A.8.1 This Agreement shall be effective September 1, 2008 and remain in force until August 31, 2012.

A.8.2 The Agreement shall continue in force from year to year thereafter unless in any year either party shall furnish the other party with notice of intent to re-negotiate this Agreement. Said notice must be given not more than 90 days nor less than 30 days prior to the end of the contract. Notwithstanding this, either party may notify the other, in writing, within the period commencing April 1 prior to the expiration date, that it desires to negotiate this Agreement in accordance with the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

A.8.5 No changes can be made to this Agreement without the mutual written consent of the parties. Amendments to this Agreement may be made by mutual agreement of the parties. This shall include any discrepancies identified subsequent to ratification of this Agreement.

- B.1.2 Employees shall not be required to perform any duties normally and regularly performed by members of other bargaining units, except to the extent that such duties are included as party of the Employees’ regular positions.

ARTICLE B.2 - RELATIONSHIP

- B.2.1 It is agreed that OSSTF and the Employees will not engage in OSSTF activities during working hours or hold meetings at any time on Employer premises without obtaining the prior permission of the Employer. This clause shall not be construed to prevent Employees from engaging in casual conversation relating to OSSTF affairs.
- B.2.1.1 Provided the normal procedure is followed, the Employer will, subject to the usual Employer requirements and policies, grant a permit to the Bargaining Unit for the use of its premises and facilities for the purposes of professional development, membership and executive meetings without permit fee and without additional costs to the Employer.
- B.2.2 The Employer acknowledges that Employees and/or officers of the Bargaining Unit that may be chosen from among the Employees may be required to leave their regular duties for the purpose of presenting grievances at meetings held with the Employer. Permission for such activities will not be unreasonably withheld and will be granted without loss of pay.
- B.2.3 Both the Employer and OSSTF agree there shall be no discrimination against any Employee because of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, record of offences, marital status, family status or handicap in accordance with the Human Rights Code, RSO 1990, as amended from time to time.

- B.2.3.1 Any alleged violation may be dealt with pursuant to the procedures in the Human Rights Code, RSO 1990, and/or the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. Where an alleged harasser is the person who would normally deal with the initial step of the Grievance Procedures, the grievance will automatically be sent forward to the next step.
- B.2.4 The Employer shall advise the Bargaining Unit President when new Employer Policies are available.
- B.2.5 Members of staff beyond the Bargaining Unit will not be expected to photocopy or distribute Bargaining Unit materials.
- B.2.6 The Employer and the Bargaining Unit agree that access to the Employer's communication systems is provided for the purpose of representing Employees in matters related to their terms and conditions of employment, including the administration/implementation of the Collective Agreement, Employer Policies and Procedures. The parties agree such use must be consistent with the provisions of the Collective Agreement and Employer Policies/Procedures, including those governing on-line appropriate use of network resources.

ARTICLE B.3 - COMMUNICATIONS

- B.3.1 The Bargaining Unit shall notify the Employer in writing, of the names of its executive officers and the chairs of its Negotiating and Grievance Committees and of any changes therein, as appropriate.
- B.3.2 The Employer shall provide the Bargaining Unit with the following:
- B.3.2.1 The Employer agrees to inform the Bargaining Unit within ten (10) working days of the name of any Employee covered by this Agreement who was hired, transferred or promoted within the Bargaining Unit or who ceased to be an Employee of the Bargaining Unit as a result of promotion, resignation or retirement. As soon as administratively feasible, the Employer will also provide to the Bargaining Unit contact information on all Employees.

- B.3.3 The Bargaining Unit shall advise the Employer annually of the address for the purpose of sending proper notices and official communications.
- B.3.4 All correspondence from the Bargaining Unit to the Employer arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto shall be forwarded to the person designated by the Employer. The Employer shall advise the Bargaining Unit in writing of the person designated by the Employer and of any changes from time to time.
- B.3.4.1 All correspondence from the Employer to the Bargaining Unit arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto shall be forwarded to the person designated by the Bargaining Unit. The Bargaining Unit shall advise the Employer in writing of the person designated by the Bargaining Unit and of any changes from time to time.

ARTICLE B.4 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT CONSULTATIONS

- B.4.1 The Employer and the Bargaining Unit shall establish and maintain a Labour Management Committee. The Committee shall have as its members up to six (6) Employer representatives and up to six (6) members of the Bargaining Unit. No deduction from the regular pay of the Bargaining Unit members will be made for attendance at such meetings with the Employer held during the Employee's regular work hours.
- B.4.2 The Committee shall determine a meeting schedule each year and may hold additional meetings at the request of either party. In the development of the agenda, the parties will ensure that appropriate personnel are in attendance to deal with the items on the agenda.
- B.4.3 The Committee shall discuss issues of concern to either the Employer or the Bargaining Unit but shall not consider any matter which is under negotiations or which is the subject of a formal grievance under the Grievance Procedures of this Agreement.

ARTICLE B.5 - REPRESENTATION

B.5.1 Negotiation Committee

B.5.1.1 For the purpose of negotiations between the parties, the Employer shall recognize a Negotiating Committee of not more than six (6) Employees who are members of the Bargaining Unit. No deduction from the regular pay of such Employees will be made for attendance at such meetings with the Employer held during the Employee's regular working hours. The Employer agrees that up to two (2) representatives from OSSTF Provincial Office may be present and assist the Negotiating Committee. Upon mutual consent, either party may have authorized legal counsel or an agent to represent and/or to negotiate on its behalf.

B.5.1.2 Upon seventy-two (72) hours notice to the Employer, each of the Bargaining Unit's six (6) Negotiating Committee members will be allowed five (5) days absence from work during the term of this Agreement to prepare for negotiations and will be paid by the Employer for their normal working hours at their regular rates of pay.

B.5.2 Grievance Committee

B.5.2.1 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Bargaining Unit to select bargaining unit representatives on a Grievance Committee. Unless by mutual consent, not more than two (2) grievance representatives shall be present at any meeting for the settlement of a specific grievance.

B.5.2.2 These Grievance Committee members will be allowed time release to attend grievance meetings, and reasonable time release for investigation of grievances prior to arbitration, with the Employer without loss of their regular pay. In all such cases, the Grievance Committee members shall advise their Principals/Supervisors of the time they expect to be absent from work.

ARTICLE B.6 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

B.6.1 If the Employer requires an Employee to meet with his/her Supervisor or designate in order to formally investigate the professional conduct of the Employee or in order to receive a written reprimand, suspension or discharge, the Supervisor will inform the Employee that he/she has the right to have a Bargaining Unit representative present. The Employee has a right to refuse Bargaining Unit representation. If the Employee elects to have Bargaining Unit representation, no discussion of the issues will take place until the Bargaining Unit representative is present in a timely fashion.

Note: See also Letter of Understanding on page 100.

B.6.2 The Bargaining Unit Grievance Committee shall receive a copy of any written reprimand given to an Employee resulting from a meeting at which a representative of the Bargaining Unit has been present.

B.6.3 In determining the disciplinary action to be taken against an Employee, the Employer will take into consideration the Employee's record and the lapse of time since the last disciplinary action.

B.6.3.1 During the probationary period, the Employer shall have the right to discipline, demote, discharge or layoff a probationary new Employee. The new Employee shall have recourse to the Grievance Procedures. It is understood by the parties, for the purpose of discipline, a lesser standard of just cause may apply to a probationary Employee than to an Employee who has completed his/her probationary period.

B.6.4 An Employee shall receive a copy of any written reprimand.

B.6.5 A claim of discharge without just cause by an Employee shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the person designated by the Employer within fifteen (15) working days following written notification of the discharge to the Employee from the Employer. All preliminary steps of the Grievance Procedures prior to Step 2 will be omitted in such case.

B.6.6 The Employer shall not discipline or discharge an Employee without just cause.

B.6.7 In any matter of discipline or discharge, an Employee shall be advised in writing of his/her right to Bargaining Unit representation.

ARTICLE B.7 - GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

B.7.1 Informal Resolution Stage

B.7.1.1 An Employee or group of Employees shall, prior to filing a grievance as hereinafter provided, attempt by informal discussion with the appropriate Supervisor to resolve any matter which could be the subject of a grievance prior to filing a written grievance hereunder. In this discussion the Employee or group of Employees may be accompanied by a representative of the Bargaining Unit. The Supervisor shall state his/her answer verbally within five (5) working days of the meeting.

B.7.2 General Grievance Rules

B.7.2.1 The parties to this Agreement are agreed that it is of the utmost importance to attempt to resolve complaints and grievances as quickly as possible.

B.7.2.2 Within the terms of this Agreement, a grievance is a difference relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

B.7.2.3 Any of the time allowance set out in this Article may be extended by mutual consent in writing.

- B.7.2.4 If the Employer fails to reply to a grievance within the prescribed time limits in any step of the Grievance Procedures, the grievance may be processed to the next higher step following the expiry of the time limit in question.
- B.7.2.5 If a grievance is not processed to the next higher step or to Arbitration in accordance with the prescribed times, or the times as extended by mutual agreement, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.
- B.7.2.6 The Employer and the Bargaining Unit agree to exchange materials to be presented at each step of the Grievance Procedures no later than two (2) full working days prior to the commencement of the meeting scheduled to review the grievance. The material to be exchanged includes copies of all letters, reports, written statements, charts or documents of any kind which will be presented or discussed at the grievance meeting.
- B.7.2.7 For the purposes of notification and communication relating to grievances written notices, facsimiles and e-mails whose receipt has been acknowledged shall be considered sufficient.
- B.7.2.7.1 Notwithstanding B.7.2.7, the final resolution of all grievances shall be in writing and signed by representatives of the Employer and the Bargaining Unit.

B.7.3 Policy Grievances and Group Grievances

- B.7.3.1 Should any difference arise between the Employer and the Bargaining Unit as to the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement affecting the Bargaining Unit as such, the Employees as a whole, or a substantial number of Employees, the Bargaining Unit shall have the right to file a grievance within fifteen (15) working days after a Grievance Committee member or any officer of the Bargaining Unit became aware or might reasonably be expected to have become aware of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance.

B.7.3.1.1 All such grievances shall be filed at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedures as provided in B.7.5.4.

B.7.4 Management Grievances

B.7.4.1 Any grievance instituted by management must be referred in writing to the Bargaining Unit within fifteen (15) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance and representatives of the Bargaining Unit shall meet within five (5) working days thereafter with the person designated by the Employer to consider the grievance. If final settlement of the grievance is not completed within seven (7) working days of such meeting, the grievance may be referred by either party to a Board of Arbitration as provided in Article B.7.5.6 at any time within twenty-one (21) working days thereafter but not later. The parties by mutual consent may place the above-noted timelines in abeyance.

B.7.5 Grievance Procedure

B.7.5.1 A grievance relating to the discharge of an Employee shall be filed at Step 2. In any other event, such grievance shall be filed at Step 1.

B.7.5.2 A grievance relating to the discipline or accommodation of an Employee may be filed at Step 2. In any other event, such grievance shall be filed at Step 1.

B.7.5.3 Step 1

B.7.5.3.1 If no resolution is reached under B.7.1.1, a grievance may be submitted by the Bargaining Unit on behalf of the Employee or group of Employees within the next fifteen (15) working days following the day the cause of the grievance became known or reasonably ought to have been known to the Employee or group of Employees. The grievance shall be submitted to the Director or designate in writing, signed by the President of the Bargaining Unit or designate. A copy shall be given to the appropriate Supervisor.

B.7.5.3.2 The grievance shall state the clause or clauses of this Agreement that it is alleged have been violated and the remedy requested.

B.7.5.3.3 The Director or designate shall attempt to resolve the grievance within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance and may meet with the grievor(s) and the Bargaining Unit representative at a mutually agreeable time.

B.7.5.4 Step 2

B.7.5.4.1 If no settlement is reached at Step 1, the Bargaining Unit on behalf of the Employee or group of Employees may within ten (10) working days, request representatives of the Bargaining Unit and representatives appointed by the Employer to meet to attempt to settle the grievance. The representatives shall meet within ten (10) working days of the Bargaining Unit requesting such a meeting.

B.7.5.4.2 All grievance settlements shall be in writing and signed by both the Employer and the Bargaining Unit. Should the parties fail to reach a settlement, the Employer shall provide its denial of the grievance, and reasons for the denial, in writing. The written settlement or denial, as the case may be, shall be produced within seven (7) working days of the final meeting between the parties under this stage of the Grievance Procedures.

B.7.5.5 Grievance Mediation Procedure

B.7.5.5.1 Once the Grievance Procedure has been exhausted, and prior to referring the matter to arbitration, the parties, by mutual consent in writing, may elect to resolve the grievance by using grievance mediation. The parties shall agree on the individual to be the mediator and the time frame in which a resolution is to be reached. The timelines in the Grievance Procedure shall be frozen at the time the parties mutually agreed in writing to use the grievance mediation procedure. Upon written notification of either party to the other party indicating that the grievance mediation is terminated, the timelines in the grievance/arbitration procedure shall continue from the point at which they were frozen.

B.7.5.6 Arbitration Procedure

B.7.5.6.1 If the grievance is denied and a satisfactory settlement is not reached within seven (7) working days after written notification of the decision in Step 2, the grievance may be referred by either party to a Board of Arbitration, as provided in Article B.7.5.6, or an Arbitrator, as provided in Article B.7.5.7, at any time within twenty-one (21) working days after the aforementioned seven (7) working days. The parties by mutual consent may place the above noted timelines in abeyance.

B.7.5.6.2 Notwithstanding B.7.5.6.1 nothing precludes the parties from agreeing to proceed to expedited arbitration under the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

B.7.5.6.3 The Board of Arbitration will be composed of one (1) person appointed by the Employer, and one (1) person appointed by OSSTF, and a third person to act as Chairperson chosen by the other two (2) members of the Board of Arbitration.

B.7.5.6.4 Within five (5) working days of the request by either party for a Board of Arbitration, each party shall notify the other of the name of its nominee.

B.7.5.6.5 Should the person chosen by the Employer to act on the Board of Arbitration and the person chosen by OSSTF fail to agree on a third person within twenty-one (21) working days of the notification mentioned in the above, the Minister of Labour of the Province of Ontario will be asked to nominate someone experienced in labour arbitration to act as Chairperson.

B.7.5.6.6 The decision of a Board of Arbitration or arbitrator constituted in the above manner shall be binding on both parties.

B.7.5.6.7 The Board of Arbitration or arbitrator shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions for the existing provisions. The Board of Arbitration or arbitrator shall have the power to modify penalties including disciplinary penalties but shall not by decision add to, delete from, modify or otherwise amend the provisions of this Agreement.

B.7.5.6.8 Any grievance concerning the disciplinary action, suspension or discharge of an Employee may be settled by confirming the Management's action, or by reinstating the Employee with full compensation for time lost, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties, or the Board of Arbitration or arbitrator.

B.7.5.6.9 Each of the parties to this Agreement will bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by it; and the parties will jointly bear the expenses, if any, of the Chairperson. The parties shall pay their own expenses of appearing at the hearing.

B.7.5.7 Expedited Arbitration Procedure

B.7.5.7.1 Individual grievances shall be processed through the Expedited Arbitration Procedure. Group, Policy and Management grievances shall be referred to arbitration in the manner outlined in Articles B.7.5.6 and B.7.4.
