- (b) establish and maintain orderly collective bargaining procedures between the Employer and the Union.

1.2 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of the collective agreement, the following shall apply:

- (a) the remaining provisions of the collective agreement shall remain in force and effect for the term of the collective agreement;
- (b) the Employer and the Union shall, as soon as possible, negotiate mutually agreeable provisions to be substituted for the provisions so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.3 Conflict with Employer Policies

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this agreement and any rule or policy made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this agreement shall take precedence over the said rule or policy.

1.4 Use of Feminine and Singular Terms

Wherever the feminine or singular is used, the same shall be construed as meaning the masculine or plural unless otherwise specifically stated.

ARTICLE 2 - DEFINITIONS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

The bargaining unit shall comprise all employees included in the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board, except those excluded by mutual agreement of the parties, as listed in Memorandum of Agreement #1 Re: Excluded Positions or by the Labour Relations Code.

During the life of this agreement where a dispute arises as to whether or not an individual is an employee within the bargaining unit, it shall first be discussed by the parties. In the event of failure to reach a satisfactory settlement it shall be dealt with pursuant to the relevant sections of the Labour Relations Code.

(b) A regular part-time (PT) employee is one who is appointed to a regularly scheduled position but works less than an average of 37½ hours per week exclusive of unpaid meal periods which results in less than 1950 regularly scheduled hours annually.

No employee covered by this agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which is in conflict with the terms of this agreement.

3.4 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

The Employer recognizes the Union's right to select four stewards and two alternates to represent employees. Every effort will be made to ensure that a minimum of one member who works in the Harrison Building and one member who works in the Emerald Building will be selected. To this end, calls for nominations will specify that a minimum of one position will be designated within each building. Should there be no nominees from either the Emerald Building or the Harrison Building the position may be filled with another member of the bargaining unit. The number of shop stewards may be changed by local mutual agreement. The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of the employees designated as stewards and alternates. A steward or his/her alternate shall obtain the permission of the Director of Care or Director of Community Care or designate before leaving his/her work to perform his/her duties as a steward. Leave for this purpose shall be without loss of pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming his/her normal duties, the steward shall notify his/her Director of Care or Director of Community Care or designate.

Duties of the steward are:

The use of such bulletin boards shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union.

3.6 Pins, Badges and Insignia

A union member shall have the right to wear a union pin or badge displaying the recognized insignia of the Union.

3.7 Right to Refuse to Cross Picket Lines

- (a) All employees covered by this agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a legal picket line arising out of a labour dispute, as defined in the appropriate legislation. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered to be absent without pay and benefits.
- (b) Failure to cross a legal picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this agreement nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.
- (c) Any employees assigned to cover essential services as defined in the Labour Relations Code and the Essential Services Disputes Act shall be authorized and permitted to cross a legal picket line.

3.8 Leave for Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority shall be granted with seven days written notice for the purposes listed below. Such leave shall not be unreasonably withheld:

(b) To facilitate the administration of Clause (a) when leave without pay is granted, the leave shall be given with basic pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for appropriate compensation costs, including travel time, incurred. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this clause shall receive their current rate of pay while on leave of absence.

The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer within one month of receipt of billing from the Employer.

3.9 Membership Information

The Employer agrees to provide to the President of the Union or his/her designate once a year, within the first week of January, a list of all union members, their current mailing address, job classifications, seniority, and employee status known to the Employer.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION SECURITY

Employees covered by the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority who were employed by the Employer and were not a member of the Union prior to the date of certification, shall have the option of applying for membership in the Union which membership they shall maintain. Employees hired after the date of certification are required to become members of the Union as a condition of employment.

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed as requiring a person who was an employee prior to the certification date to become a member of the Union.

ARTICLE 5 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

(a) The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the regular wages of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular monthly dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union, provided there are sufficient wages owing to the employee in the particular pay period to cover the deductions. The employee shall, as a condition of continued employment, complete an authorization form as provided by the Union for this purpose. The Employer shall deduct from any employee who is a member of the Union any general assessments, fees, or other amounts levied in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or Bylaws.

All deductions shall be made in each payroll period and membership dues or payments in lieu thereof shall be considered as owing in the month for which they are so deducted.

(b) All deductions shall be remitted to the President of the Union not later than 28 days following the end of the month in which the deduction was made and the Employer shall also provide a list of names of those employees from whose wages such deductions have been made.

(c) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under (a) above, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular dues. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the President of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted, provided that the changed deduction can be reasonably accommodated by the Employer's payroll system.

The Union will give reasonable notice to the Employer of any change in union dues, general assessments, fees, or other amounts levied in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or Bylaws which the Employer is required to deduct. All changes shall coincide with the beginning of the Employer's pay period.

(d) From the date of the signing of this agreement and for its duration, no employee organization other than the Union shall be permitted to have membership dues or other monies deducted by the Employer from the pay of the employees in the bargaining unit, except by mutual agreement of the parties to this agreement.

(e) At the same time that Income Tax (T4) slips are made available, the Employer, without charge, shall indicate on the T4 slip the total amount of union dues paid by the employee for the previous year (the year for which the T4 slip is provided). These shall be available to the employee not later than March 1st of the succeeding year.

(f) A report of employees who cease employment will be provided to the Union on quarterly basis.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER AND UNION SHALL ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a collective agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check-off. A new employee shall be advised of the name and location of his/her steward. The Employer agrees that a shop steward will be given an opportunity to meet with each new employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for 15 minutes some time during the first 30 days of employment.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

7.1 Rights Reserved

The Union recognizes and agrees that except as specifically and expressly abridged, restricted, granted or modified by this agreement, all of the rights, powers and authority which the Employer had prior to the signing of this agreement are retained solely and exclusively by the Employer, including the management, operation and direction of its working forces.

7.2 Employer Rules

The Employer may make, alter from time to time, and enforce reasonable rules of conduct and procedure to be observed by the employees, except that such rules of conduct may not be in breach of the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

8.1 Representation

No person shall undertake to represent the Union or the Employer without the proper authorization of the respective party. To facilitate this, the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its officers, and similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with the names of the Executive Director or designate with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

8.2 Union Bargaining Committee

A union bargaining committee shall be elected and consist of a maximum of three representatives of the bargaining unit. Every effort will be made to ensure that a minimum of one member who works in the Harrison Building and one member who works in the Emerald Building will be selected. To this end, calls for nominations will specify that a minimum of one position will be designated within each building. Should there be no nominees from either the Emerald Building or the Harrison Building the position may be filled with another member of the bargaining unit.

Leave of absence to attend bargaining committee meetings and negotiation sessions shall be administered in accordance with Clause 3.8 (Leave for Union Business).

8.3 Union Representatives

(a) The Employer agrees that access to its premises will be granted to a BCGEU staff representative, or authorized alternate, when dealing with or negotiating with the Employer, or when investigating and assisting in the settlement of a grievance.

(b) The union representative shall provide reasonable notice to the Executive Director or his/her designate in advance of their intention and their purpose for entering and shall specify the anticipated duration of the visit. Such visits shall not interfere with the operation of the Employer's business.

8.4 Technical Information

The Employer agrees to provide the Union such information relating to employees in the bargaining unit, as is available and may be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCES

9.1 Grievance Recognition

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

(a) differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of a provision of this agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or

(b) the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement.

The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this article.

9.2 Step One

In the first step of the grievance procedure every effort shall be made to settle the dispute through open discussion between the employee and his/her immediate supervisor. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have his/her steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the shop steward, to Step Two of the grievance procedure.

A grievance shall not be submitted, or advanced to Step Two of the grievance procedure until the matter has been discussed by the employee and the Director of Care (Harrison) or Director of Community Care (Emerald) or Manager of Care (Emerald) or their designate in accordance with Step One of the grievance procedure.

9.3 Step Two

- (a) An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step Two of the grievance procedure must do so not later than:
- (1) 21 days after the date on which he/she was notified orally or in writing, of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance; or
 - (2) 21 days after the date on which he/she first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- (b) Subject to (a) above, the employee may present a grievance at this level by:
- (1) recording this grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
 - (2) stating the article or articles of the agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated and the remedy or correction required; and
 - (3) transmitting this grievance to the designated supervisor Director of Care or Director of Community Care or designate through the shop steward.

The supervisor shall acknowledge receipt of the written grievance by signing and dating the grievance form at the time that the grievance is presented.

9.4 Time Limit to Reply at Step Two

The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step Two shall reply in writing to an employee's grievance within 14 days of receiving the grievance at Step Two.

9.5 Step Three

The President of the Union or his/her designate, may advance a grievance at Step Three within:

- (a) 14 days after the decision has been conveyed to him/her by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step Two; or
- (b) 14 days after the Employer's reply was due.

9.6 Time Limit to Reply at Step Three

The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step Three shall reply in writing to the grievance within 14 days of receipt of the grievance at Step Three.

9.7 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step Three and pursuant to Article 10 - Arbitration, the President or his/her designate may inform the Employer of his/her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) 30 days after the Employer's decision has been received; or
- (b) 30 days after the Employer's decision was due.

9.8 Administrative Provisions

- (a) Grievances and replies at Step Three of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by Priority Post, facsimile or email.

- (b) Grievances, replies and notification shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which they are registered and received on the day they were delivered to the appropriate offices of the Employer or the Union.
- (c) The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing.

9.9 Management Grievance

The Employer may initiate a grievance at Step Three of the grievance procedure by the Executive Director or his/her designate presenting the grievance to the President of the Union or the union area staff representative.

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step Three the Employer may inform the President or his/her designate of his/her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) 30 days after the Union's response has been received; or
- (b) 30 days after the Union's decision was due.

9.10 Time Limits

If the President of the Union or his/her designate, an employee, or an employer fails to process a grievance within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to have been abandoned. However, neither party will be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.11 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union at Step Two, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

9.12 Policy Grievances

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Executive Director or designate or the President of the Union within 14 calendar days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party, within a further 14 calendar days, may submit the dispute to arbitration.

9.13 Dismissal or Suspension

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right to submit a grievance to the Executive Director commencing at Step Three within 14 days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or suspension.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

10.1 Notification

Where a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, or administration of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 9 - Grievances, notify the other party within 30 days of the receipt of the reply at the third step of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

10.2 Arbitrator

- (a) When a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, it shall indicate to the other party of the agreement within seven days:
- (b) The parties will refer the matter to a mutually agreed single arbitrator.

10.3 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding, and enforceable on the parties. The Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which he/she deems just and equitable. However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

10.4 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision, which he/she shall make every effort to do within seven days.

10.5 Expenses of Arbitration

Each party shall pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

10.6 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing.

10.7 Expedited Arbitration

By mutual agreement, the parties may proceed to expedited arbitration as an alternative to the aforementioned arbitration procedure.

Where the parties mutually agree to refer a matter to expedited arbitration, the following procedure shall apply:

- (a) all presentations are to be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations;
- (b) the location of the hearing is to be agreed to by the parties;
- (c) as the process is intended to be informal, the parties agree that legal counsel will not be present;
- (d) the Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decisions shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision;
- (e) all decisions of the Arbitrator are to be limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either party in any subsequent proceeding;
- (f) all settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice;

- (g) the parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator;
- (h) the expedited Arbitrator, who shall act as a sole arbitrator, shall be mutually agreed to by the parties.

ARTICLE 31 - HARASSMENT

31.1 Preamble

Elim Christian Care Society (ECCS), in cooperation with the Union, is committed to a healthy, harassment free work environment for all of our employees. The parties agree to foster and promote such an environment. As such ECCS has developed and the parties have agreed to the following policy clauses intended to prevent harassment of any type, including sexual harassment, of its employees and to deal quickly and effectively with any incident.

It is the responsibility of all executives, directors, managers, or any person within ECCS supervising one or more employees to take immediate and appropriate action to report or deal with incidents of harassment of any type whether brought to their attention or personally observed. Under no circumstances should a legitimate complaint be dismissed or downplayed nor should the complainant be told to deal with it personally.

31.2 Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment means engaging in comment or conduct of a sexual nature which is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. It includes but is not limited to:

- (a) sexual solicitations, advances, remarks, suggestive comments and gestures.
- (b) the inappropriate display of sexually suggestive pictures, posters, objects or graffiti.
- (c) physical contact of a sexual nature (including sexual assault under the Criminal Code).

Complaints of sexual harassment will be investigated in accordance with Clause 31.4 (Harassment Complaint Procedure) of this agreement.

31.3 Personal Harassment

Personal harassment is any form of personal comment or conduct that is known to be, or should be reasonably known to be inappropriate. This may include, but is not limited to remarks, jokes, and innuendoes, taunting, sexually oriented conduct and requests, comments, gestures, or materials that are considered offensive, threatening, degrading or coercive which serve no legitimate work-related purpose and create a hostile, intimidating, or offensive environment which is counteractive to the accomplishment of Elim's mission.

Elim Christian Care Society also will not tolerate the display of sexually suggestive pictures, racist or offensive signs or images; practical jokes that result in awkwardness or embarrassment; unwelcome invitations or requests, whether indirect or explicit.

Harassment does not include actions occasioned through exercising in good faith the Employer's managerial/supervisory rights and responsibilities.

31.4 Harassment Complaint Procedure

An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment must submit a complaint in writing within three months of the latest alleged occurrence. For complaints under either Clause 31.2 (Sexual Harassment) or Clause 31.3 (Personal Harassment) the following process will be used:

- (a) If you are being harassed:
 - (1) Tell the harasser his/her behaviour is unwelcome and ask him/her to stop.
 - (2) Keep a record of incidents (date, times, locations, possible witnesses, what happened, your response). You do not have to have a record of events in order to file a complaint, but a record can strengthen your case and help you remember details over time.
 - (3) File a complaint. If, after asking the harasser to stop his/her behaviour, the harassment continues, report the problem to one of the following individuals:
 - (i) Executive Director
 - (ii) Director of Care or Director of Community Care or designate
 - (iii) Immediate Supervisor
 - (iv) Union Representative
 - (v) Human Resources Manager

Where the allegation was presented through the Union, the staff representative shall notify the Employer of the complaint within five calendar days and shall provide a copy of the complaint to the Employer's representative.

(c) Once a complaint is received, it will be kept strictly confidential. An investigation will be undertaken immediately and all necessary steps taken to resolve the problem. If appropriate, action taken may include conciliation. If a complaint is filed through the Union as a grievance, a meeting will be held with the union representative before and within seven days after the investigation to advise the Union of the outcome of the investigation and what action, if any, was taken. Timelines with respect to the grievance procedure will be placed in abeyance pending the outcome of the investigation. Where either the complainant or the respondent, in conjunction with the Union, is dissatisfied with the Employer's response, the matter may be referred to an adjudicator. The parties will agree on a single adjudicator. Where the parties are unable to agree on a single adjudicator, one will be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Labour Relations Code.

(d) Both the complainant and the alleged harasser will be interviewed, as will any individuals who may be able to provide relevant information. An employee interviewed as part of the investigation into a complaint of harassment will be entitled to have his/her shop steward present during the interview. All information will be kept in confidence.

(e) If the investigation reveals evidence to support the complaint of harassment, the harasser will be disciplined appropriately. Discipline may include suspension or dismissal, and the incident will be documented in the harasser's file. No documentation will be placed on the complainant's file where the complaint is filed in good faith, whether the complaint is upheld or not.

(f) If the investigation fails to find evidence to support the complaint, there will be no documentation concerning the complaint placed in the file of the alleged harasser.

(g) Regardless of the outcome of a harassment complaint made in good faith, the employee lodging the complaint, as well as anyone providing information, will be protected from any form of retaliation by either co-workers or superiors. This includes dismissal, demotion, unwanted transfer, denial of opportunities within ECCS or harassment of an individual as a result of her/his having made a complaint or having provided evidence regarding the complaint.

APPENDIX B
Procedure for Filling Shifts

All regular and casual employees shall be called in order of seniority. Employees shall provide the Employer with one telephone number that the Employer shall use for the purposes of filling shifts.

The call-in log shall be the Comvida electronic scheduling management system. In the event of a dispute, the Employer shall provide the Union with a print out of the call-in log covering the relevant dates.

Call Order

- (a) Qualified regular and casual employees shall be called for available work in order of their seniority and availability, except that the Employer may first offer regular employees the opportunity to extend a partial shift to a full shift.
- (b) Absences of more than five days, and up to 60 days, for reasons such as, but not limited to, the following: illness, vacation, injury, union business, or a combination thereof, shall be filled on a full block basis by the most senior person who is available as per the Call Order above. If the full block cannot be filled as above, the block may be split. If a regular employee accepts the block, the shifts of that employee will go to the senior available casual employee.

- (c) Absences that must be filled within one hour of the start of a shift may be filled by the supervisor at his/her discretion. This only applies when short notice of an absence is given, or when an employee has not reported for his/her scheduled shift.
- (d) An employee shall be entitled to register for work in any job classification which he/she has the qualifications to perform. It is understood that if an employee registers for and accepts work in a higher or lower paid classification they shall receive the applicable rate of pay for the classification and shift they are filling.
- (e) Employees will submit their availability by the 1st of the month for the following month (May 1st for June). Anyone who does not submit such may not be called in for casual work in that month.
- (f) Casual employees have the right to decline or refuse two shifts per month as stated on their submitted availability forms after which the Employer is not obligated to call them for the remainder of that particular month. Employees may submit revised availability in writing during the month.
- (g) Casual employees who accept shifts shall have the same obligation to report for work as regular employees.
- (h) Casual employees must be available for a minimum of four shifts per month. If a casual employee has not accepted work for a period of three months they shall lose their seniority and be placed at the bottom of the call-in list. The Employer shall provide notice that the casual employee has not accepted work for a period of three months and that they have lost their seniority and will be placed at the bottom of the casual list; and that the casual employee shall be deemed to have resigned if they do not accept work in the next three months.
