- 9.04 An employee attaining seniority shall have thirty (30) days from the posting of the first seniority list containing their name to advise the Employer of any errors with respect to their respective seniority dates. Thereafter, the employee shall be deemed to have accepted the seniority dates posted.
- 9.05 Where two (2) or more employees have the same service and seniority date, they shall be placed on the seniority list in an order determined by lottery. The lottery will be conducted by a Union Representative by arrangement between the parties and will be provided to the Employer on the day of the draw. Previous Lottery dates for same date of hire stand as is.
- 9.06 The Employer may terminate the employment of a probationary employee so long as the termination does not occur solely for bad faith.

Where an employee is acting in the capacity of a Table Games Inspector, it is understood that their duties are not management responsibility and are the subject of this Collective Agreement.

The Employer will make efforts to ensure that scheduled hours in the Dual role will be equalized over a reasonable period. It is understood that this is subject to both operational considerations and the skill and ability to perform the available work and employees must identify to the Employer where they have concerns over the scheduling so that these may be addressed.

Where a Dual previously held a base position at OLG Casino Brantford and wishes to return to that position, he or she will provide at least two (2) weeks notice and when operationally possible, and has the skill, ability and qualification, will be returned to his or her base position. Where a Dual has not held a base position, he or she may at any point after six (6) months in the role may apply for any posting in the Casino.

It is agreed that where an employee has agreed to act as a Dual Rate Supervisor, the Employer will ensure that this person is identifiable as a Supervisor to employees in the bargaining unit. A Dual Rate Supervisor is a Supervisor, and the Employer will not agree to limits on the duties or selection thereof. However, as discussed, the Employer will remain aware of the issues that could potentially arise if these individuals impose discipline. Similarly, it is agreed that a Dual Rate Supervisor cannot be a Union Steward.

In selecting vacation, it is understood that Dual Rate Supervisors/Dual Rate Table Games Inspectors should select independently of Supervisors and their primary position as this role forms part of the system of ensuring that there is adequate coverage. This system will have regard to their seniority in the primary role. Duals vacation pay calculation will be paid as a blended rate based upon the ratio of time spent as a Dual.

A Dual, when requested to move to a Dual position while at work, shall remain in the Dual position for the balance of his or her shift.

Dual Rate Supervisors will be paid based on their regular classification hourly rate with an add to pay established by the Employer for each hour worked in the Dual role and responsibilities. The Dual employees will continue to be part of the bargaining unit and will continue to pay dues in accordance with the dues structure based on all hours worked and the primary position rate of pay regardless of hours worked outside the primary role.

When a dealer is working in the capacity of a Table Games Inspector they will receive the base wage rate as identified in the SEIU collective agreement.

- 11.08 Grievances regarding layoff shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure but must be initiated within the ten (10) days required for filing of all grievances.
- 11.09 The Employer shall maintain the payment of its share of any applicable benefit premiums up to the end of the month following the month of layoff or such longer period as is required under the Employment Standards Act.
- 11.10 After backfilling any job where there is estimated to be a temporary vacancy of more than thirty (30) work days, the Employer will recall the senior laid off employee who is able to perform the job which has been vacated by the backfilling employee.
- 11.11 Laid off employees will be considered applicants for all job postings in the bargaining unit during their recall period and will be given priority over all external candidates.
- 11.12 OLG's Family Policy will apply to all recalls.

ARTICLE 12 – NO HARASSMENT/NO DISCRIMINATION

- 12.01 In accordance with the provisions of the Labour Relations Act, the Employer, employees and the Union agree that there will be no harassment or discrimination exercised or practised by them or their representatives because of membership or non-membership, activity or lack of activity in the Union.
- 12.02 The Employer, employees and the Union agree they all have rights and obligations under the Ontario Human Rights Code to ensure a workplace free from discrimination on the basis of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, record of offences, marital status, family status or disability.
- 12.03 It is recognized that where there is a complaint of harassment or discrimination that is occurring amongst union members in the bargaining unit, the Union should be provided with an opportunity to address the issue. However, it will be at the discretion of the employee as to whether the Union will be involved. The Union may establish its own policy for doing so although nothing in this policy will detract from the Employer's ability to address such an issue if a complaint is made to it or if the behaviour is having an impact on the management of the workplace. Where the Employer receives a complaint amongst bargaining unit members, it will inform the Union.

- 12.04 OLG Human Rights policy will be made available to all employees and the Employer agrees that it will conduct training around this policy, including offering training to the Union Committee Persons. The Employer and the Union agree to meet and jointly discuss the Harassment policy and the CAW policy including complaint resolution procedures to be used under 12.03.

ARTICLE 13 – HOURS OF WORK

- 13.01 (a) The normal hours of work for all full-time employees shall be eight and one half (8 ½) hour shift (inclusive of lunch and breaks) per day and the normal work week shall be five (5) days. The normal daily hours of work shall not be construed as a guarantee of any minimum number of hours. All full-time employees will be scheduled at least forty-eight (48) consecutive hours off work in every work week except in those emergency instances where there are no available non-overtime employees or where required for a rotational schedule changeover or subject to a negotiated work week agreement.
- (b) Should the Employer and the Union agree to establish a shift schedule or negotiated work week arrangement for any Department requiring regular shifts longer than eight and one half (8 ½) hours per day, the Agreement, if so stated, will become an appendix to this Agreement and will be enforceable as part of this Agreement.
- 13.02 The Employer will post the various working schedules in appropriate locations at least two (2) weeks in advance. The Employer will give at least forty-eight (48) hours of notice of its intent to change an employee's schedule, unless the change is approved by the affected employee or in case of an emergency or circumstance outside the control of the Employer.
- 13.03 The Employer will establish a full-time schedule for each department. Following approval of a first seniority list, full-time employees will be offered a one time shift bid based on seniority (having regard to classification and qualifications). Where there are substantial changes to the schedule and otherwise not more than once per year there will be shift bids.
- 13.04 A shift schedule for part-time employees will be posted at least fourteen (14) days prior to the commencement of the shift for that work already available and known to be required at the time of posting ("core schedule").
- 13.05 It is understood that the posted core part-time schedule is subject to change as shifts become available, are no longer required and/or are assigned.

Following the posting of the core schedule, part-time employees shall review the schedule and maintain contact with their Supervisor and where further shifts become available they will be assigned as set out below. Where a part-time employee is not at work on the day the shift is posted nor scheduled again prior to the newly assigned shift, he or she will be called by the Employer. Employees must be available to receive such calls by maintaining a voice mail system or by returning calls on call display and failure to maintain such a system relieves the Employer of its obligations.

- 13.06 The available core hours will be distributed as equitably as possible amongst the part-time employees having regard to shift preference.

The part-time employees will each submit, and may amend on one (1) month of notice, a Shift Preference sheet indicating his or her preferred core shift and these preferences will be used in the assignment of core shifts by seniority.

After the core schedule has been posted, where additional shifts become available for work these will be assigned on a seniority-rotation basis to part-time employees.

- 13.07 Schedule Adjustments

Where a part-time employee knows absolutely that he or she is not going to be available for work, he or she may request a schedule adjustment. Each part-time employee may request up to six (6) schedule adjustments per calendar year. All such requests must be submitted to scheduling at least two (2) weeks in advance.

- 13.08 Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or an agreement under 13.01(b), employees shall receive a thirty (30) minute unpaid lunch period, provided the employee is working a shift in excess of five (5) hours.

- 13.09 Table game dealers shall work on a schedule without a lunch under 13.08 and will instead receive twenty (20) minute breaks after each sixty (60) minutes of dealing. All of these breaks, save and except thirty (30) minutes in lieu of lunch, shall be paid breaks.

- 13.10 Switching Shifts

With a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours notice prior to the shift, an employee can switch a shift with a co-worker in the same classification and with the same qualifications. The employees involved must submit the shift switch in accordance with the Employer's procedure for doing so. The Manager or designate may approve a shift switch with less than forty-eight (48) hours notice at his/her discretion where there are extenuating circumstances.

Part-time employees may regularly work in excess of twenty-four (24) hours per week when replacing employees on a shift switch.

No employee shall accept or solicit any monetary or other type of gain as the result of a shift switch. Any infraction of this Article will result in appropriate disciplinary action.

- 13.11 The Employer will not be responsible or liable for overtime rate claims that might arise or occur as a result of the exchange of shifts. Employees will not be allowed to work more than twelve (12) hours in a day nor consecutive shifts on the same day unless the employee had ten (10) hours rest between shifts.

ARTICLE 14 – PAID REST PERIOD

- 14.01 Save and except for Dealers, employees will be provided with a fifteen (15) minute paid rest period during each half shift. This rest period cannot commence before the end of the first hour of an employee's shift nor shall the rest period be given before one (1) hour has elapsed after an employee's lunch period. Employees will also be provided with an additional fifteen (15) minute paid rest period if they are scheduled to work more than ten (10) hours.
- 14.02 Employees working shifts of six (6) hours or less will only be provided with one (1) fifteen (15) minute paid rest period.
- 14.03 Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, with individual agreement employees may take their rest periods at different times and in a different manner than specified in this Article.
- 14.04 Paid breaks will be taken on location and all breaks will be taken away from the gaming area out of the public eye and in a designated area.
- 14.05 If employees are required to work more than three (3) hours beyond a regularly scheduled shift of at least eight (8) hours in length, with less than two (2) hours notice of the overtime, they will be eligible to receive a meal voucher (up to a maximum of $7.00) upon their request. The meal vouchers have no cash value, no balance is payable and cannot be transferred to another employee. If the employee receives three (3) or more meal vouchers in one (1) week, they will be subject to tax requirements as per Canada Revenue Agency.

ARTICLE 15 – OVERTIME PAY

- 15.01 All time worked by an employee in excess of their scheduled eight (8) hours worked in a day or forty (40) hours worked in a week will be paid at the rate of time and one half (1 ½) the employee's regular straight time rate. Where an employee is absent due to bereavement, vacation leave or a lieu day (paid or unpaid), such hours not worked will count towards calculating the hours referred to herein. This provision may be amended as part of a negotiated work week arrangement.
- 15.02 For the purpose of this Article, the "week" commences at 12:01 a.m. Monday morning. For the purpose of this Article, a "day" means a calendar day commencing at 12:01 a.m.
- 15.03 In no case shall there be a duplication or pyramiding of overtime or any other premium compensation.
- 15.04 An employee working in excess of forty (40) hours in a work week (inclusive of hours worked on a Paid Holiday as provided for in Article 30 of the Collective Agreement during the same work week), shall qualify for overtime pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in such work week and this shall not be considered a duplication or pyramiding of premium compensation.

ARTICLE 16 – OVERTIME EQUALIZATION

- 16.01 Scheduled overtime will be evenly distributed when reasonably possible among those employees in the same classification and on the same shift provided they are able to satisfactorily perform the work to be done. In the event an employee voluntarily misses a turn at such overtime, the employee shall be considered as having worked that turn insofar as distribution of such overtime is concerned.
- 16.02 When the Employer requires an employee to work overtime that is not scheduled more than forty-eight (48) hours in advance, the Employer will invite employees to work overtime in accordance with the following procedure:
- (a) The classification in which the overtime is required will be identified.
 - (b) Employees in that classification who are presently at work and who express interest will be invited to work the overtime starting with the full-time employee(s) who records show has actually worked the least overtime over the past three (3) months.

- (c) If insufficient employees volunteer to work overtime, the Employer will advise the most junior qualified worker in the classification, on a seniority-rotation basis, to perform such work. In such circumstances the employee will not be required to work in excess of two (2) hours beyond their regularly scheduled shift. This rotation will be reset on the first of each month.
- 16.03 New hires and employees transferred from one classification to another will be credited with the average number of overtime hours of the employees in that classification.
- 16.04 If the Union feels that the overtime has been distributed improperly, they may request and the Employer will provide a copy of their overtime tracking for that classification. Any verified claim of improper distribution in a classification shall result in the employee being given an opportunity to work overtime in his or her classification within seven (7) days of verification or if overtime is unavailable, the employee will be paid the missed overtime. Such overtime will not displace another employee.

ARTICLE 17 – JOB POSTING AND SHIFT SCHEDULE POSTING

- 17.01 Where a full-time shift/line becomes available, the Employer will post, within thirty (30) days, the availability of a shift/line and days off schedule for three (3) days and will assign the shift/line to the most senior qualified full-time employee in the classification who expresses a desire by placing his or her name on the notice and indicating his or her shift/line and schedule preference. The next two (2) subsequent shift/line vacancies will be filled as part of the same process above. Once this process is complete the Employer may continue to post the vacant shift/line or may assign the necessary shifts amongst part-time employees. It is the responsibility of interested employees to indicate their interest in the posting in writing on a Departmental Shift Posting Form.
- 17.02 In the event new jobs (full-time or part-time) are created or vacancies in existing job classifications occur and the Employer intends to fill the vacancy, the Employer will post such new jobs or vacancies in order to allow any employee to apply. The job posting will include the classification, department, and may include the starting shift and days off. It is understood that, in any event, the starting shift and schedule will be the remaining one following the shift schedule process in 17.01. Where the Employer requires a temporary full-time replacement expected to exceed three (3) months in duration, this absence will be subject to this posting procedure. Required temporary part-time replacements, where a part-time employee is expected to be absent for in excess of six (6) months, will also be subject to this procedure.

- 17.03 The Employer will provide the Union with a list of all applicants after the posting has closed and will also provide notice of the successful applicant(s). If an employee grieves a job competition under this Article, the Employer will provide, at the Step 2 meeting, the documents and records upon which it relied in the making of its decision.
- 17.04 Postings shall clearly indicate the deadline date for the application and the location or persons to whom applications shall be made. The posting period shall be for not less than five (5) calendar days from the date of posting. The successful applicant will be placed in the new position as soon as possible once their previous position has been filled (or such earlier time at the Employer's discretion) and it is understood that subsequent vacancies arising from a posting also will be posted for five (5) calendar days.
- 17.05 No applicant from outside the bargaining unit will be hired unless the posting and selection process is completed and no bargaining unit applicant was selected. If no applications are received from seniority employees, or if none of the applicants are awarded the posted vacancy, the Employer may fill the vacancy in such manner as it determines.
- 17.06 Preference for full-time postings will be given to part-time employees currently working in the classification where the vacancy exists. Accordingly, the position will be offered to the most senior part-time applicant from within the classification having regard to an acceptable file review. The Employer will establish a threshold for the file review and will discuss the threshold with the Union prior to posting the position. Only applicants who meet the minimum threshold will be considered.
- Should the position not be filled by a part-time applicant from within the job classification, bargaining unit applicants from outside the job classification will be considered. Where more than one (1) applicant from outside of the job classification applies for a position vacancy, the position will be offered to the most senior applicant who successfully completes a skill and ability assessment and has an acceptable file review. The Employer will establish a threshold for the skill and ability assessment and file review and will discuss the threshold with the Union prior to posting the position. Only applicants who meet the minimum threshold will be considered.
- 17.07 An employee who is the successful bidder to a job in a different classification pursuant to this Article will be subject to a trial period of twenty (20) working days. Such period may be extended based on mutual consent of the Employer and the Union. If an employee does not successfully complete the twenty (20) day trial period, either by resigning or being unsuccessful, the employee will be returned to his or her previous position (including shift and days off) if it still exists, and other employees affected thereby will be returned to their previous positions on a similar basis. Thereafter, the original vacancy will be filled by the next eligible applicant on the original posting, in accordance with the posting provisions of this Agreement.

- 17.08 Successful applicants will be afforded required training in their new position.
- 17.09 Where an employee bids or posts to a new schedule, his or her approved and scheduled vacation will only be honoured where it can be accommodated in the schedule of the new shift.
- 17.10 Employees on an approved leave of absence who have a foreseeable date for return to work shall be entitled to post on positions during their leaves of absence. Should such employees be the successful applicant, the position will be filled pursuant to the provisions of Article 17.01, until such time as the person on leave returns to work.
- 17.11 Should any full-time temporary position under this Article be filled by a part-time employee, they shall, for the duration of the Temporary Posting, be afforded part-time benefits at no cost to themselves.
- 17.12 Where a full-time employee submits a written request to become a part-time employee in the same classification, the request will be provided to the Union. In the event the Employer is willing to approve the change in status it is agreed this will only occur where more senior full-time employees have been given the opportunity in advance.

ARTICLE 18 – PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

- 18.01 All references to employees in the Collective Agreement apply to part-time employees, except as specifically provided (or as amended by this Article) or as required by construction of the Agreement.
- 18.02 The parties recognize that the nature of the Employer requires the use of part-time employees to meet the demands of its business.
- 18.03 The parties further recognize the preference of the Union to have as many full-time employees as is reasonable in the business. It is recognized that in order to meet operational needs, the employment of part-time employees is necessary. The Employer will maximize the number of full-time positions available.
- 18.04 Part-time employees will be given shift and rest days preference by seniority.
- 18.05 Part-time employees, except those on temporary full-time postings, will not regularly work in excess of twenty-four (24) hours per week except in the following circumstances:

- (i) When replacing employees absent due to illness or injury for a known duration;
 - (ii) When replacing employees absent due to vacation leave or Union leave;
 - (iii) When working the Christmas Holiday Season (mid-December to early January);
 - (iv) Due to increase in patron volume as a result of unique or short term business needs;
 - (v) In the event of emergency;
 - (vi) As a result of shift switches and/or shift giveaways.
- 18.06 Part-time employees cannot regularly be scheduled to work more than five (5) consecutive days in a row, without the employee's consent. The Employer will endeavour to provide forty-eight (48) consecutive hours of rest to part-time employees who work five (5) consecutive days.

ARTICLE 19 – TEMPORARY TRANSFERS

19.01 An employee temporarily transferred by the Employer to a higher rated classification in the bargaining unit will receive the higher rate or their own rate, whichever is higher, for the work performed in the higher classification. To be eligible for this pay the employee must work greater than one (1) hour continuously in the higher rated classification and must be willing and able to perform any and all duties of the position in order to be eligible for the higher rate.

An employee who is transferred by the Employer to a lower rated classification in the bargaining unit will maintain his or her rate of pay in effect at the time of such transfer, for the duration of the transfer.

An employee exercising seniority rights to transfer to a lower rated position in the bargaining unit will receive the rate of the lower classification based on their current step progression.

ARTICLE 20 – TRANSFERS OUT OF THE BARGAINING UNIT

20.01 Employees who are or have been appointed or selected for a supervisory position, or for any position not subject to the provisions of this Agreement, will not be covered by the provisions of this Agreement. However, an employee transferred out of a bargaining unit and who is later transferred by the Employer back to a position which is covered by this Agreement will be credited with the seniority the employee had accumulated immediately prior to transfer out of the bargaining unit.

If the transfer of an employee back into the bargaining unit necessitates an employee with less seniority being displaced, the employee in the classification with the least seniority shall be displaced.

- 20.02 Employees having been employed only in positions outside the bargaining unit, if subsequently transferred to a bargaining unit position, will be considered new employees for the purpose of seniority.

ARTICLE 21 – NEW CLASSIFICATIONS

- 21.01 When a new classification is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer will establish a wage rate and classification for such a new job and agrees to discuss with the Union its rationale for the rate. Vacancies within new classifications shall be posted with sufficient description of the work to be performed within thirty (30) calendar days of the start-up of the new position and any experience gained as a result of a temporary assignment will not be considered as qualification for the posting. The posting will be filled in accordance with the job posting provisions of the Collective Agreement.
- 21.02 The Employer will provide the Union with copies of its job descriptions for all bargaining unit classifications. In the event that new job classifications are created, the Union will be notified and will receive a job description when such is prepared.

ARTICLE 22 – TRAINING

- 22.01 Save and except for Dealer training as outlined in Article 23 and any voluntary training, all training provided by the Employer will be paid training and will be provided during regularly scheduled hours of work. Where such training of employees is done outside regular scheduled hours it will be paid at the applicable rate.

ARTICLE 23 – DEALER

- 23.01 Schedule "A" of this Agreement provides different hourly rates of pay for dealers based on number of table games the dealer is capable of performing. Those games are defined below:

Game 1 – Blackjack including all variations

Game 2 – Novelty Games (eg: Caribbean Stud, 3 Card Poker, Let It Ride, War, Pai Gow or other novelty games)

Game 3 – Baccarat

Game 4 – Roulette

Game 5 – Hold ‘em

Game 6 - Craps

23.02 The Employer may require an employee to return to their former level if they do not meet the expected performance standards while dealing a new game on a live table during the first eighty (80) hours worked or ninety (90) calendar days, whichever comes first. In the event that an employee is unable to continue to deal a game or the game is no longer offered at the Casino any applicable game increment they have received will be removed and the employee's wage shall be reduced by the said increment.

23.03 Fair game rotation will be provided by the Employer, wherever possible, and having regard to the dealer level and games.

23.04 For the purpose of this Agreement, Games that require four (4) hours or less of training do not constitute additional games (“novelty games”).

23.05 It is agreed that there will be no more than six (6) levels of dealer and in the event new games are added, the Employer agrees to discuss the placement of this game within the levels with the union.

23.06 It is understood that all Dealers will develop to a Dealer 2 within one (1) year of commencing employment. Where a Dealer has developed games, he or she will maintain competency.

23.07 Brantford Dealer Training

(a) Where the Employer determines that additional dealers are required for any new or existing games, the Employer will offer training. Training opportunities will be posted containing the following information:

- Game
- Selected Shift
- Duration of Training
- Number of training positions required

(b) Selection of candidates will be based upon current shift, dealers with the required game training, an acceptable file review and seniority. Further, applicants will be required to successfully complete necessary pre-test(s) conducted by the Employer. In the event an insufficient number of employees post for such training, the Employer may fill the training vacancy in such manner as it determines necessary.

- (c) Dealers will be paid their regular hourly rate for time spent in training on new or existing games or this training will be managed within the normally schedule shift times. Successful part-time dealers will not be permitted to adjust their shift preference priority for a minimum of six (6) months.
 - (d) Where dealers are interested in training for games that the Employer has not determined require additional dealers, the Employer may offer training which would be posted for any dealer to attend. Employees selected for this training would be based on seniority. These postings would be defined as voluntary and offered for those interested employees. This training would not be paid. Only major games would fall into this category. Further, at a maximum, no more than two (2) voluntary game training for each major game will be offered annually. The training offering will be evaluated in conjunction with the Union before being posted.
 - (e) Should an employee elect to learn any game being offered under 23.07 (d) above, or at a recognized training provider, he or she is required to pass an OLG Casino Brantford table test and will not receive pay for the game until he or she is selected as a successful applicant for a posting vacancy for that game or until he/she deals the game live in the Casino. All Dealers will be required to demonstrate proficiency during the first twenty (20) days thereafter before being credited for that game.
 - (f) For all table training tests, a Union Committee Person will be permitted to observe the process.
- 23.08 It is understood that game mix will impact on shift selection and time off requests.
- 23.09 All of the Games above are considered major games except those listed under Game 2.
- The Dealer 1 position requires dealing one (1) major game and up to two (2) novelty games.
 - The Dealer 2 position requires dealing two (2) major games or one (1) major and three (3) or more novelty games.
 - The Dealer 3 position requires dealing three (3) major games or two (2) majors and three (3) or more novelty games.

- The Dealer 4 position requires dealing four (4) major games or three (3) majors and three (3) or more novelty games.

ARTICLE 24 – NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

24.01 The Employer provides new hires with orientation. Where the new hires are in the bargaining unit, the Employer will arrange for up to one (1) hour of that orientation to be provided to the Union.

ARTICLE 25 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

25.01 All leaves of absences must be requested using a Leave of Absence Request form. Except in cases of emergency leave, such request must be made at least two (2) weeks prior to the requested starting date of the leave, and may only be made by employees with six (6) months of continuous employment. The Manager, or designate will respond in writing within five (5) days of receipt of written request from the employee.

25.02 Subject to any Policy restrictions around active employment or duration of absence, an employee may maintain health and dental benefits (save and except disability benefits) during an approved leave if he or she arranges in advance to pay the cost of such benefits. During a pregnancy leave or parental leave benefits will be maintained provided the employee makes advance arrangements to pay his or her share of the premium payments.

25.03 Extensions of personal leaves will only be granted if sought in advance of the expiry of the original leave and are subject to the same considerations as an original leave request. No outside work may be entered into nor may hours of work elsewhere be expanded while on a personal leave of absence unless specific permission for this is sought in advance.

25.04 Union Leaves

The Employer will grant a leave of absence without pay but without loss of benefits or seniority to up to four (4) members of the Union to attend Union business, at any one time, outside the facility for up to a total of sixty (60) cumulative days per year, provided proper advance notice was given to the Employer. The Employer will continue the wages for any regular scheduled shifts of an employee on such leave and will bill the Union monthly for reimbursement.

Where a part-time employee takes more than one full day of union leave in a week, they will be credited with the average hours that they have worked in the last twelve (12) weeks preceding the week of the leave or their actual hours worked at OLG that week, whichever is greater, towards part-time benefit qualification in 52.05.

25.05 When a seniority rated employee is elected or appointed to a full-time position with the Union, the Employer shall, upon four (4) weeks' written notice, grant a leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority for the duration of such leave for one (1) employee at a time for at least three (3) months and up to three (3) years. During this time period, the employee may, upon four (4) weeks written notice, be returned to the position held immediately prior to the commencement of the leave. This leave of absence is limited to one (1) employee at any one time during the life of the Agreement. If requested the Employer will maintain the employee's pay and benefits and invoice the Union for these costs.

25.06 Military Leave

An employee who is an active member of a Canadian Forces Reserve Status Militia Unit will be granted Reserve Training leave of up to one (1) week with pay (no more than 40 hours) and one (1) week without pay in each calendar year. The employee must provide proof of training and receive prior approval by providing at least two (2) weeks notice to the Human Resources Manager or designate.

An unpaid leave of absence will also be granted to fulfill his or her military obligation if he or she is called into Active Military Status, provided that a copy of the official employment standing order accompanies the Leave of Absence Application form. The employee's seniority and service will continue to accrue during such leave.

25.07 Political Office Leave

An employee who is elected to the Municipal Government will be granted a leave of absence without pay or benefits to fulfill his or her term of office. A written request for such leave of absence must be presented to the Employer at least three (3) weeks in advance of when the leave of absence is to commence. Employees who are granted a leave pursuant to this sub-article will have their seniority accrue during such leave of absence. An employee returning to work from such leave of absence will inform his or her Employer at least three (3) weeks in advance. Employees elected to the Provincial or Federal Government will resign from his or her employment to avoid any appearance of a conflict of interest. In every case an employee running for such office must take an unpaid leave of absence during the election campaign.

25.08 Family and Emergency Leave

- (a) Employees will be entitled to unpaid family medical leave in accordance with the Employment Standards Act to provide care and support to a specified family member for whom a qualified health practitioner has issued a certificate indicating the family member has a serious medical condition and there is a significant risk of death occurring within a period of twenty-six (26) weeks.
- (b) Employees will be entitled to emergency leave of up to ten (10) days of unpaid leave of absence per calendar year due to:
 - (i) personal illness, injury or medical emergency, and
 - (ii) death, illness, injury, medical emergency of, or urgent matters relating to family members as defined in Article 27 – Bereavement Leave.

Use of emergency leave will be considered authorized leave and will not prevent an employee from qualifying for Holiday Pay. Part days will be considered a day used.

25.09 Citizenship Day

With two (2) weeks of notice, upon the day an employee first becomes a Canadian Citizen, he or she may request and will receive a one (1) day paid leave of absence.

ARTICLE 26 – PREGNANCY, PARENTAL AND ADOPTION LEAVE

The Employer and the Union have agreed that the employees covered by this Collective Agreement will be eligible for the Pregnancy, Parental and Adoption leaves on the same basis as is provided for similarly situated employees in the existing OLG policy. It is agreed that the following will be provided:

26.01 Pregnancy Leave

A Pregnancy leave will be granted, in accordance with the conditions contained in the Employment Standards Act, to any female employee who has completed at least thirteen (13) weeks of service with the Employer prior to the expected due date. This unpaid leave will be for a seventeen (17) week period.

An employee may begin her pregnancy leave no earlier than the earlier of,

- the day that is seventeen (17) weeks before her due date
- the day on which she gives birth

The pregnancy leave of an employee who is not entitled to take parental leave ends on the later of the day that is seventeen (17) weeks after the pregnancy leave began or the day that is six (6) weeks after the birth, still birth or miscarriage of the child.

An employee on pregnancy leave will continue to participate in the Employer's benefit plans for the period of their leave unless they elect in writing not to do so, provided that they continue to pay the contributions, if any, for the period of such leave.

Where an employee elects to make her pension contributions under existing practice, pensionable service shall also accrue and the employer shall continue to make its contributions.

Employment Insurance Top Up:

A full-time employee who has at least one (1) full year of service (12 months) with the Employer, entitled to pregnancy leave and who provides proof that she is in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Supplementary Benefit Plan.

In respect of the period of pregnancy leave, payments made according to the Supplementary Employment Benefit Plan will consist of the following:

- for the first two (2) weeks at ninety-three percent (93%) of regular weekly base salary
- for fifteen (15) weeks at the difference between their Employment Insurance benefits and ninety-three percent (93%) of regular weekly base salary

For an hourly paid employee, an average of the regular weekly earnings for the prior twenty-eight (28) weeks is used to determine regular average weekly salary. Regular earnings include regular pay, paid leaves of absence such as bereavement, jury duty, vacation, sick and lieu time payments, WSIB payments and training time paid. Statutory holiday pay is also included if considered a regular day's pay. Overtime pay is not included as regular earnings.

The Top Up payment will not be adjusted as a result of any pay adjustments that occur during the leave period.

Under EI Pregnancy benefits provisions, the mother can start collecting pregnancy benefits either up to eight (8) weeks before she is expected to give birth or the week she gives birth, whichever is later.

All copies of Employment Insurance stubs must be provided (as proof) to calculate and process the EI Top Up payments.

26.02 Parental Leave

Parental leave will be granted, in accordance with conditions contained in the Employment Standards Act. An employee who has completed at least thirteen (13) weeks of service with the Employer and who is the parent of a child, is entitled to a leave of absence without pay following the birth of the child or the coming of the child into the employee's custody, care and control for the first time.

Parent includes a person with whom a child is placed for adoption and a person who is in a relationship of some permanence with a parent of a child and who intends to treat the child as his or her own, and "child" has a corresponding meaning.

Parental Leave may begin:

- no earlier than the day the child is born or comes into the custody, care and control of the parent for the first time
- no later than fifty-two (52) weeks after the day the child is born or comes into the employee's custody, care and control for the first time

Parental leave for an employee who also took pregnancy leave shall commence immediately following the expiry of the pregnancy leave if one is taken unless the child has not yet come into the custody, care and control of a parent for the first time.

An employee wishing to take parental leave shall give the Employer written notice at least two (2) weeks before the day the leave is to begin.

Parental leave ends thirty-five (35) weeks after it began for an employee who takes pregnancy leave and thirty-seven (37) weeks after it began for an employee who did not take pregnancy leave. Once an employee begins a pregnancy/parental leave, the leaves must be taken without interruption.

An employee on parental leave will continue to participate in the Employer's benefit plans for the period of their leave unless they elect in writing not to do so, provided that they continue to pay contributions, if any, for the period of such leave.

Where an employee elects to make his or her pension contributions under existing practice, pensionable service shall also accrue and the Employer shall continue to make its contributions.

Employment Insurance Top Up:

A full-time employee who has at least one (1) full year of service (12 months) with the Employer, entitled to parental leave and who provides proof that he or she is in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Supplementary Benefit Plan.

In respect of the period of parental leave, payments made according to the Supplementary Employment Benefit Plan will consist of the following:

- first two (2) weeks of the leave will be paid at ninety-three percent (93%) of regular weekly base salary (except where already taken or declined by EI)
- for 10 weeks at the difference between their Employment Insurance benefits and ninety-three percent (93%) of regular weekly base salary

For an hourly paid employee, an average of the regular weekly earnings for the prior twenty-eight (28) weeks is used to determine regular average weekly salary. Regular earnings include regular pay, paid leaves of absence such as bereavement, jury duty, vacation, sick and lieu time payments, WSIB payments and training time paid. Statutory holiday pay is also included if considered a regular day's pay. Overtime pay is not included as regular earnings.

All copies of the Employment Insurance stubs must be provided (as proof) to calculate and process the EI Top Up payments.

The Top Up payment will not be adjusted as a result of any pay adjustments that occur during the leave period.

ARTICLE 27 – BEREAVEMENT

- 27.01 In the event of the death of a seniority employee's immediate family member, the employee shall be granted an excused absence of four (4) normally scheduled consecutive and complete work days (irrespective of regular days off and holidays). It is agreed and understood that "days leave" in the case of part-time employees, means the next four (4) days commencing with the date of death (or the day of the funeral if outside those four (4) days), whether scheduled or not, and in the case of full-time employees, means the next four (4) scheduled shifts (irrespective of regular days off and holidays).
- 27.02 Immediate family for the purposes of this Article shall mean the employee's spouse including common-law or same sex partner, and the employee and their spouse's parent, step-parent, child, step-child, spouse of child,

- 27.04 Bereavement leave shall be paid at the employee's regular straight time hourly rate of pay.
- 27.05 Up to two (2) additional days of leave without pay will be provided to attend the funeral of any listed family member in this Article where the distance to the funeral is greater than eight (800) hundred kilometers away from OLG Casino Brantford and where sufficient proof of need is provided.

ARTICLE 28 – JURY DUTY/WITNESS DUTY

- 28.01 An employee who has completed his or her probationary period called for jury duty or subpoenaed as a Crown witness shall receive for each day absent from regular scheduled working hours, the difference between hourly earnings lost and the amount of jury or witness fee received, providing the employee furnishes the Employer with a Certificate of Service signed by the Clerk of the Court showing the amount of any fee received.
- 28.02 Employees are required to report for work on days when they are not required on jury duty or to testify as a subpoenaed witness under 28.03 below in a court of law. Employees on jury duty who work in classifications that operate seven (7) days per week will, if they are on jury duty for more than three (3) days, be notionally placed on a Monday - Friday schedule matching the jury duty until the end of the week the jury duty or testifying as a subpoenaed witness concludes so as to minimize any disruption with their normal earnings and time at home while still meeting the Employer's operational requirements. The purpose of this Article is to ensure that employees shall receive consistent hourly earnings from the Casino despite the Jury/Crown Witness duty.
- 28.03 Employees required to testify on behalf of the Employer or the Crown with respect to workplace incidents will be considered as working for all time spent in this regard. The Employer will pay employees the difference between the amount of money the employee receives from the summons and his or her regular hourly pay, reasonable expenses for meals, parking, out of town travel expenses or accommodations, upon presentation of receipts and in accordance with the Employer's policies for expense reimbursement.

ARTICLE 29 – VACATION

- 29.01 All regular full-time employees shall earn vacation credits based upon their service.

The vacation entitlement for regular full-time employees is listed below. As full-time schedules may vary daily, the vacation entitlement is expressed in total hours.

Years of Service	Hours Per Calendar Year/Percent Pay
First eight years	120 hours / 6%
After eight years	160 hours / 8%
After fifteen years	200 hours / 10%
After twenty six years	240 hours / 12%

On January 1st of each year, employees are advanced a full year's vacation credits based on their years of service. If an employee commences, terminates or changes employment status (eg: part-time to full-time) during the year, their credits will be pro-rated. If an employee terminates his or her employment and has been paid more vacation than the year's entitlement, the extra vacation paid will be deducted from their final pay.

Vacation time must be taken during the calendar year in which it was earned, except for exceptional circumstances. Up to eighty (80) hours of vacation time earned during a year may be carried into the first three (3) months of the following calendar year if the employee so requests in writing prior to December 1st and the Manager approves. Any vacation not booked by the end of October may be scheduled by the Employer between then and March 31st of the following year.

Each department will designate when vacation can be taken and how many employees may be off at any one time. A copy will be provided to the Union Chairperson.

Vacation may not be taken, except in exceptional circumstances, in the first six (6) months of service.

29.02 Vacation Entitlement for Part-Time Employees

Part-time employees will receive vacation payment and unpaid vacation days, on the following basis. The vacation entitlement is based on years of continuous service with OLG.

Years of Service	Vacation Payment/Unpaid Time
First to eighth years	6% / 2 Weeks and 5 days
After eight years	8% / 2 Weeks and 10 days
After fifteen years	10% / 3 weeks and 10 days
After twenty six years	12% / 4 weeks and 10 days

For part-time employees, vacation is paid bi-weekly and calculated on total earnings for the bi-weekly pay period. Part-time employees may book their weeks and their days of unpaid vacation time each year. Weeks above must be taken as calendar week blocks of time away from work while days may be used individually. For the purposes of part-time vacation scheduling, a calendar week means “seven (7) consecutive days” from Monday to Sunday.

For employees reaching their next entitlement level during the year, they will be advanced the vacation time and pay entitlement on January 1st.

Part-time employees will have the option of banking vacation pay which can be paid out on written request of the employee. All remaining vacation pay will be paid out in January of the following year.

29.03 Vacation Scheduling

Employees will be informed of their vacation entitlement at the beginning of each year. A vacation selection window will open no later than January 1st annually, at which time vacation selection will occur with vacation picks completed by no later than February 1st.

Vacations will be selected and scheduled each year based on seniority date, with full-time employees selecting first. Vacations will be selected by seniority on a rotational basis with the most senior employee being able to select a maximum of 80 hours before the next senior employee gets the opportunity to select his or her 80 hours until the vacation dates have been selected.

Pick 1 Full-time employees by seniority may pick either a one (1) week or a two (2) week block (40 hrs or 80 hrs).

Pick 2 Full-time employees by seniority may pick either a one (1) week or a two (2) week block (40 hrs or 80 hrs).

Note: A full-time employee may only select a two (2) week block in one of the two first picks.

- Pick 3 Part-time employees by seniority may pick their first one (1) week block.
- Pick 4 Eligible part-time employees by seniority may pick their second one (1) week block.
- Pick 5 Full-time employees by seniority may pick the remainder of their eligible vacation time.
- Pick 6 Part-time employees by seniority may pick the remainder of their eligible vacation time.

Any vacation that is not scheduled in the scheduling period will be taken at the discretion or as directed by the Employer and is subject to operational requirements. This vacation must be requested two (2) weeks in advance of the requested time off and prior to the schedule being posted. The Department Manager, or designate, may approve a vacation request with less than two (2) weeks notice at his/her discretion where there are extenuating circumstances.

An employee who has earned vacation credits under the terms of this article and retires, quits or is terminated, shall receive payment in lieu of vacation due such employee. In the case of death, such employee's authorized beneficiary or estate shall be entitled to such employee's payment in lieu of vacation.

Where an employee posts to a new position or where the departmental schedule changes, his or her vacation will be honoured where it can be done so without it impacting on the operation or other employee's previously booked vacation.

29.04 Death in Family During Vacation

An employee who, while on scheduled vacation becomes eligible for bereavement leave will be able to reschedule the vacation days affected by the bereavement leave. Such vacation will be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Employer and the employee.

29.05 Where an employee becomes ill and eligible for STSP prior to his or her vacation commencing shall have the right to temporarily terminate his or her vacation and when he or she becomes fit it will be rescheduled on mutually agreeable dates. If the employee recovers prior to the completion of the scheduled vacation, he or she will take vacation on those dates.

ARTICLE 30 – PAID HOLIDAYS

30.01 The paid holidays recognized by the Employer will be as follows:

New Years	Civic Holiday (First Monday in August)
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Easter Monday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

30.02 It is agreed and understood that given the nature of the Employer's operation, employees may be required to work on a holiday. Where an employee is scheduled to work on any one of the above-mentioned holidays, then in addition to any holiday pay he or she may qualify for, he or she shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) his or her base hourly rate, for all hours worked between 12:01 a.m. and 11:59 p.m. on the holiday.

30.03 In order to qualify for holiday pay, employees must work their last regularly scheduled day of work before and their first regularly scheduled day of work after the holiday, unless:

- (a) Absent on vacation.
- (b) Absent on either of those days and such absence is authorized by the Employer based on a medical certificate by a qualified physician which is submitted to the Employer on the day the employee returns to work.
- (c) Absent due to an emergency situation related to the employee or an immediate family member that arose on short notice and could not be addressed outside of working hours and provides such reasonable proof as may be required.
- (d) Employees who agree to, or are otherwise required to work on the paid holiday and fail, without meeting the requirements in paragraph 30.03 (b) or (c) above, to work their entire shift (unless an early out is authorized) on the paid holiday, will not be eligible for premium pay or holiday pay.

30.04 Subject to the particular provisions next following, holiday pay will be calculated in accordance with OLG's practice, provided that the amount of each eligible employee's holiday pay shall not be less than his/her entitlement under the Employment Standards Act and its regulations governing continuous operations.

Full-time employees who are scheduled to work on the public/paid holiday and are unable to do so due to illness will receive holiday pay and may be required to provide medical documentation for the absence.

Full-time employees who are receiving Short Term Sickness Plan (STSP) benefits for greater than one week (5 scheduled working days) prior to the holiday will receive holiday pay, their STSP bank will not be reduced, and the holiday will deemed to have been taken.

Full-time employees who are in receipt of WSIB advances (65 days) for a work-related injury and are not on modified work will receive holiday pay, their 65 days of advances will not be reduced and the holiday will be deemed to have been taken. Any employee, who is being paid directly by WSIB (eg: full-time employee beyond 65 days of advances, part-time employee) and not on modified work, will not receive holiday pay.

Where a holiday falls on a day when an employee is not scheduled to work or during an employee's vacation, and that employee otherwise qualifies for a paid holiday, then that employee shall be granted banked paid lieu time.

30.05 All employees who qualify for holiday pay will have his or her holiday pay and corresponding lieu time banked automatically, unless he or she provides a request form to be paid in advance to his or her supervisor. It is agreed that no more than five (5) days of lieu time may be carried at any one time by an employee or will be paid out. In order to schedule a lieu day, the employee must have banked the lieu day and must request the lieu time at least two (2) weeks in advance of the requested day off and prior to the schedule being posted. Lieu time will only be granted subject to the operational needs of the department.

30.06 In the event that the Employer intends to close OLG Casino Brantford to patrons any hours between Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, employees will only be required to work during this time as it is necessary to affect the closure, the re-opening and to secure the assets and operation.

Additional time off may also be accommodated by the use of vacation leave, accrued lieu time or an unpaid leave of absence, or by rearranging work schedules. Where requested, the employee will provide confirmation of his or her need for the holiday from his or her religious counsellor.

ARTICLE 31 – DISCIPLINE

- 31.01 The Employer will provide advance notice to the Union of any meeting with an employee where the Employer is investigating an issue that may result in discipline for that employee. A Union Steward or Committee Person will be able to attend this meeting. It is understood that the Union will not impede the Employer's ability to ascertain the facts.

When an employee is called to a meeting by the Employer where discipline or discharge will be imposed, the employee will have a Union Steward present. In the event of discipline, the interview will not proceed until a Union Representative is present and this provision is mandatory except where an employee expressly waives this right in writing in the presence of the Steward/Committee Person.

Where discipline or discharge is sent to an absent employee by letter rather than in person, the Union Representative will be provided with a copy of the letter.

- 31.02 Where an employee maintains a record free from discipline for a period of twelve (12) months, all records of discipline (save and except for serious misconduct) will not be relied upon in future discipline. All discipline (save and except for serious misconduct) will be discounted from an employee's file upon written request from the employee to Human Resources after twelve (12) months providing that there have been no further occurrences. Discounted discipline is placed in an envelope marked "Discounted Consistent Performance Actions" at the back of the Employee's Human Resources file.

- (a) Serious misconduct includes but is not limited to:
- (i) A breach of the Ontario Human Rights Code.
 - (ii) Health and safety infractions threatening health.
 - (iii) Violence, swearing or threats of violence directed at a customer, co-worker or supervisor or other insubordination.

- 31.03 "Discipline" is defined to include any recorded discipline issued to an employee. A copy of any recorded discipline will be given to the Union Committee. Coach and counsels and other daily supervisory corrections, which may also result in notes being maintained and placed in an employee's file for a period of six (6) months, are not disciplinary and may not be grieved. These will only be admissible at hearings to demonstrate an awareness and understanding of the Employer's expectations and for no other purpose.
- 31.04 The Employer maintains its surveillance system for the purpose of safeguarding its assets and maintaining the integrity and security of the Casino. Where the Employer intends to rely upon video surveillance recordings or reports as evidence of employee wrongdoing to support discipline, the affected employee will be allowed to request and review the video recording. The Employer will also permit a Committee Person and/or an AGCO licensed National Representative of the Union, to review the surveillance report so as to discuss the video content and will then return the report. Subject to Article 55, the Committee Person or National Representative may also view the video at Step 3 of the grievance procedure. The Union may otherwise obtain video evidence or surveillance report when such is subject to a "Raymond Order" by an arbitrator properly seized with a grievance. Where the Union identifies a specific event or series of events, in a suspension or discharge grievance and makes a timely request that any available video surveillance records be maintained, the Employer will do so and the video may be provided to the Union subject to an Arbitrator's order.
- 31.05 In the case of an investigative suspension, the Employer will have the right to suspend the employee, with pay. Such a suspension is not disciplinary. The Union will be notified of all investigative suspensions at the time of issuance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such suspension is the result of action involving a regulatory or law enforcement agency which results in an investigation of more than seven (7) days, such longer period shall be without pay.
- 31.06 It is agreed that discipline should be issued in a timely manner. In most circumstances discipline is to be given within the first five (5) days the employee works following the date of the incident or the date the Employer became aware of the incident, unless the incident is being investigated by a law enforcement or regulatory agency. Where there is a basis for the request to extend time limits and where the request is made in writing (including via electronic mail) in advance of the expiry of the time limits, consent to a brief extension will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 31.07 Where a dismissal is for theft, attempted theft, embezzlement or any other fraudulent actions (whether involving the Employer, coworkers or customers), the Employer must establish that the employee committed the offence and will do so on the basis of clear and cogent evidence. If it is established to an Arbitrator's satisfaction that the employee committed the offence then the dismissal shall be deemed to be for just cause and the arbitration board shall have no power to alter or substitute the penalty.

In discussions with the Union, the Employer may impose a disciplinary penalty short of discharge for an offence listed above, in light of the specific circumstances of the case and such penalty shall also not be subject to an Arbitrator's discretion. The imposition of such a penalty in one case shall not operate as a limit to management's discretion to impose the penalty of discharge in another case.

ARTICLE 32 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 32.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference or dispute between the Employer and the Union regarding the interpretation, application, or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable and an allegation that this Agreement has been violated. The parties agree and acknowledge a grievance may also be a dispute about an employment related statute.
- 32.02 Employees who believe they have a grievance that is not a disciplinary suspension or termination should first take the matter up with their supervisor within five (5) calendar days of the date on which the circumstances giving rise to the complaint became known or ought to have been known. Employees may be accompanied by their Steward or Committee Person if they so desire, when speaking to the supervisor. In any event the Steward or Committee Person must discuss the grievance with the Employer's designated representative or the supervisor in the employee's area before the grievance is created. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within four (4) calendar days after the above discussions have occurred, the grievance may then be filed as set out below:

Step 1

The Steward or Committee Person must initiate the formal grievance procedure by providing the signed form to the supervisor or Department Manager. The Supervisor or Department Manager shall respond with a decision to the Steward or Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after the date on which the grievance was activated.

Step 2

If the decision of the Supervisor/Manager is not satisfactory to the Committee Person, the Committee Person may appeal the decision of the Supervisor/Manager to the Human Resources Manager or designate, within five (5) calendar days after the Steward/Committee Person has received the decision of the Supervisor/Manager. The Manager, or designates, may convene a meeting with the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the appeal. The Managers, or designates, shall respond with a decision to the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after the meeting and, in any event, no more than ten (10) calendar days of the appeal. In putting forward the Step 2 appeal, the name of every affected employee who is seeking a remedy will be provided to the Employer.

Step 3

If the decision of the Human Resources Manager or designate is not satisfactory to the Committee Person, the Committee Person may appeal the decision of the supervisor/ manager to the General Manager or designate, within five (5) calendar days after the Committee Person has received the decision. If there is such an Appeal then a meeting will be held with General Manager or designates, within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the appeal. The Managers, or designates, shall respond with a decision to the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days of the meeting.

- 32.03 A Group Grievance may be created by the Union where employees have identical grievances. Rather than file individual grievances, the Union will file a Group Grievance identifying the names of each of the affected employees and in the interest of the scope of the grievance being defined, a Group Grievance must be signed by all affected employees by no later than the filing at Step 3.
- 32.04 A Policy Grievance is an unresolved issue arising directly between the Union and the Employer around the interpretation, application or administration of the Collective Agreement and is not a matter that could be brought as an individual or a group grievance.
- 32.05 A Group/Policy grievance must be filed at Step 2 with the Human Resources Manager or designate within ten (10) calendar days after the date on which the circumstances giving rise to it became known or ought to have become known. Where the Employer files a Policy Grievance they must provide it to the Chairperson within ten (10) calendar days of the date on which the circumstances giving rise to it became known or ought to have become known.
- 32.06 Grievances involving suspensions or terminations will begin at Step 2 and must be filed within five (5) calendar days of the issuance of discipline.
- 32.07 The Employer is committed to providing a response at each step of the grievance process, however, where no response has been given by the Employer within the time limit specified, the grievance will be deemed to have been submitted to the next step within the requisite time frame.
- 32.08 A grievance which has been processed in the manner prescribed in this Agreement within the time limits prescribed, may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Article provided written notice to arbitrate is given by the party seeking arbitration to the other party within thirty (30) calendar days after the decision is provided in Step 3. Where there is a basis for the request to extend time limits and where the request is made in writing (including by electronic mail) in advance of the expiry of the time limits, consent to a brief extension will not be unreasonably withheld.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 48(16) of the Labour Relations Act, effective January 1, 2009, no Board of Arbitration shall have jurisdiction to hear any grievance which is not referred to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days in strict compliance with the time limits in this Article. Failure to issue notice to arbitrate within this time limit will result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned.

- 32.09 If an authorized Union Representative should consider that a provision of this Agreement has been violated, he or she may initiate and sign a grievance on behalf of an individual, which shall be processed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Article. The grievance will require the signature of the affected employee(s) no later than the filing of Step 3 or will be deemed abandoned.

ARTICLE 33 – ARBITRATION

- 33.01 The party wishing to submit a grievance to arbitration shall provide notice of intent to arbitrate. The recipient of the notice may request the other party if it is agreeable or not to the matter being heard by a Board or single Arbitrator. If there is no agreement, the parties will use a single Arbitrator
- (a) Board of Arbitration
- (i) Where the parties agree to the matter being heard by a Board, each party shall respond to the other within ten (10) calendar days by indicating the name and address of its nominee to the Board. The two nominees so selected shall proceed to appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson.
 - (ii) If either party fails to name a nominee within the time frame, the matter will be reverted to a single Arbitrator.

 - (vii) The Board may, in cases involving discipline or discharge, substitute such penalty as the Board considers to be just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
 - (viii) Each party shall pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the fees and expenses of the Chairperson of the Board. Each of the parties hereto shall bear the expense of its own nominee.

The parties will each select an equal number of additional Arbitrators from the other's list so that there are no less than four (4) and no more than seven (7) Arbitrators in the pool.
 - (iii) Each grievance that is referred to arbitration will be assigned to the next Arbitrator in the pool in rotation unless the parties agree otherwise.
 - (iv) The parties will equally share the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

- (a) The Employer and Union may agree in writing to the appointment of a person or persons to be known as a Grievance Commissioner where the parties desire the expeditious means for the effective disposition of grievances which the parties have agreed may be handled in a summary manner.
 - (b) In discussions with the parties, the Grievance Commissioner will establish a meeting and a process for consulting on the case and providing an assessment to the parties. The purpose of the meeting is to clarify the issues or facts in dispute. The parties may make such further representations or adduce such evidence as the Grievance Commissioner may permit or require, but the Grievance Commissioner shall not be obligated to conform to the rules of evidence.
 - (c) The parties shall supply the Grievance Commissioner and each other with concise and brief written representations on which they intend to rely which will be exchanged not less than ten (10) calendar days before the commencement of the hearings of the Grievance Commissioner.
 - (d) Where the parties agree in writing, a Grievance Commissioner may be provided with the powers and limitations of an arbitrator as set out herein. In such a case, the decision of the Grievance Commissioner shall only be applicable in the case in question and shall not constitute a precedent nor be used by either party as a precedent in future cases. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Agreement, the decision of the Grievance Commissioner shall:
 - (i) be consistent with the provisions of this Agreement;

The Employer will make available transportation for such injured employee.

- 36.01 At negotiations the Union raised issues of social problems that may arise in employees personal lives and the impact these may have on employees in the workplace.

The parties discussed the issue of violence and abusive situations that sometimes exist in employee's personal lives. The parties agreed that such aggressive and abusive behaviour is unacceptable. The parties further agreed that an employee in a verified abusive or violent personal situation will be given full consideration prior to discipline for attendance or performance.

The parties also discussed substance abuse and agreed that they have a shared interest in encouraging early treatment and assisting employees toward rehabilitation.

- 36.02 The Employer will continue to provide an Employee Assistance Program for employees and both parties will encourage employees to seek out support where they deem it appropriate.

ARTICLE 37 – SICKNESS AND ACCIDENT LEAVE

Short Term Sickness Plan (STSP)

- 37.01 STSP is available only to full-time employees who have completed at least twenty (20) consecutive shifts of active full-time employment. Consecutive days do not include vacation, lieu time or any leaves of absences without pay, but days worked before and after such leave will count towards consecutive days. Where an employee is unable to attend his or her duties due to sickness or injury, the days worked before and after such absence shall not be considered consecutive.
- 37.02 The STSP will be as provided for all other direct gaming hourly employees of OLG, as may be amended from time to time. The STSP is currently self insured but the Employer reserves the right to at any time obtain a carrier for the Plan and to substitute an insured plan with all premiums paid by the Employer. When making such a substitution, the Employer shall notify the Union to explain the proposed change.
- 37.03 The employee has an obligation to maintain and submit all necessary forms, designations and information required for benefit coverage to go into effect, for coverage to continue, and for benefit recovery. Failure to furnish such evidence may result in loss of benefits for the time period.

Long Term Income Protection Plan (LTIP)

- 37.04 The Employer will maintain and provide an LTIP for qualified full-time employees who have been “totally disabled” for a period of longer than six (6) months. The LTIP will be as provided for all other direct gaming hourly employees of OLG, as may be amended from time to time. Participation for full-time employees is mandatory. A full-time employee is eligible for coverage on the first day of the month coinciding with or following probation if he or she is a new employee or, alternatively, following two months of continuous service in a full-time position.
- 37.05 An employee is considered to be “totally disabled” if they are wholly and continuously unable to perform normal work due to an illness or injury during the first thirty (30) months following the date of disability.
- 37.06 LTIP premiums are eighty-five percent (85%) paid by the Employer and fifteen percent (15%) by the employee.
- 37.07 LTIP is an insured plan and it is understood that as with all insured plans the Employer does not in any way act as the insurer in respect of these benefits, nor does the Employer bear any responsibility in the event of a dispute between an employee and the insurer. At the expiry of the thirty (30) working days, if the claim is still pending, then all previous and continuing absences related to the injury will be reverted to the Short Term Sickness Plan provided the employee is able to satisfy the eligibility requirements and provisions of the STSP and the employee will owe the Employer the difference between any entitlement under that Plan and the monies paid.

If the WSIB claim is denied on the basis of medical entitlement then all the monies paid out by the Employer will be an amount owed by the employee to the Employer. If the claim is denied on any other basis then the difference between the full salary paid and the Employee's entitlement under the Short Term Sickness Plan will be an amount owed to the Employer.

Monies owed may be recovered under a suitable repayment plan negotiated by the employee and the Employer and, failing agreement, the Employer may deduct up to twelve percent (12%) of the gross salary from the employee's wages on each pay cheque until the full amount owing is repaid. Monies may also be recoverable by order of an Arbitrator enforced in the Courts.

If the full-time employee has no Short Term Sickness Plan entitlement and the WSIB award is still pending after thirty (30) days, then the time will be unpaid unless the employee is able to qualify for long term disability.

Once a claim is approved the Employer will pay the full-time employee's salary for the shorter of a total of three (3) months in the case of a continuous absence or sixty-five (65) working days for intermittent absences which amount includes the thirty (30) working days already paid.

In accordance with section 25(a) and (b) of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, where a full-time employee is in receipt of loss of earnings benefits, the Employer agrees to maintain its premium payments for insured benefits. Where the employee has a required contribution to the benefits the employee must make arrangements to contribute his or her portion or his or her participation will cease. This applies only in the first year following injury.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #1 – EARLY OUTS

When, after sending home any applicable overtime employees, it becomes necessary to reduce the workforce for a period of less than a full shift, the Employer will first seek volunteers. Full-time employees will have priority if they are prepared to use vacation or lieu time to top up. Part-time employees may then elect to leave without pay. Should there still be voluntary opportunities a full-time employee may elect to leave without pay although only for up to a maximum of eight hours per pay period. For the purpose of this Letter of Understanding, this involves employees in the same classification, work area and start time and shifts commencing within thirty (30) minutes of each other shall be considered as having the same start time.

If there are more employees in any of the priority groups above interested in volunteering than there are available early out opportunities, the Employer will hold a lottery.

Should there be insufficient volunteers to leave work early, then part-time employees may be sent home as long as they are paid the minimum call in.

It is understood that early outs, other than early outs requested by an employee due to illness or injury, will count as consecutive days worked for the purpose of qualifying for the Employer's Short Term Sickness Plan as outlined in Article 37.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2 – EMPLOYEE UNIFORMS/ROOM

The Employer will determine the uniforms to be worn and will, as it requires, provide shirts, pants, skorts, skirts, vests and aprons at no cost to employees.

Employees will be responsible for the cleaning and care of their uniforms or vests, however approved dry cleaning and alterations will be paid for by the Employer.

If an employee is required to change their uniform because it has come into contact with substances that render the uniform unusable or unsanitary during the course of performing duties or is no longer in good repair, the Employee will be provided with a another uniform at no charge. Employees will not abuse this provision.

Upon leaving employment, an employee is required to return all uniforms and employee property provided. Failure to do so without providing an acceptable reason will result in any outstanding wages and/or vacation pay from the employee's last two weeks of pay being withheld until such time as reasons are provided or alternative arrangements suitable to the Employer and the employee are agreed upon.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #3 – FT/PT RATIO

In negotiations, the parties discussed the operational needs of the Casino and the difficulties of scheduling and managing in an operation with a changing patron counts. OLG Casino Brantford Management Representatives and Union Committee Persons will meet quarterly to discuss the full-time and part-time complement, the schedules, ratios and hours of work within the various departments and all information reviewed at the meeting will be provided to the Union. The Employer will discuss its staffing philosophy for the bargaining unit classifications with the Union and will be open to suggestions from the Union concerning the staffing complement. Should the Union not be satisfied with OLG Casino Brantford's position, it may request a joint meeting to occur between the CAW National Representative, the Director of Labour Relations, the Vice President of Operations and the Regional Director. This meeting will convene no more than once every six months. As such, it is understood that all OLG employees are expected to assist with the general cleanliness of the site. It is further understood that this will not diminish the role of bargaining unit employees and will not be the subject of a grievance nor will it result in discipline for any bargaining unit member whose core duties do not involve cleaning the site.

Therefore, the parties will meet to discuss the bumping rights of employees under this Article and, in particular, the issue of what is an equal or lower classification. Where employees are able to perform a position, the existence of equal or higher wage rates should not be a barrier to a senior employee where the job of the junior employee is one which members of the senior employee's classification would regularly have the skill and ability to perform.

- v. The shift is for an identical job in the same job classification and at the same skill level

The department will decide whether or not the shift needs to be filled. In the event it does not, the employee who accepted the shift will be notified.

Shift giveaways are not intended to be used in a way which undermines the overall commitment of the employee to the underlying employment relationship.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #15 – NO HARASSMENT/NO DISCRIMINATION

During negotiations, both parties agreed that discrimination and harassment in the workplace were issues requiring a joint, cooperative approach. Additionally, both parties identified the desire and commitment to achieve a workplace free of discrimination and harassment. Providing fair and equitable treatment for all employees is achieved in an environment where all individuals interact with mutual respect for each other's rights. Discrimination and harassment is prohibited under the Ontario Human Rights Code and employees are expected to treat all persons with courtesy and consideration.

Where the Employer receives a complaint amongst bargaining unit members it will inform the Union and vice-versa. The parties agree to complete confidentiality regarding harassment and discrimination complaints.
