grievance then before the Arbitrator.

The purpose of seniority is to provide a policy governing layoffs, recalls, the filling of job openings, vacation scheduling and the allocation of work as specifically provided in this Agreement.

- a) In all applications of seniority it is agreed that seniority will be subject to the qualifications of the senior employee to do the job available, and when this factor is relatively equal seniority shall govern.

When the Company questions the qualifications of an employee, the employee must be given a thirty (30) day trial period to establish that they can perform the job. During this period but not before fourteen (14) days, the parties may agree that the employee will not qualify and the trial period will be terminated.

Section 8.2 - Posting of Seniority List

The seniority list, containing the name and starting date of employees will be prepared and posted in the terminal every three months on the bulletin board with sufficient copies for Stewards and Business Representatives. Seniority lists containing the names and addresses of employees as contained in the records of the Company will be prepared and forwarded to the Local Union office annually during September of each year.

Section 8.3 - Probationary Period

An employee shall be considered probationary until placed on the seniority list. Such employee shall work under the provisions of this Agreement and shall be employed on a probationary basis for sixty (60) calendar days during which period he may be terminated or disciplined without recourse to the Grievance Procedure. The Company may not terminate such employee for the purpose of forcing an additional probationary period. Upon completion of the sixtieth (60th) calendar day, the employee shall either be terminated or placed on the seniority list as of the date of commencement of his probationary period.

Section 8.4 - Retention of Seniority after Promotion

Employees promoted to supervisory positions or positions not subject to this Agreement will retain their seniority after promotion for a period of ninety (90) calendar days only. If demoted for any reason or if they voluntarily request reinstatement to their former position, the time served in the supervisory position shall be included in their seniority rating. Such employee shall forfeit any and all recourse to the Grievance Procedure as outlined in this Agreement should he subsequently be discharged in such a position beyond the jurisdiction of this Agreement, This Article is to be applied only once for any employee during the term of this Agreement.

Section 8.5 - Reasons for Termination of Employment

An employee's employment shall be terminated and he shall lose his seniority standing and his name shall be removed from the seniority list for any of the following reasons:

- a) If an employee voluntarily quits in writing;
- b) If an employee is discharged and is not reinstated pursuant to the Grievance Procedure as provided in this Agreement;
- c) If an employee has been laid off and not employed elsewhere and has refused to return to work within twenty-four (24) hours after being contacted personally. When the employee cannot be contacted or is employed elsewhere, then the Company will notify the employee by registered mail to his last known address to return to work and he will be allowed no more than seven (7) consecutive days from the date of notification to report for duty;

- d) If an employee overstays a leave of absence granted by the Company and the Union without securing an extension in writing of such leave of absence or if he takes employment other than that declared and agreed upon when applying for a leave of absence;
- e) If an employee is absent from work without securing a leave of absence for more than three (3) consecutive working days;
- f) If an employee is laid off and not recalled for a period extending beyond twenty four (24) working months;
- g) If an employee officially retires in writing;
- h) If an employee is laid off in excess of thirteen (13) weeks and requests his severance pay, he will be paid in accordance with the Canada Labour Code on the payday following his request. Receipt of severance shall constitute termination.

Section 8.6 - Leave of Absence Provision

Leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) days will not be granted until a request for same is submitted in writing to both the Union and the Company and mutually agreed upon.

Section 8.7 - Provisions for Retention of Employee's Seniority During Sickness, Injury or Pregnancy

Absence due to a bona fide illness, injury or pregnancy shall not be cause for discharge or loss of seniority providing the Company is notified of such illness, injury or pregnancy. The employee shall notify the Company when he is able to return to work. Pregnancy and childcare leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Canada Labour Code.

Section 8.8 - Political Office

Any employee who is elected to a full time Municipal, Provincial or Federal government office shall be granted a leave of absence in order to allow him to fulfill his elected duties.

ARTICLE 9 - MERGERS

Section 9.1

If the Company acquires by way of purchase or in any other manner the business or undertaking of any other employer and such operations are merged, the seniority of all active employees will be dovetailed including those employees who are off work due to sickness or injury. If the company acquiring the business or undertaking does not require all the employees after the merge, layoff will commence at the bottom of the dovetailed active seniority list, and such employees will remain on the active seniority list for the purpose of recall.

Section 9.2

In the event that any of the Companies affected by the merger have laid off employees prior to the merger, the seniority of those employees will be dovetailed. Such employees will be on the inactive seniority list. If the merged company subsequently requires additional employees preference will be given, subject to the recall provisions of Article 8, first to those laid off employees on the active seniority list, then to those employees on the inactive seniority list in accordance with their seniority and qualifications. If and when an employee who is on the inactive seniority list is recalled and reports for work in accordance with this Article his original seniority will be dovetailed with the seniority of the active employees.

Section 9.3

In the event that the preceding Sections, in the opinion of either Party, shall fail to provide adequate protection of seniority rights at the time of purchase and merger, then the seniority of the employees in the combined operations shall be determined by agreement between the successor Company and the Local Union(s) concerned. If mutual agreement is not reached the conditions outlined in sections 9.1 and 9.2 will apply.

ARTICLE 10 - MOVEMENT OF WORK

Section 10.1

Thirty (30) days prior to moving any work under the jurisdiction of this agreement to another location the Company will advise the Union in writing. During the thirty (30) days prior to the movement of work, the parties shall meet and resolve what employees will move with the work. Employees who move under the provisions of this clause shall be slotted in the new location in accordance with their original anniversary date. Employees moving under these provisions will be given thirty (30) days notice or pay in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE 11 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR WORK WITH THE TEAMSTERS UNION

Section 11.1

The Company agrees to grant to all present employees who are on leave of absence, and all future employees of the Teamsters Union an indefinite leave of absence to work for the Teamsters Union retaining and accumulating seniority with the Company. Such leave of absence shall be revocable upon seventy-two (72) hours' notice by the employee.

ARTICLE 12 - MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS

- a) A medical examination may be required by the Company in individual cases where there is reasonable justification and such medical examinations shall be promptly complied with by the employee provided, however, that the Company shall pay for all such examinations. The Company reserves the right to select its own medical examiner or physician. A report of the examination will be made available to the employee through the doctor designated by the employer.
- b) Wherever possible, any medical examination required by the Company must be taken during the employee's normal working hours, and in all such cases, the employee will be given a minimum of one (1) day's notice and will be paid for the time involved and thus not lose any pay as a result of his taking such medical examination.
- c) If a medical examination must be taken outside normal working hours, the employee will be given a minimum of three (3) days' notice and shall be paid ten dollars ($10.00). If travel outside the municipal boundary of the city of Woodstock is required, a flat amount of $15.00 will be paid to the employee,
- d) The provisions of Section 12.1 do not apply to pre-employment medicals.
- e) No employee shall be required to take a medical examination on a Saturday unless the employee so requests and does so voluntarily.
- f) Any office employee, cleared to return to his regular duties by his doctor shall be allowed to do so upon receipt of medical documentation. This shall not restrict the Company's ability to exercise their rights under section 12.1 a).
