Upon promotion to a higher classification or transfer to a different classification, the successful applicant or appointee will be placed on trial for a period of two (2) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion or transfer will become permanent after the period of two (2) months. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, or if the Employee finds himself unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, he will be returned to his former position and salary without loss of seniority. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions will also be returned to his former position and salary without loss of seniority.

12.08 Transfers and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No Employee will be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without her consent. If an Employee is transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit, she will retain her seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. An Employee will have the right to return to a position in the bargaining unit during her trial period, which will be up to a maximum of one (1) year. If an Employee returns to the bargaining unit, she will be placed in a job consistent with her seniority. Such return will not result in the layoff or bumping of an Employee holding greater seniority. This clause will not apply to temporary transfers.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

13.01 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

When a layoff occurs in a classification, the least senior in the classification will be laid off in the Care Centre site provided that the remaining Employees are willing, able and qualified to satisfactorily perform the available work.

13.02 Recall Procedure

Employees will be recalled at the Care Centre in the order of their seniority provided that the recalled Employees are willing and able and qualified to perform the available work.

13.03 No New Employees

No new Employees will be hired for a position while there are Employees on layoff at the Care Centre with seniority who are willing and able and qualified to satisfactorily perform the available work.

13.04 Advance Notice of Layoff

Unless legislation is more favorable to the Employees, the Employer will notify Employees who are to be laid off at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective date of layoff, except in the case of probationary Employees for whom the Employer will not be required to give notice. If the Employee has not had the opportunity to work the ten (10) working days as provided in this article, the Employee will be paid for the shifts for which work was not made available. These provisions will not be effective in the event of an emergency such as a fire, flood, epidemic etc. that disrupts or curtails the operation of the Care Centre*.

13.05 Advise Union

Prior to implementation of the layoff provisions of this Article, the Employer will meet with the Union to advise of the Employer's intentions.

ARTICLE 14 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

14.01 Recognition of Union Stewards and Grievance Committee

14.02 Names of Stewards

The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the names of the shop stewards.

14.03 Grievance Definitions

A grievance will be defined as any difference arising out of interpretation application, administration, or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement. A grievance will be categorized as follows:

- a) an individual grievance is a dispute affecting one (1) Employee. Such grievances will be initiated at Step 1 of the grievance procedure as outlined in Article 14.07 (a) except in cases of suspension or dismissal which will commence at Step 2, the form will be signed by a Shop Steward or Site Vice President; or
- b) a group grievance is a dispute affecting two (2) or more Employees. Such grievances will be initiated at Step 2 and processed in the same manner as an individual grievance as outlined in Article 14.07 (b). A group grievance will list all Employees affected by the grievance and the results of such grievance will apply, proportionately if applicable, to all Employees listed on the original grievance; or
- c) a policy grievance is a dispute between the parties, which, due to its nature is not properly the subject of an individual or a group grievance. Such grievance will be initiated, in writing, within ten (10) days of the date the aggrieved party first became aware of or reasonably should have become aware of the event leading to the grievance. If the policy grievance is a Union grievance, it will commence at Step 2. If the policy grievance is an Employer grievance, it will be directed to the National Representative of the Union and the National Representative will render a written reply within seven (7) days of receipt. Upon receipt of response or failure to reply, the Employer may advance the grievance to Arbitration.

However, no representative will leave her work without obtaining consent from her supervisor, which will not be unreasonably withheld. The Shop Steward will not suffer any loss of pay for time spent in the performance of her duties involving a grievance provided that the representative does not leave the Employer's premises.

14.05 Time Limits

For the purpose of this Article, periods of time referred to in days will be consecutive calendar days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and Named Holidays.

14.06 Mandatory Conditions

It is agreed that the presentation and processing of any grievance must be within the applicable time limits set out. If either party fails to comply with the applicable stages and time limits set out as follows, the grievance will proceed according to the required time limits to the next succeeding stage of the grievance procedure, unless mutually agreed in writing to extend the time limits.

- a) During any and all grievance proceedings, the Employee will continue to perform her duties, except in cases of suspension or dismissal.
- b) A suspension or dismissal grievance will commence at Step 2.

14.07 Steps in the Grievance Procedure

a) Step 1

An Employee, with or without a Union Steward (at the Employee's option), will attempt to resolve a grievance through discussion with their immediate supervisor or designate within ten (10) business days the Employee becomes aware of or reasonably should have become aware of or reasonably should have been aware of, the occurrence which led to the grievance. Both parties will make every effort to settle the dispute at this stage.

If the grievance is not settled at this stage, it may be advanced to Step 2 within ten (10) business days.

b) Step 2

The written grievance must be presented within ten (10) business days of the Step 1 discussion with the supervisor.

The grievance should clearly outline the full particulars of the alleged violation, including the article(s) involved, the nature of the grievance and the redress sought.

The Executive Director or designated representative will hold a meeting within ten (10) business days of receipt of the grievance. The Executive Director or designated representative will render a written decision within ten (10) business days of the date of the meeting.

If the grievance is not settled at this stage, it may be advanced to Step 3.

If the grievance is not settled at this stage the Union may decide to proceed to Arbitration.

ARTICLE 15 - ARBITRATION

15.01 Composition of Board of Arbitration

Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 3, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration within ten (10) working days by giving notice to the other party in writing in accordance with Step 3. Unless both parties agree to the appointment of a single arbitrator to constitute the Board of Arbitration within seven (7) working days, the other party will give notice in writing naming their nominee to the Arbitration Board. The two named members of the Board will within five (5) working days name a third member of the Board who will be the Chairperson. In the event of failure to agree upon a third person, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Alberta will be requested to appoint a third member.

15.02 The Board will determine its own procedure, but will give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. In its attempt at justice, the Board will, as much as possible, follow a layman's procedure and will avoid legalistic or formal procedure. No grievance will be defeated or denied by any formal or technical objection and the Board will have jurisdiction to waive procedure irregularities. It will hear and determine the difference or allegation and render a decision within ten (10) working days from the time the hearing is conducted.

15.03 Decision of the Board

The decision of the majority will be the decision of the Board. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the chairman will be the decision of the Board. The decision of the Board of Arbitration will be final, binding and enforceable upon all parties and may not be changed. The Board of Arbitration will have authority only to settle grievances under this Agreement and to apply this Agreement to the facts of the grievance (s) involved. The Board of Arbitration will have no power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions, or give any decision inconsistent with it, nor will any practices or customs become binding unless reduced to writing by the Employer and the Union. However, the Board will have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement that it deems just and equitable.

15.04 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Board's decision, either party may apply to the Chairman of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision, which it will do within five (5) days.

15.05 Expenses of the Board

Each party will pay:

- a) the fees and expenses of the arbitrator it appoints;
- b) one-half of the fees and expenses of the Chairman;
- c) its own expenses including any pay due to be paid to witnesses.

No costs will be awarded to or against any party.

15.06 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits in this Agreement are mandatory. The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended only by consent of the parties, confirmed in writing.

15.07 Where it appears that two or more Employees have the same grievance or the same type of grievance, which are proceeding to arbitration they will be submitted to one Board of Arbitration. It is understood that each grievor will have the right to make her own submission.

15.08 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties will have the assistance of any Employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses.

All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

ARTICLE 16 - DISCIPLINE DISMISSAL AND RESIGNATION

16.01 Except for the dismissal of an Employee serving a probation period, there will be no discipline or dismissal except for just cause.

16.02 Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to discipline an Employee in a manner indicating that dismissal or discipline may follow any further infractions or may follow if such Employee fails to bring her work up to the required work performance by a given date, the Employee will be notified in writing of the specifics of the issues that gave rise to the action and/or penalty with a copy to the Union.

- 16.03 The Employer will give a minimum of two (2) weeks notice of termination of employment or will pay a minimum of two (2) weeks wages in lieu of notice, except in cases of dismissal for just cause or termination during the probationary period pursuant to Article 9 of this Agreement. If by law longer notice of termination must be given or a greater sum paid in lieu of notice, such longer notice must be provided or greater sum paid.
- 16.04 Employees will give a minimum of two (2) weeks notice of termination unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Employer and the Employee.
- 16.05 An Employee will have the right to be accompanied by a Shop Steward or a Union officer in a disciplinary meeting.

ARTICLE 17 - PAID HOLIDAYS

17.01 Paid Holidays Defined

Full-time Employees who have completed their probationary period will receive the following paid holidays:

New Year's Day	Labour Day

Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

- 17.02 If another Federal, Provincial or Municipal holiday should be proclaimed during the term of this Agreement, such additional proclaimed holiday will replace the paid holiday designated as the Boxing Day specified above. The intent is that there will be no more than eleven (11) paid holidays per calendar year for the duration of this Agreement.

17.03 Computation of Paid Holiday Pay

Holiday pay will be computed on the basis of the number of hours the Employee would otherwise work had there been no holiday, at his regular rate of pay.

For example, a regular full-time Employee who works the standard seven point five (7.5) hour shift will be paid seven point five (7.5) hours straight-time holiday pay; a regular full-time Licensed Practical Nurse who works the standard seven point seven five (7.75) hour shift will be paid seven point seven five (7.75) hours straight-time holiday pay.

17.04 Qualified for Payment

If an Employee is absent on a paid holiday when scheduled to work he will forfeit all pay for the holiday unless due to illness. However, if an Employee qualifies for E.I. benefits they will not qualify for holiday pay.

17.05 Full-Time Employees Who Work on a Holiday

Full-time Employees will be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times their applicable hourly rate for work performed on paid holidays as set out in Article 17.01 (Paid Holidays). Such Employees will also be entitled to an additional day off with pay within a period of four (4) weeks after the holiday, unless otherwise arranged between the Employee and the Employer. In lieu of the provision, the Employer and the Employee may agree that the Employee will receive an additional day's pay; failing agreement the Employer may schedule the lieu day or pay an additional day's pay. The Employer when scheduling the lieu day as provided herein will give prior consideration to the date requested by the Employee.

17.06 Holiday Falling on Day Off

If any of the holidays named in Article 17.01 occur on a regular day off of a full-time Employee entitled to holiday pay, the Employee will receive an additional day off in lieu thereof within four (4) weeks after the holiday unless otherwise arranged between the Employee and the Employer; failing agreement the Employer may schedule the lieu day or pay an additional day's pay. The Employer when scheduling the lieu day as provided herein will give prior consideration to the date requested by the Employee.

17.07 A part-time Employee will receive holiday pay for paid holidays as set out in Article 17.01 (Paid Holidays) equivalent to his earnings exclusive of overtime for the days on which he worked during the thirty (30) calendar days prior to the paid holidays in relation to what a full-time Employee earned in the same period times one (1) day's pay.

17.08 A part time Employee who actually works on any paid holiday will be paid for all hours worked at the rate of time and one-half his regular rate for hours worked within a minimum of four (4) hours.

17.09 Part-time Employees Lieu Days

The Employee will advise the Employer in writing at least one (1) week prior to the posting of the schedule covering the requested day when the Employee wishes to take a lieu day resulting from the application of this article and where reasonably possible the date requested will be granted. Requests for a lieu day off after the posting of the schedule, will be submitted in writing and where operationally feasible the date requested will be granted provided the date requested is to be taken within a four (4) week period after the paid holiday. Failing approval by the Employer, the Employer may schedule the lieu day or pay the additional day's pay.

17.10 Paid Holidays

Nothing in this article will prevent the Employee and the Employer from agreeing to any combination of time and one-half, plus a day off or a day's pay and a day and one-half for full-time Employees who work on any of the paid holidays set out in Article 17.01.

17.11 Casual Employees Working on a Paid Holiday

Where an Employee's utilization of sick leave is excessive, the Employer may require the Employee to obtain, at the Employee's expense, proper medical certification from a duly qualified medical practitioner. In the event a long-term disability arises from the absence, the qualified medical practitioner must be a licensed physician. When such medical certification becomes required, the Employer will first issue advance written notice to the Employee.

18.05 Termination of Sick Leave

Sick leave benefits will cease on termination of employment or on retirement or on death. Sick leave will not accrue (except in the event of maternity leave where such benefit accrues to the end of the month in which the Employee commences maternity leave) while an Employee is on leave of absence, other than Union leave.

18.06 Where, in a calendar year, an Employee has multiple short-term absences, each of three (3) work days or less in duration, the maximum payable sick leave benefit in that calendar year is ten (10) days. However, serious illness requiring hospitalization, lengthy convalescence after surgery, or intensive on-going therapies, will not be considered in determining periods of absence or total utilization of sick leave in the calendar year.

Employees will make every reasonable effort to schedule their medical appointments outside their working hours but should that not be possible and provided that she has been given proper authorization by the Employer, sick leave credit of one (1) day of the maximum ten (10) days allotted above may be used. Employees may be required to submit satisfactory proof of such appointment.

- a) Upon attaining the twentieth (20th) anniversary of continuous employment, regular Employees will qualify for a one-time supplementary paid leave of five (5) work days, over and above normal annual vacation as provided in Article 20.01 (Length of Vacation) above. Utilization of this one-time bonus vacation is limited to the twelve (12) month period immediately following the twentieth (20th) anniversary, and is subject to the established provisions governing the scheduling of vacation, in accordance with Article 20.08 (Vacation Schedules). There is no carry-over or carry-forward privilege for any portion of bonus vacation which remains unused at the end of the twelve (12) month limited period. If bonus vacation remains unused at the end of the twelve (12) month limited period, then the unused portion will be paid out. For regular part-time Employees this bonus vacation time is paid on a pro-rata basis in accordance with the ratio of the part-time Employee's scheduled bi-weekly hours compared to the scheduled bi-weekly hours for a full-time Employee.

This provision also applies to all Employees who have attained their twentieth (20th) or thirtieth (30th) anniversary as of the date of ratification, and takes effect for the vacation year which commences June 1, 2005.

20.03 Annual Cutoff Date

Employees will be entitled to utilize any and all vacation hours which they have accumulated to date. At May 31st of the current year, no Employee may have vacation in excess of their current vacation accrual and one additional week carryover remaining in their outstanding vacation bank. Those Employees, who have in excess of the above noted vacation hours at May 31st, will have the difference paid out to them in a lump sum payment on the pay period immediately following the May 31st pay period unless other arrangements have been made between the Employer and the Employee.

Upon termination of employment an Employee will be paid their unused earned vacation.

20.08 Vacation Schedules

Vacation planners will be posted on or before January 31st of each year.

The Employees will submit their written request for vacation for the calendar year by February 28th. An Employee who fails to indicate their vacation request by February 28th will not have preference of choice of vacation time, where other Employees have indicated their preference.

Vacations will be approved in order of seniority by department, subject to operational requirements. Written responses for vacation requests will be provided to each Employee by March 31st.

Approved vacation will be not changed unless mutually agreed upon by the Employee and the Employer.

Where an Employee chooses to split their annual vacation, their second and subsequent choices of vacation will be considered only after all other Employees concerned have made their initial selection.

The vacation scheduled will be posted within each department by March 31st.

Vacation requests received after February 28th will be considered on a first come, first served basis. The requests received after this time period will be returned to the Employees within fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the request.

Wherever operational requirements permit, all regular Employees will be provided with two (2) weeks vacation absence during the peak vacation request (July, August) annually.

ARTICLE 21 - PAYMENT OF WAGES AND ALLOWANCES

21.01 Pay Days

- a) The Employer will pay by direct deposit salaries and wages bi-weekly for hours worked in accordance with the hourly wages set forth in Schedule "A". On paydays each Employee will be provided with an itemized statement showing the Employee's wages, overtime and other supplementary pay and deductions.
- b) In the event the Employer makes an overpayment on an Employee's pay the correction will be made the next pay period. If the Employer error results in an underpayment of more than one (1) day's pay, the Employer will provide payment for the shortfall within three (3) business days from the date the Employer is notified of the error.

21.02 Individual salary increases on the wage progression table in Schedule 'A' are in accordance with the Employee's anniversary date of employment or the attainment of the required seniority hours, whichever occurs later. The anniversary date will be adjusted forward if necessary to account for leave of absence or other absences under which seniority accumulation is suspended.

21.03 A job classification will not be changed for the purpose of evading payment of the minimum rate set out in Schedule "A". If the Employer established a new classification within the bargaining unit, it will be discussed with the Union in advance and will be subject to negotiations to determine the rate of pay.

21.04 When the Employer requires an Employee to substitute on a higher classified job covered by this Agreement for at least four (4) hours in a shift, she will be paid at the job rate for the higher classified position, for the entire shift worked.

21.05 Transfers to a Lower Rated Classification

If an Employee is transferred to a lower rated classification, she will be advised the reasons for the transfer in writing and such transfer will be subject to the grievance procedure. The Employee will receive in the new classification the next rate below the Employee's present wage rate and will progress within the scale for such lower rated classification according to the length of service within such lower rated classification subsequent to the date of transfer, provided that if the Employee is at the maximum level in the present classification the Employee will receive not less than the maximum level of the lower rated classification.

21.06 Transfer to a Higher Rated Classification

If an Employee is transferred to a higher rated classification, the Employee will receive in the new classification the next rate above the Employee's present rate and will progress within the scale for such higher rated classification according to the straight time hours paid (excluding overtime hours) within such higher rated classification subsequent to the date of transfer.

21.07 Recognition of Previous Experience

Provided that no more than two (2) years have elapsed since the experience was obtained, when an Employee has experience satisfactory to the Employer, her starting salary may be adjusted by up to three (3) salary increments for each year of demonstrated applicable and relevant experience to the position currently held by the Employee.

It will be the responsibility of the newly hired Employee to provide reasonable proof of recent and related experience within sixty (60) days of hire in order to be considered for a salary increment, and if she/he fails to do so, she/he will not be entitled to recognition.

b) Extended Health Benefits Plan

The Employer will continue the Major Medical Plan that is currently in place. The Employer agrees to pay 90% of the billed single/family rate for all full-time Employees. Premiums for part-time Employees are pro-rated in accordance with Article 22.04 below.

- 2) the disability benefit is payable at the rate of 66.7% of the Employee's first fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500.00) of basic monthly earnings, plus 50% of the excess earnings, provided that the eligible Employee is totally disabled from work for a period more than seventeen (17) continuous weeks (i.e. the elimination period is 17 weeks)

- 3) the disability benefit for a regular part-time Employee is computed on the same formula as provided in (2) above, and is based on the part-time Employee's basic earnings in the thirty (30) calendar day period immediately preceding the date total disability commences
- 4) benefits are non-taxable and issued on a monthly basis, one month in arrears, and are payable for a period up to twenty-four (24) months provided that the Employee remains totally disabled from her own occupation; benefits may continue after 24 months provided that the Employee remains totally disabled from any occupation; the plan provides for mandatory occupational rehabilitation, where deemed appropriate by the insurance carrier
- 5) to qualify for and continue receiving long-term disability benefits, the Employee must be totally disabled from work and must be actively treated by, and under the continuing care of, a physician licensed in Canada
- 6) monthly benefits are offset by other disability income the Employee may be entitled to receive from other sources, including government pension plans
- 7) benefits continue until the Employee is no longer totally disabled, termination of employment, death, retirement or age 65, whichever occurs first
- 8) application forms, physician's statements and any other reports are the responsibility of the Employee
- 9) monthly premiums are paid 100% by Employees who have completed probation.

22.02 The Employer is not responsible for monthly premiums in the event that an Employee is otherwise covered for such benefits. This means that if the Employee produces an exemption certificate indicating coverage (or is not entitled to coverage), through another source the Employer is not liable for coverage.

22.03 It is understood that there may be a qualifying period established by the insurer or that there may be required some reasonable time for filing of forms, etc.

22.04 Coverage and premiums for part-time Employees

The Employee Benefits plan outlined in Article 22.01 above is available to part-time Employees who have completed probation, provided the Employee does not have the opportunity for comparable coverage elsewhere. The payment of benefit premiums for part-time Employees will be pro-rated based on the hours paid in comparison to a full-time Employee and the cost sharing arrangement for full-time Employees.

22.05 Extended health benefits (i.e. major medical benefits, including vision care), dental benefits, includes coverage for same-sex partners of regular full-time Employees. To qualify for this provision, the relationship requires cohabitation of twelve (12) consecutive months. Part-time Employees are eligible for this provision, under the same conditions outlined in Articles 22.01 and 22.04 above.

22.06 Where the benefits specified above are provided through insurance obtained by the Employer, the administration of such plans will be subject to and governed by the terms and conditions of the policies or contracts entered into with the underwriters of the plans.

RE: Health Care Aide Scope of Practice

The Union and the Employer agree that if, during the term of this Collective Agreement, the Employer should introduce the requirement for Health Care Aides (HCAs) to give medication to the Residents, then the Union and the Employer will meet to discuss the implications of this change, if any, to the HCA scope of duties and responsibilities.

However, if the Collective Agreement extends beyond October 31, 2018, this Letter of Understanding will remain in full force and effect until a new Collective Agreement has been executed.

Signed at CALGARY, Alberta, this 21 day of FEB, 2018.
