An Employee eligible for a $200 allowance in a calendar year and resigns at the end of June would be eligible for $100. If they had already claimed the full $200, they would be deducted $100 on their final pay.

16.08 Floater Days

Employees who have successfully completed their probation period will have one paid floating day to be used at the Employees' discretion to minimize wages lost for missing one shift (either eight (8) or ten (10) hours). The Employee shall provide the Company with as much notice as possible. Further, one (1) working days notice is required when using single floater days as vacation and seven (7) calendar days notice is required when using multiple floaters as vacation.

Part-time Employees' floater pay will be pro-rated based on their regularly scheduled hours.

Eligibility is based on an Employee's anniversary date.

When an Employee reaches their second anniversary up to and including the year of their seventh year of employment, the Employee will have one additional floater day (maximum of two each year). When an Employee reaches their eighth anniversary up to and including the year of their thirteenth year of employment, the Employee will have one additional floater day (maximum of three each year). When an Employee reaches their fourteenth anniversary of employment and in each year up to and including the year of their nineteenth year of employment, the Employee will have one additional floater day (maximum of four each calendar year). When an Employee reaches their twentieth anniversary of employment and in each year thereafter, the Employee will have one additional floater day (maximum of five each year).

If not used by the end of the year, the Company will pay the Employee eight (8) hours pay at year-end for each unused floater. If an Employee gives their resignation they will no longer be eligible to use their floaters. If an Employee leaves for any reason before using the floater(s), the Company will pro-rate the money to be paid the Employee based on a maximum of eight (8) hours. At the start of a layoff, an Employee may request the floater(s) to be paid out on their final pay.

- 16.09 The Company will provide a meal allowance for Employees who travel for work purposes. The allowance is paid at the rate of thirty-five ($35.00) dollars per full day or eight ($8.00) dollars for breakfast, twelve ($12.00) dollars for lunch and fifteen ($15.00) dollars for supper for meals missed during partial days.

The first Humanity Fund deduction as aforesaid shall be the fifth (5th) week following the ratification of this Agreement.

It is understood and agreed that participation by any Employee in the bargaining unit in the program of deductions set forth above may be discontinued by any Employee in the bargaining unit after the receipt by the Company and the Local Union of that Employee's written statement of his desire to discontinue such deductions from their pay which may be received during the four (4) weeks following ratification of the Agreement or at any time thereafter.

It is agreed that the total for each Employee's yearly deduction will be entered in Box 46 (Charitable Contribution) of the Revenue Canada T4 slip for the year it has been deducted. For this purpose, the payroll department will note the following Charitable Donation number for the "Humanity Fund": R119172278RR0001.

- b. The Company will remit the contribution directly to the Local Union.
- c. The Company will remit such accumulated contributions for each 4-week period (two pay periods) within fourteen (14) days of the end of each 4-week period with a written statement of the number of Employees employed by the Company and the total hours worked by all Employees.
- d. The Union, in its sole discretion, will determine the uses of the Fund. The Fund will be used to develop and deliver programs and to pay for administration costs, time lost from work to attend education and training, travel and accommodation and such other reasonable costs as are deemed appropriate regarding the operation and administration of the Fund.

ARTICLE 18

The Company, the Employees, and the Union will promote a work environment that is free from discrimination and harassment, and where all Employees are treated with respect and dignity. The Company will identify and allocate resources for communicating this policy to all of our employees and implementing the policy at all levels of corporate activity.

HUMAN RIGHTS PROVISIONS

18.01 Discrimination under the Saskatchewan Human Rights Code

Discrimination refers to any of the prohibited grounds contained in The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code. Employees have the right to employment without discrimination because of race, creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, family status, marital status, disability, physical size or weight, age, nationality, ancestry or place of origin, receipt of public assistance, political beliefs, or membership or activity in the Union.

18.02 Harassment

In accordance with The Saskatchewan Employment Act (2014) and The Occupational Health and Safety Regulations (1996), harassment is strictly prohibited.

Harassment is defined as any inappropriate conduct, comment, display, action or gesture by a person that either:

- (i) Is based on a prohibited ground; or
 - (ii) adversely affects the worker's psychological or physical well-being and that the person knows or ought reasonably to know would cause a worker to be humiliated or intimidated; and
 - (iii) that constitutes a threat to the health or safety of the Prohibited conduct may be verbal, non-verbal, physical, deliberate or unintended, unsolicited or unwelcome, as determined by a reasonable person. It may be one incident or a series of incidents depending on the context.
- a. All allegations of harassment will be taken seriously and investigated. No person can or will be subject to any type of retaliation for reporting harassment. However, spurious or obviously unfounded allegations of harassment will also be investigated and may be subject to discipline.
 - b. Protection against harassment extends to incidents occurring at or away from the workplace, and during or outside working hours, provided the acts are committed within the course of the employment relationship.
 - c. Harassment does not include actions occasioned through exercising in good faith the Company's Managerial/Supervisory rights and responsibilities.
 - d. This harassment policy shall be communicated to all employees through orientations, toolbox/safety meetings and training events.

The provisions for seeking just remedy and restitution in an alleged case of harassment, as described below in this Article, do not preclude an Employee from filing a complaint with an outside agency such as the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission or Occupational Health and Safety in the Ministry of Labour Relations and Workplace Safety; however, an Employee shall not be entitled to duplication of process. If a complaint is filed under the Code, then that Employee shall not be entitled to the complaint process in Clauses 18.04 and 18.05 of this Article. In either event, a complaint of harassment or sexual harassment shall not form the basis of a grievance.

This provision is not intended to discourage or prevent the complainant from exercising any other legal rights pursuant to any other law.

18.03 Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a form of prohibited discrimination, as described above in Article 18.01. It is defined as engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct of a sexual nature that may detrimentally affect the work environment or lead to adverse job related consequences for the harassee, and is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome.

The Company, its Employees, and the Union recognize and respect the right of Employees to work in an environment free from sexual harassment. The Company, its Employees, and the Union shall take such actions as are necessary respecting an Employee engaging in sexual harassment in the workplace.

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to:

- A person in authority asking an Employee for sexual favors in return for being hired or receiving promotions or other employment benefits;
- Sexual advances with actual or implied work related consequences;
- Unwelcome remarks, questions, jokes or innuendo of a sexual nature, including sexist comments or sexual invitations;
- Verbal abuse, intimidation, or threats of a sexual nature;
- Leering, staring or making sexual gestures;

- Display of pornographic or other sexual materials;
- Offensive pictures, graffiti, cartoons or sayings;
- Unwanted physical contact such as touching, patting, pinching, hugging; and
- Physical assault of a sexual nature.

This definition of sexual harassment is not meant to inhibit interactions or relationships based on mutual consent or normal social contact between Employees.

18.04 Complaint Procedures

The employee may approach Management as an informal option of resolving a complaint of harassment or sexual harassment, and shall be accompanied by a Shop Steward if they so requests.

In the event that informal options are inappropriate or unsuccessful in addressing a complaint, the following shall apply:

- a. An Employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may submit a complaint in writing within thirty (30) days of the latest alleged occurrence, through the designated Union Representative, directly to the Human Resource Manager. Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by both the Union and the Company;
- b. An Alleged Offender shall be given notice of the substance of such a complaint under this Article and shall be entitled to attend, participate in, and be represented at any hearing under this Article;
- c. The Human Resource Manager or designate and the Union Representative shall investigate the complaint and shall submit a joint report to the Plant Manager, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the complaint. The Plant Manager shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of the report, give such directives as may be necessary to resolve the issue;
- d. The Company will not disclose the name of a complainant or an alleged harasser or the circumstances related to the complaint to any person except where disclosure is:
 - (i) necessary for the purposes of investigating the complaint or taking corrective action with respect to the complaint; or
 - (ii) required by law.
- e. The Plant Manager may take interim measures to separate the Employees concerned if deemed necessary, pending determination and resolution of the complaint;
- f. In cases where harassment may result in the transfer of an Employee, every effort will be made to relocate the Alleged Offender; except that the Harassee may be transferred with their written consent;
- g. Where the Complainant, the Alleged Offender, and the Union are satisfied with the Plant Manager's decision, the procedure shall be at an end and not subject to further proceedings or the grievance procedure.

18.05 Mediation/Arbitration process

Where either the Complainant, the Alleged Offender, or the Union are not satisfied with the Plant Manager's response, the complaint will, within thirty (30) days, be put before a mutually agreed upon Mediator/Arbitrator who specializes in cases of harassment or sexual harassment.

The Mediator/Arbitrator shall have the right to:

- (i) dismiss the complaint;
- (ii) determine the appropriate level of corrective action or discipline to be applied to the Offender; and,
- (iii) make further recommendations as are necessary to provide a final and conclusive settlement of the complaint.

18.06 An Alleged Offender under this Article shall not be entitled to grieve disciplinary action taken by the Company which is consistent with the decision of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 19

DUTY TO ACCOMMODATE

The Company and the Union recognize that there exists a duty to accommodate Employees with disabilities. Therefore, the Parties agree to meet and discuss the situation of any Employee with a disability to explore what steps may reasonably be taken in the workplace to accommodate the Employee's disability. These steps will be implemented provided it does not cause undue hardship to the Company.

ARTICLE 20

TRANSFERS BETWEEN (ANNAHEIM, MOOSE JAW AND SASKATOON) BRANCHES

Any Employee requesting a transfer between branches must submit their request in writing to the Human Resource Department. All transfer requests will remain valid for two (2) months time. After the two (2) months time the Employee is required to submit another request if they are still interested in a transfer.

While a transfer request is pending, all job openings within the bargaining unit will be posted at the applicable two (2) branches. If there are no internal bids on an open position, the transfer request will be considered provided the Employee has the minimum skills and ability for the opening.

If the Employee accepts the transfer, all benefits and vacation entitlements will continue uninterrupted. However, in this situation, seniority would be lost for the purposes of layoff, recall, bumping rights, and promotions as per Article 9. The date the Employee begins the position, once the transfer is complete, will be the new date of seniority.

If the Employee transfers into a different classification, they will be on a trial period for thirty (30) calendar days, with a minimum of one hundred thirty (130) hours actually worked. During this trial period, the Employee must demonstrate that they can satisfy the requirements of the job. Should the Employee be unable to satisfy the requirements of the job during the trial period, or should they decide during the trial period that they do not want to continue in the job, then the Employee will be returned to their former job. In such cases, the Company shall have the right to require all Employees who previously changed job positions to accommodate the Employee's trial period, to move back into the jobs they occupied prior to the trial period.

All personal transfer costs (i.e. relocation, travel, real estate fees) are the responsibility of the Employee.

The Company and the Union agree that the Company may hire no more than twenty (20) Employees on a term basis for periods of up to six (6) months in any one (1) year period per individual. RE: Shift Preference Based on Seniority

The Company and the Union agree to the following:

An Employee who works in a position requiring rotating shift work may formally request a shift preference. The Company will give due consideration to each Employee's request by attempting to match all written requests within each job classification and Crew Chief positions based on seniority.

This letter excludes Levels 1 and 2A Employees

For the purposes of this letter only, within the welding classification a level 3 welder and level 2B welder would be considered a match.

Level 2B and 3 finishers and level 3 and 4 metal fabricators will be considered a match for the purposes of this letter only.

Matches from other departments will be considered at the time of request. The Company will not unreasonably deny such a request.

In the event a request cannot be accommodated, the Company will respond to the Employee in writing specifying the reason the request will not be accommodated. An Employee will be considered for a shift preference once they've completed nine months of full-time employment. The nine-month timeframe may be shortened based on the past experience, training, and skills and abilities of the Employee making the request.

Requests may be submitted at any time. Employees approved for a preferred shift will remain on the shift for a minimum of 4 months. At any time during the shift preference period, if the matching Employee were to be terminated or leave their classification, or a more senior Employee changes their shift preference, the most-junior Employee in the same classification would continue on the preferred shift for 30 days prior to being required to move back to the standard rotation, unless a new match can be found within that period.

Shift preferences in effect at this time will remain in effect. New requests will be considered at any time throughout the term of the agreement and will be considered with the first suitable matching request.

As business requirements change, the Company reserves the right to review these accommodations and the Employee may be required to resume the standard shift rotation, in-which case the Employee will be given thirty days' notice.

In the event of an unforeseen circumstance, and prior to the removal of an Employee from their shift preference, the Company will first ask for volunteers. Failing that the junior Employee shall fill the vacant position until the situation is resolved. If necessary the position will be posted and filled and at which time the affected Employee will return to their shift preference.

The affected Employee shall be entitled to time and one half for the first day worked. Any premiums to which the Employee would normally be entitled shall apply. The union will be consulted prior to any changes in these situations.

This letter of understanding is effective until the end of the term of the Agreement.
